The Lions Club of Vernonia would like to thank all of the people that have supported their efforts and those that have purchased tickets and the "All In Pub & Eatery" for selling tickets and hosting the Texas Hold'em Poker Tournaments; the next game is Saturday, September 16 at 6:00 pm..

The Lions serve the community by providing eyeglasses and hearing aids to those in need. "We Serve" is their motto and they serve in many different ways. A relatively new program for the club, that started with the Dewey Pool Project, is to provide benches in city parks. Working with the City and the Freewheelers (great concrete work) the Lions have installed benches by the pool and by the play structure in Hawkins Park. The lifeguard stand has been replaced with a donation by the Terry Schaumberg Estate with a lightweight Tyvek product. Plans are to install a matching foot locker to replace the rusting metal locker. If you would like to have a bench or locker

Where Do You Read The Voice?

Jim Buxton, Cici Bell, and Cory Colburn shared The Voice at Bob and Julie Prohaska's property in Dayville, Oregon during the August 21st eclipse, while awaiting totality.

The Hayes and Pedersen families read the Voice during a recent trip to Herron Island, Washington where they watched the eclipse on the beach.

Challenging Wall Street Forestry

Chuck Willer of Coast Range Association presents a power point talk connecting the dots of investment resource extraction, "management" practices to push tree growth in plantation mono-crops, harms to the land, water, wildlife, and humans who live downstream. Harms to our economy and local infrastructure in our communities all in the name of profit.
