

Cota Poem Featured in New “Chicken Soup” Book

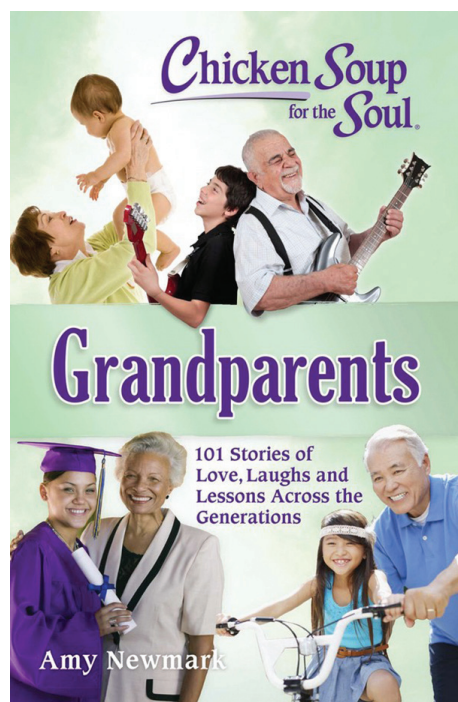

Signed copies available at Vernonia Library starting April 29

Once again, a local poet, Kala Cota, has been published by Chicken Soup for the Soul. This time it is the “Grandparents” edition and is Cota’s third time having a poem published in one of the popular Chicken Soup for the Soul books. This one is especially dear to her heart as are Kala’s three adorable granddaughters.

Cota and Vernonia Library Director Shannon Romtvedt are taking advantage of the wonderful fundraiser opportunities that Chicken Soup provides for its contributors. Signed copies of the new book will be available to purchase at the library from April 29 to May 11. All profits from the sale of the book will go to the library to provide more children’s activities.

This book would make a great Mother’s day gift for all the Grandmas, Nanas, and Mimis out there! A special bond between grandparents and their grandchildren exists and an unconditional love that is truly special. Whether an experienced grandparent, or a grandparent-to-be, you’ll enjoy these 101 heartwarming, amusing, and inspirational stories.

Margy Prout attended the retirement party for her brother Tom Tronson on Pudget Island, Washington, where Tom, his son Ben (right), and grandson Peyton caught up on the latest news from Vernonia on the steps of the Norse Hall.

Karen Miller and Judi Christiansen took the MAX to finally learn the real scoop on Portland’s past on the Portland Underground Tour. “Portland is quite different today than in yesteryear,” said Karen about their adventure.
