Columbia Humane Society

Purr-fect Pals

Diamond is roughly 5 months old. She is a very sweet girl that is looking for a home where she will be a lifelong companion and treated like a member of the family. She has been in a previous home with other cats and little kids and done very well with them. We don't know what her experience is with dogs.

If you are interested in meeting with Diamond we ask that you please email animalwelfare@columbi humane.org to obtain an application. Once you have an approved application on file, we will schedule a time for you to come in and meet Diamond. All meet and greets are done by appointment only and are scheduled one family at a time. We try our best to observe all physical distancing protocols and disinfect everything after each family is in the shelter. Diamond's adoption fee is $125, which includes her spay, all her vaccines, and her microchip.

Featured Dog

Dash originally came from Israel after his adoptive parents were no longer able to care for him. He is around 5 years old, is very strong willed, and will not do well in a home with a cat. He did at one point live in a home with a smaller dog and he did well with that. He is going to need a big yard to run and play, and to call his own. These guys are known for being protective of their homes and their yards from strangers. He can be reactive at times when walking near other dogs, however he can be quickly distracted with food. He has a pretty solid obedience background. This guy is a thinker and smart; he is sure to keep you on your toes.

If you are interested in meeting Dash, please email animalwelfare@columbi humane.org to obtain an application. Once you have an approved application we will then schedule a time for you to come in and meet him.
