Get There Challenge

The 2019 Get There Challenge takes place Oct. 7-21 and urges Oregonians to out-commute the competition. Get There is a product of the Oregon Department of Transportation, and is Oregon's trip planning tool that connects users to transportation options, including finding a carpool match, joining or starting a vanpool, finding transit options and locating bike share stations. Visit getthereoregon.org for more information on how you can win prizes for not driving alone.

Get2the Willamette

SPRINGFIELD—On Friday, Oct. 4, in support of walking, biking and the Get There Challenge, a Wheels by the Willamette event will be held from 4 to 6 p.m. beginning at the Northbank Path at Aspen and West D Street in Springfield. Free bicycle safety checks, pedestrian materials (i.e. bike maps, lights, etc.) and snacks. More info: Emma Newman: 541-726-4585 or enewman@springfield-or.gov.

Pour 2Cups

CRESWELL—Creslane parents, feel free to drop into the Creslane Elementary School library between 8 and 9 a.m. on Tuesday, Oct. 8 to have coffee with principal Amy Halley. Stay for as long or as little as you'd like. This is an opportunity to share ideas, hear about what is happening at school, and connect with other families in an informal get-together. More dates: Dec. 10, Feb. 11, and April 14.

Come2TheChronicle

Creswell Food 4 Kids (CF4K) is a community-sponsored program seeking businesses to place food-donation baskets in their stores. The Chronicle has one, and encourages others to do the same. Those willing to help should contact Lisa Ross at CreswellFood4KidsProgram@gmail.com.

Come2theCarnival

CRESWELL—Creswell Christian Academy's second annual School Carnival is Friday, Oct. 11 from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. at 597 S. Front St. Children of all ages can enjoy a harvest of traditional games and prizes under October's Hunter's Moon. This year, the carnival has expanded to include a baking contest, a children's train and standard carnival games, including the cake walk. Pictured at last year's event is cake walk winner Lilly Waidlow, of Creswell. CHRONICLE ARCHIVES
