CHRONICLE WIRE SERVICES

CRESWELL — The Creswell Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 4039 earned "All American" status for fiscal year 2018-19. The Department of Oregon (DO) also earned All American. The commander of the DO is Rick Higgins, of Creswell, a past commander of Post 4039.

Creswell Post 4039 ranked third overall in its size category. Requirements for All American are participating in national programs, which include Voice of Democracy, Patriot's Pen Youth Scholarship program, teacher award, partnering with a military unit, distributing buddy poppies, having a trained veteran service officer who helps veterans apply for VA benefits, and increasing post membership over the previous year.

The post is also involved in a number of community service activities which include bingo, Cub and Boy Scouts, memorial services and safety activities. State Department requirements include those listed for the post, plus participating in legislative programs in Washington D.C. and in national veterans' services.
