Gemini-Rabbit plotting successful path

I received a question from a female reader of The Chronicle who was born under the sign Gemini during the Year of the Rabbit, and her question pertains to plans she has plotted with her male partner, who was born under the sign Pieces during the Year of the Rat.

This Gemini-Rabbit worked in foreign service, and I can say without a doubt, this reader followed her passion and the characteristics of her Gemini-Rabbit sign. It would be wonderful for all people to live their best life, if all signs were tuned-in to their natural characteristics, skills, talents, and career passion. This Gemini-Rabbit chose an amazing career path that allowed her to utilize her natural skills, personality, passion, and intelligence.

A Gemini-Rabbit is energetic, optimistic, and enjoys the limitless opportunity in life, taking advantage of every wonderful thing life has to offer. Ideologically a Gemini-Rabbit's views on life are reminiscent of a quote from the 1958 film, Auntie Mame –

“Life is a banquet, and most poor suckers are starving to death!” A Gemini-Rabbit consumes life, eager to create and embrace the next opportunity.

A Gemini-Rabbit loves reading, unwilling to waste a moment of downtime when she could be enjoying an adventure through the exciting and dynamic pages of realistic fiction and non-fiction stories (romance, thrillers, and spy novels are likely among the favorites). This sign is sensitive and prone to stress and anxiety when the pressure is on, but also extremely resilient, and able to handle adverse situations better than many other signs.

A Gemini-Rabbit enjoys traveling, dressing fashionably, attending parties (especially ones that include a guest list of eclectic and influential people). A Gemini-Rabbit enjoys family gatherings and will never turn down the opportunity for shopping or dining out, especially if the location has a touted reputation or offers a unique experience to reflect on later and share with friends.

A Gemini-Rabbit often pursues a career that offers an aspect of public relations, utilizing their entertaining and optimistic personality to influence the environment or change in the world. Many Gemini-Rabbits choose a career path that is secure, while also utilizing their influence by offering their talents to inspire and effect change in the world. For instance, Angelina Jolie is a Gemini-Rabbit. She is a successful actress, producer, director, and writer, but she is also respected for her humanitarian work. Bob Hope was a Gemini-Rabbit, and was a popular entertainer, and well-known for his dedicated volunteer work with the USO, entertaining and uplifting military personnel during numerous wars for over 50 years. When I find a Gemini-Rabbit that is feeling down and unfulfilled, I often recommend they find a way to volunteer and inspire vulnerable populations. It could be as simple as offering acts of kindness to their elderly neighbor or be as bold as stimulating awareness throughout the world, enlightening others of the plight of a struggling country.

This Gemini-Rabbit's partner (Pieces-Rat) was born under a strong sign with patient and controlled mannerisms, and this sign often chooses professional careers of leadership with good intentions to serve others. Politics, law, judicial activism, and calm leadership are of interest to Pieces-Rat individuals. Motivational speaker Tony Robbins and Shaquille O'Neal were born under the sign Pieces-Rat, as was President George Washington. This sign is steady and reliable, not easily shaken and provoked. This is a sign that offers a sense of security, responsibility, and reliability to those who depend on them. The Pieces-Rat and Gemini-Rabbit will offer each other the companionship, stability, and commitment they seek looking forward, aging together and balancing each other.

The Gemini-Rabbit mentioned that she and the Pieces-Rat are living in a long-dis-

STRANGE BUT TRUE

By Lucie Winborne

- * In 1883, Bill Kinsman of Tombstone, Ariz., was the subject of a practical joke when the local paper announced his intention to marry one May Woodman. The surprised future groom countered with a notice of his own that he had no such plans – and was soon after shot to death by the humiliated Ms. Woodman.
 - * “Cenosilicaphobia” is the fear of an empty beer glass.
 - * Turning back the giant hands on Big Ben’s four clock faces takes a total of five hours.
 - * Alexandre Dumas, best known for “The Three Musketeers” and “The Count of Monte Cristo,” felt strongly that all his works must be presented on colored paper. He wanted all his fiction presented on blue paper, his articles on pink paper and his poetry on yellow paper.
 - * Golf balls were once made from dried cow eyeballs.
 - * The tea bag was an accidental invention. In 1908, tea merchant Thomas Sullivan distributed his samples in small silken sacks. His customers, not realizing they were samples, dunked them in hot water, and Sullivan found himself swamped with orders for his “tea bags”
 - * In his travels, Marco Polo believed at one point that he had stumbled across unicorns, writing that “They are very ugly brutes to look at. They are not at all such as we describe unicorns.” He was actually viewing rhinoceroses.
 - * Ancient Romans created black hair dye by fermenting leeches in vinegar.
