TERSELY TOLD TOWN TOPICS.

A. G. Miller has sold forty acres of land three miles southwest of Cottage Grove to Charles Walker, the consideration being $500. Mr. Miller will go to Roseburg. his wife's health not permitting him to continue farming.

The Rev. Mr. Adams has offered season tickets to the Lyceum course to the winners of High School preliminary debates. This is helping to arouse some interest in debate. Sixteen pupils are trying for the tickets.

Mrs. R. B. Job spent the first of the week with Corvallis friends.

Mrs. C. E. Lathrop has arrived here from New York and joined her husband on the Spray ranch.

Lurch's has a new announcement in The Sentinel today.

Edward Rostein, a young merchant of Salem, was in Eugene today visiting his mother and went to Cottage Grove this afternoon to close out the stock of the Hemenway store, which he and his brother have purchased. The goods that can not be sold at Cottage Grove will be taken to their Salem store.—Eugene Guard.

Cochran & Nichols pay the highest price for second hand bicycles and guns. Take your repairing to them. ..

Mrs. F. J. Hickey returned on Monday from a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Woods of Eugene.

J. W. Stone of Creswell has sold his 240-acre farm to G. L. Guyer of South Dakota for $10,000,

Wm. Irving of Creswell has been taken to a hospital at the county seat by the Odd Fellows.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Milne of Eugene were guests of their son, J. S. Milne, and family, the first of the week, stopping here on their return from a visit to California.

Call and look at E. B. Grable's line of men's and boys' work shoes. They are guaranteed. Store on Fourth street. ..

The members of the local company, O. N. G., are not taking sufficient interest in drills to satisfy Capt. Johnson, and he urges a larger attendance Tuesday nights.

Mrs. Lena Harris, nee Fredrickson, is in a hospital at Portland, suffering from an abscess in the side.

Two members of the Oregon State Police, or in other words railway detectives, were in Cottage Grove the first of the week in search of depot breakers. Twelve depots in this vicinity were broken into within a few days last week.

Mrs. Thos. Pearce went to Eugene on Monday to visit her mother.

Henry Landess was a county seat visitor on Monday.

Mrs. J. A. Powell is entertaining her daughter, Mrs. Belle Sweaney of Eugene.

Olympic Process Barley, 75 pound sacks. The cheapest and best, $1.25 per sack at Spray-Wynne Company. ..

The State Board of Health has undertaken the task of cleaning up the dairies of the State, so as to insure a clean milk supply from healthy cattle, and in the work it should have the cooperation of all.

Hubert Wright of Roseburg, aged 31, was instantly killed Sunday afternoon by the accidental discharge of a 40-60 Winchester rifle which he was cleaning.

Mr. Gilkey of Oklahoma is expected to arrive here about November 10 to take up the proposition of erecting an opera house.

Sheriff Bown was in Cottage Grove on Monday in search of a fugitive from justice.

A carload of new high grade pianos will arrive at Marion Veatch's Music store November 1st. ..

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Bissell and children, who have been visiting friends in Cottage Grove, and were on their way to Dunsmuir, Cal., paid a visit to Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Counts. Mrs. Bissell is a niece of Mrs. Counts. Mr. Bissell is a Southern Pacific conductor.—Drain Nonpariel.

Roseburg has recently purchased a modern rock crusher, and puposes to further improve its streets.

Cream of Tartar comes from grapes. Every crimson drop of grape juice contains its integral part of grape acid, or cream of tartar. This is what good baking powders, such as Cleveland's is made from. ..

Coquille has a handsome new theatre, and is proud of it.

Mr. Frank Wheeler. while in the rural district south of town, visited the farm of J. H. Hull and brought to the Commercial club rooms some handsome specimens of arctichokes. Mr. Hull has an acre planted to these, from which he will harvest 500 bushels.

A good liberal discount on pianos at Veatch's Music store until November 1st, to make room for new stock. ..

L. F. Wooley returned to Cottage Grove this afternoon after a short stay in the city. While working recently at the carpenter's trade a heavy timber fell on him and he was slightly crippled as a conseuqence.—Eugene Guard.

R. E. Dersham, who has a farm near Creswell, this county, has gathered sixty-nine sacks of potatoes from ten 150-foot rows, three potatoes weighing eight pounds. But this was beaten three years ago, when the same ground produced twelve potatoes that weighed fifty pounds.

See that the label on your can of baking powder reads Cream of Tartar, Bi-carbonate of Soda and starch, as it takes all of these ingredients to make a perfect baking powder—such as Cleveland's. ..

W. F. Curtis of Franklin, North Carolina, was in Cottage Grove the first of the week on a tour of inspection. He is pleased with the Western country and may decided to locate here later.

In the current issue of the Technical World, a magazine published in the East, is a picture of the recent wreck on the O. & S. E. railroad near Cottage Grove, showing the peculiar position of the locomotive as it hung suspended on the broken trestle.

Forty pound China Pheasant Flour for one bushel of wheat at Spray-Wynne Company. ..

A. Lombard of Eugene was in town on business Saturday, and went from here farther south.

Springfield may have a new laundry in the near future.

The News says that Springfield will have a crack baseball team next season.

Woodburn has awarded a paving contract to the Warren Construction Company at $2.39 per square yard.

You can get first class shoe and harness repairing at the new shop of E. B. Grable, on Fourth street. ..

J. W. Ashby transacted business at the county seat on Saturday.

Councilman J. A. Elledge returned on Saturday from the Bohemia, whither he went to run out some propety lines for George McQueen. While in the camp he visited the North Fairview, Vesuvious and Glenwood mines, and reports all of these as being active. The recent new discoveries have created considerable interest among mine owners and prospectors.

Springfield will sell $10,000 worth of sewer bonds maturing in ten years.

Mrs. David Griggs entertained her sister, Miss Grace Bingham of Eugene, the first of the week.

E. B. Grable sews on shoe soles and guarantees his work. Give him a call, on Fourth street. ..

Twenty acres of the Klemmer place, near Hood River, has been sold to H. W. Rodamar of Iowa for $17,000. The fruit trees are two and three years old.

Frank Jordan has been suffering this week with a carbuncle.

W. Nokes of Seattle has leased the Will Cooper house on Fourth street, and moved his family thereto.

The postoffice at Harrisburg was broken into and robbed Saturday night.

The forest rangers of the Cascade and Siuslaw districts are in session at Eugene today, discussing matters for the general good of the service.

Mrs. DesPain of Eugene spent Sunday with friends in this city.

All kinds of sewing machine needles at Marion Veatch's. ..

M. E. Sanbert & Co. have sold their sawmill at Acme, and also their timber holdings, to C. E. Shay of Portland.

Geo. W. Bond of Colorado has purchased the Armitage farm of 200 arces in this county for $34,000. He will raise alfalfa on a large scale.

Frank Weston has sold a twelve-acre orchard near Medford for $20,000, or $1,666 an acre, reserving this year's crop, which has been sold for $5,300. Undeveloped land of the same quality may be had near Cottage Grove for about $100 an acre.

C. M. Lee of Talent has sold a four-acre peach orchard to C. W. Hope for $3,000.

J. E. English of this county is ploughing seventeen acres a day with a traction engine and a gang plow.

What makes Cleveland's Baking Powder sell? Quality and price. 3 pound cans $1.00; 5 pound cans $1.65. Ask for the cans with the patent screw top. ..

The father of Lee Chaney has arrived here from Boise, Idaho, to attend his son, who has been ill for some time past, but who is now much improved.

The first consignment of grain from Bandon for this season was 2,000 bushels, shipped to Portland.

The Myrtle Point Enterprise tells of a rancher who dug a hill of five potatoes, the longest of which was 15 inches and the shortest 10 inches, the five having a total weight of 13 pounds.

Captain W. E. Rackleff, a pioneer of Coos county, is dead of paralysis.

Gold Beach has organized a development league with forty members.

The Bandon Record has a very commendable article on the need of more dairies in Oregon.

The woolen mill at Brownsville is running day and night to supply its orders.

John F. Woodard of Cottage Grove was a recent visitor at Roseburg.

Gentlemen's and ladies' diamond rings from $8 to $400. Call at Madsen's and see them. ..

Mrs. D. T. Awbrey, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. S. S. Siegal of Portland, returned to Cottage Grove Saturday night.

Alderman Elledge is engaged in securing right-of-way for the proposed pipe line from Layng creek to this city Thus far he has encountered no difficulty, and does not apprehend any.

R. E. Griswold, a civil engineer, has purchased the residence property of Mrs. J. B. Richmond, his mother-in-law, on Mill street, and will make Cottage Grove his future home. He is interested in timber lands and a sawmill at Elkton.

Sheriff Bown has this week turned over to the county treasurer $827.33 of Cottage Grove tax money, which amount has been turned into the city treasurer.

The Misses Hazel and Margaret Cuniff came to Cottage Grove with their father, Brakeman Cuniff, Saturday night, returning to Portland with him on Sunday.

Madsen has bought a fine line of diamonds at a bargain, and will sell them cheaper than you can buy them anywhere else. ..

Mr. C. J. Howard, more familiarly known to his many friends throughout this section as "Jack," was in Cottage Grove on Saturday. He was formerly publisher of this paper, and still having a hankering for the smell of printer's ink, he pulled our latchstring, took a whiff of the ingredient that aids in moving the world and departed with an 18-karat smile overspreading his countenance.

Biggest bargains in diamonds ever offered in Cottage Grove at Madsen's next week. ..

The first number of The Superlative, the High school paper, will be published about Thanksgiving. It will be printed by The Sentinel.

Louis Cohn of Chicago, secretary to J. Krutschnitt the railway magnate, has been in Cottage Grove the past few days visiting friends.

Big diamond sale at Madsen's next week. ..

W. V. Dewold now occupies his new store building on Third street.

S. K. Busick of Dorena was a visitor in the city on Monday.

M. Scovel is visiting relatives in Yamhill county for a few days.

The high school basket ball team failed to materialize last Saturday evening and hence the Eighth grade team was awarded the game without a struggle.

Harry Parker came down from the Bohemia last Saturday and spent several days in town. He reports work on the claims of his company as progressing satisfactorly.

You can pick out a diamond for a Christmas present now. Madsen will put them away for you. ..

T. A. Anderson, a piano tuner of Eugene, is in Cottage Grove this week. Orders left with Marion Veatch will be given immediate attention.

H. W. Stahley has accepted a position as storekeeper for the Booth-Kelly company at Saginaw.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Jones on Monday last, a son.

John Scott and Roy Riggs brought in a deer from Disston on Saturday that weighed 175 pounds dressed.

You can pick out a diamond for a Christmas present now. Madsen will put them away for you. ..

H. A. Batchelor of Saginaw, Michigan, was in the city on Monday. Mr. Batchelor is at the head of an eastern syndicate that owns a large tract of timber land on the Wilson river in Tillamook county. The timber is held as an investment.

Messrs. H. H. Veatch, George Taylor and Will Beck spent a portion of the week hunting along the head of Cedar creek.

Mr. J. W. Wilson and family, Mr. and Mrs. Shinn, Mr. and Mrs. Conley and Mr. and Mrs. Cates were visitors at London last Sunday.

If you want a diamond to give for a Christmas present, call at Madsen's next week; $50 diamonds for $35 and $45 for $25. ..

The banquet which was to have been given on Tuesday night by the Merchants' Protective Association was postponed to a date to be decided upon by the committee, which is composed of Messrs. Veatch, Wheeler and Tyson.

Paul Fleming of Creswell has been in the city a portion of the week, a guest of Frank Ralston.

Buy an Edison Phonograph at Veatch's Music Store and enjoy the long winter evenings. ..

F. J. Hard, formerly engaged in the newspaper business in this city, now of Eugene, was a Cottage Grove visitor on Tuesday.

Fingal Hines was at the county seat on Tuesday.

J. S. Medley and J. C. Johnson attended circuit court at Eugene this week.

J. Landess took the forestry service examination in Eugene on Tuesday.

Cleveland's Baking Powder. ..

Messrs. I. S. Bath and F. B. Beaulieu, after having spent several days in Portland, returned to Cottage Grove Monday night.

The Bulletin, a monthly journal devoted to Hoo-Hoo, and published at Nashville, Tenn., gives a lengthy account of the concatenation recently held in Cottage Grove by Snark Rosenberg.

Messrs. F. B. Phillips, J. S. Benson, F. B. Wheeler and G. H. Tyson left on Wednesday for Gardiner, where they will remain about a week duck hunting.

G. W. Whitsett, an old resident of Cottage Grove, thinks the Lorane Valley is the best adapted to fruit growing of any land in this section. Lying on the west slope of the Siuslaw country it is protected, and besides it gets the warm Japan current.

Messrs. Rostein & Greenbaum, who recently purchased the Hemenway stock, are represented in The Sentinel today.

Alderman Geo. Atkison is out with Alderman Elledge securing right-of-way for the pipe line from Layng creek.

W. V. Gillispie has a sack of potatoes at his place near the Row River Lumber company's mill, measuring two bushels, weighing 84 pounds and containing but 27 potatoes.

H. Adams is ill with lung fever at his home in Latham.

Mrs. Widdershem is confined to her home by illness.

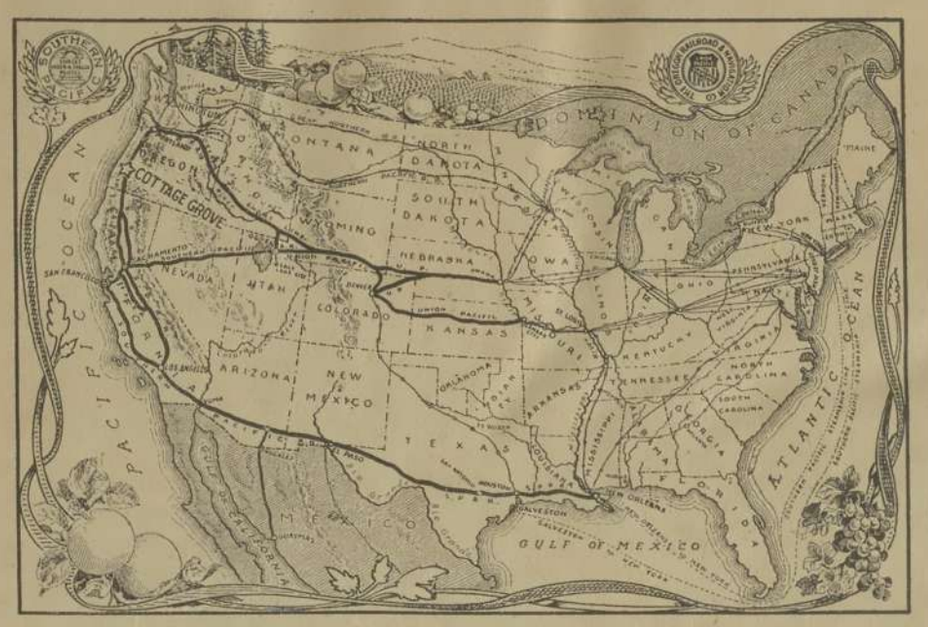
The death of Luther G. Adair, which occurred in Eugene Sunday, removes one of the best-known men in Eugene. Beginning in 1887 and continuing for twenty-nine consecutive years, Mr. Adair was the local agent for the Southern Pacific at that place until 1906.

The Rev. E. G. O. Groat attended the Baptist State Convention at Roseburg. It was the best meeting of the kind he had ever had the pleasure of attending.

Orchestra in Methodist church on Sunday evening.

John Paterson of Eugene was in the city on Wednesday on telephone business.

E. L. Stockwell is in Eugene for a few days this week.



Map Showing the Geographical Position of Cottage Grove.

Hampton & Co.

FOR the Balance of October we are going to offer a trade inducement to the people that cannot fail to prove "fetching." Below are some reduced prices for your inspection. Bear in mind that every garment is seasonable and up-to-date, all being purchased for NOWS trade. Every article is a good value, and if not satisfactory may be exchanged or money back. Come into our store and inspect the goods; you don't have to buy unless you want to. : : : : : : : :

Boys' Suits Reduced

A Large Assortment of Knickerbocker Suits made from the same fabrics as our Men's Clothing at the following prices:

$6.50	Suits for	- -	$5 75
5.00	" "	- -	4 25
4.00	" "	- -	3 50
3.50	" "	- -	3 00
3.00	" "	- -	2 50
2.50	" "	- -	2 00

While They Last.

This Sale is only to make room for an Eastern shipment now enroute.

LADIES' FURS

The latest fashions will be found at our store from $2 00 to $6 50

"Best Yet" Children's Storm Capes

The only thing for School wear, protects the child from head to foot, $2 50

Ladies' and Children's Coats

All Reduced This Month, Ending October 31.

Ladies'	$18	Coats for -	$16 50
"	16	" " - -	14 75
"	15	" " -	13 65
"	14.50	" " - -	12 75
"	12.50	" " - -	10 75
"	10	" " - -	8 75
"	7.50	" " - -	6 75
Children's	$8,50	Coats -	$7 50
"	6.50	" - -	5 50
"	5.00	" -	4 00
"	4.00	" - -	3 50
"	3.50	" -	3.00

Children's Bear Skin Coats

$2.50	Coats -	$2 00
3.75	Coats -	3 25
4.75	Coats - -	4 25

Ladies' Black Satin Waists

Embroidered $1 50. Black Satin Skirts, $1 00

Men's Tailored Suits

Hundreds of Samples to Select from, and every suit or overcoat absolutely guaranteed to fit perfectly. We represent one of the very best merchant tailoring establishments in America, and our instructions are to return any suit that fails to fit. We haven't had to send one back as yet. When you come to us for clothing of this kind you are, practically speaking, stepping into one of the largest tailor shops on the continent.

SUITS $15 TO $40

A Saving of $3 to $10 on every Suit