FRN donors help families write success stories

CRESWELL – During a fundraiser dinner held Oct. 18 in the Creswell High School commons, guest speaker Elizabeth Harter, at left, of Creswell, shares her family’s experiences utilizing respite care, preschool and parenting classes through the Creswell Family Relief Nursery, a satellite of FRN of Cottage Grove, which works to prevent child abuse and neglect by building on families’ strengths while shoring up weaknesses. At right, Harter draws a raffle winner’s name from a bowl held by FRN director of programs Crystal Morrison, left, during the dinner. The event, which featured a Silent Auction, Taco Bar buffet, Dessert Dash, raffle, an educational slideshow and live music by student musicians, raised about $11,000 to support FRN, reported executive director Peggy Whalen.
