

David Boyd Nystrom

May 28, 1942
- Oct. 11, 2019

David Boyd Nystrom, 77, of Cottage Grove, Oregon, passed away on Oct. 11, 2019 of multiple myeloma cancer.

David was born on May 28, 1942 in Eugene, Oregon, to parents Wilbur N. Nystrom and Virginia (Syphers) Nystrom. He attended school in Cottage Grove, Oregon, and was a member of the National Guard before being honorably discharged in November of 1966.

David married Georganne (Tudi) Sigler in 1984. They later divorced. He and Sue Miller were married on July 12, 2009.

Logging was his passion, starting as a choker setter before advancing to become a rigging slinger and cutter, as well as an expert saw filer. He moved to California in 1965 where he worked as a millwright, and then on to Alaska where he built his first sawmill at the age of 33.

David attended Lane Community College in 1991 and received an Associate of Science degree in machine technology as well as certificates for diesel engines, engine overhaul, fuel systems, heavy equipment and applied fluids.

After a decline in the timber industry, he started his own business, 2-D Logging and Excavation. He was a hard worker who enjoyed construction as well as logging, regularly using skidders, cats and dump trucks as he developed lots in the south hills of Eugene and helped to build Middlefield Golf Course.

David was certified to possess, use and transport explosives for demolition. He was an avid hunter and fisherman, always looking forward to salmon fishing on the Umpqua River for fall chinook with his wife, Sue. David also loved to go out for breakfast on Sunday mornings, regularly traveling up to 100 miles to try new restaurants.

In his younger years, David was a Cub Scout Leader. He made sure to impart practical life lessons, especially to children he knew needed extra help. He was a member of the Cottage Grove Elks for 26 years.

David is survived by his wife, Sue Nystrom of Cottage Grove; daughter Paula Laswell of Bend, Oregon; son, David N. Nystrom of Eugene, Oregon; stepsiblings Ron McHugill of Cottage Grove and Kelli Thompson of Creswell, Oregon; cousin Delores Rayson; three grandchildren: Natalie, Christopher and Sophia; and good friend Bill Parsons.

At David's request, there will be no service. The family requests that donations be made to South Lane County Fire & Rescue. Arrangements in the care of Smith Lund Mills Funeral Chapel in Cottage Grove.

James Edward Deacon

March 5, 1925
- Oct. 15, 2019

James "Jim" Deacon peacefully passed away on Oct. 15, 2019. He was 94 years old.

Jim was born March 5, 1925 to Edna and Edward Deacon in Berkeley, California. He moved with his family to Oahu, Hawaii in 1935 and was raised on a sugar plantation.

He was a senior in high school when the Japanese bombed Pearl Harbor in 1941. He was shipped to the mainland to live with family in California and graduated from Clearlake High School in 1942.

He joined the Navy after graduation and attended Doane College in Nebraska. Jim was a part of the Navy Pre-Flight Program, but sustained an injury and spent eight months in the Naval Hospital. He was honorably discharged in 1944. He resumed his education at UC Berkeley and earned a bachelor's degree in political science in 1950.

Jim returned to Hawaii and studied agriculture. He was hired by Castle & Cooke (C&H Sugar) as a management trainee and worked there for five years. In 1955, he returned to UC Berkeley, where he earned his degree in mechanical engineering in 1957.

After graduation, he moved to Stockton, California, where he met Doris Mose while playing bridge and attending the same church. On April 24, 1959, he married Doris, the love of his life, and became the proud Daddy to Bill (6) and Susan (4). They moved to the San Francisco area in 1960, where Jim completed his engineering studies and received his licenses in mechanical, civil, and structural engineering in four states: California, Oregon, Washington and Montana, and worked for several engineering firms. In 1963, their son, James, was born and their family was complete.

The family moved to Redding, California in 1968 and Jim began his career with U.S. Plywood. From Redding, they moved to Roseburg, then back to Redding, and finally to Eugene, Oregon, in 1976. Jim retired from Champion Building Products (formerly U.S. Plywood), where he was head of engineering, in 1987. Jim came out of retirement and worked for Teledyne Wah Chang in Albany, Oregon, for another seven years.

For many years, Doris and Jim enjoyed traveling in their RV across the US and Canada and went on 12 different cruises. They were avid bridge players, both in couples groups and individual groups, like the Grumpy Old Men's Group. Jim was very active in the church and served as a trustee. Jim enjoyed tennis, crabbing and camping with family.

Jim is survived by his wife of 60 years, Doris; sons Bill (Helen) and Jim (Sirena); daughter Susan (Cal); five grandchildren: Lisa, Peter, Matthew, Melanie and Susie; and 10 great-grandchildren. In addition, Jim and Doris informally adopted two grandchildren, Chris and Leigh, who are cousins of their grandchildren.

Jim was a kind gentleman with a strong faith in Christ. He had a quick wit and wonderful sense of humor. He was a true friend to many, a loving husband, father, grandfather and great-grandfather. His family is blessed and thankful for their many wonderful years together.

A memorial service will be held at 2 p.m. on Oct. 26 at Wesley Methodist Church in Eugene.

Arrangements are entrusted to Musgrove Family Mortuary.

Samuel H. Cole

1931-2019

Samuel H. Cole was born in Flint, Mich. in 1931 and was adopted as an infant.

The family moved to Santa Monica, California, and Sam graduated from Santa Monica High School.

Shortly thereafter, Sam joined the Marines. He was sent to Korea and was engaged in the battle at the Chosin Reservoir. After his honorable discharge, he enrolled in UCLA and graduated with a business degree. Sam worked for Hughes Aircraft, Northrup-Grumman, the United States Postal Service and finally retired after managing a sporting goods store in Eugene.

Sam met Lyn LaGrander in August 1985 and they were married on Dec. 28, 1985 at the Church of the Resurrection in Eugene.

After retirement, Sam and Lyn enjoyed RVing, driving across Canada, snowbirding in Needles, California and Green Valley, Arizona. They also traveled to Kauai, New Zealand, Australia, Fiji and the Cook Islands.

Sam leaves behind his wife, Lyn; his stepdaughters Gail LaGrander (Jerry Johnson) of Tempe, Arizona, and Amy LaGrander; grandchildren Reid and Lauren Smith, of Springfield; and the best dog, Ellie.

A celebration of Sam's life will be held at 1 p.m. on Saturday, Nov. 9 at Creswell Presbyterian Church. A reception will follow.

Contributions in his name may be sent to the Community Veterinary Center at PO Box 10971, Eugene, OR 97440 or to the Creswell Library.
