

MARRIED FIFTY YEARS

Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Celebrate Golden Wedding.

FRIENDS ARE THEIR GUESTS

United in Matrimony in Germany and Came to America in Early Life—Oregon Their Home for Many Years.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Rudolph, who reside one mile southwest of Cottage Grove on a ranch of 200 acres, celebrated their golden wedding last Friday night, in the neighborhood of twenty immediate friends and relatives being present and participating in a bountiful turkey dinner, and otherwise enjoying the congratulatory event. Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph were married in Dresden, Germany, in 1859. In 1870 they came to America and located in Yankton, South Dakota. After residing there until 1889, they came to Oregon, settling near this city, where they have resided since, making many warm friends and acquaintances among the people of the community. Mr. Rudolph is now 75 years of age, and his good wife is 69. They both enjoy good health, which they attribute to the splendid Oregon climate.

Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph have nine children: Mrs. J. Kubowitz and Mr. H. C. Rudolph of South Dakota, Miss Agnes Rudolph and Mrs. Robertina Anlauf of Portland, Mrs. Elizabeth Fohrenwald, Herman, Hugo, Will and Paul Rudolph of Cottage Grove. All of these were present, except the son and daughter who reside in South Dakota.

WE NEED THE MONEY.

The Sentinel Extends a Cordial Invitation to Its Subscribers.

The Sentinel has this week sent statements to a number of delinquent subscribers, and hopes and trusts that each recipient will give the matter attention. The subscription price of The Sentinel is $1.50 the year, a low figure when quantity and quality are considered. During the month of October it printed 245 columns of pure reading matter, of which 214 columns were of a local character. When it is considered that there are approximately 2,205,000 separate pieces of type in this amount of reading matter some idea of the work performed may be had. And for this the cost to the individual reader is less than thirteen cents.

From the foregoing it will readily be comprehended that the publisher cannot afford to allow subscriptions to lag. It takes money to make a newspaper like The Sentinel, and the cash must necessarily come from its patrons.

If you have received a statement, do not look upon it as a "dun" and cast it aside without further consideration, but walk up to the captain's office and assist him in pushing a good thing along. "It will be appreciated. Remember, all subscriptions are payable in advance."

"Sir!" thundered the prosecuting attorney, "you are evading my question."

"Darn it," answered the prisoner before the bar, "if you knew the facts in the case as well as I do, you wouldn't blame me."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

Crop Was a Failure.

"I suppose you know of my family tree?" said Baron Fucash. "Yep," answered Mr. Cumrox. "It may have been a good tree, all right, but it looks to me as if the crop was a failure."—Washington.

Thought He Knew Better.

"Well, anyway, it is safe to say that when women really want the ballot they will get it."

"No, I don't think it would be—quite safe for you to say it in the presence of my wife."

To Correspond.

"I notice that since Clerkleigh got into dissipated habits he doesn't use the perpendicular style in his handwriting."

"No, and he doesn't use it in his walk, either."

Prompt Action.

Anxious Friend—Gayman, you ought to do something for that uncontrollable thirst of yours, and you ought to do it quick.

Gayman (putting on his hat)—I'm ready to go and join you in one right now, old chap!

Logical Conclusion.

"You look sweet enough to kiss," says the impressed young man.

"So many gentlemen tell me that, coyly answers the fair girl.

"Ah! That should make you happy." "But they merely say that," she replies. "They merely tell me the fact."

Entertain Leaguers.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Conner entertained the Epworth League members at their pleasant home on Wall street last Saturday night, the occasion being a Halloween party. The rooms were handsomely decorated with roses and autumn leaves, and the guests were ushered into these by real ghosts. Various games appropriate to the occasion were indulged in, after which dainty refreshments were served. There were several musical numbers, rendered by Prof. Glaze, Mrs. F. R. Kurtz, Clare Conner, Mrs. Conner, Miss Mildred Pringle and Miss Hazel Hazelton.

An Interesting Session.

It is a matter for serious regret that the attendance at Monday evening's session of the Commercial club was not larger. It would have proved an excellent remedy for that disease commonly known as lukewarmness, which exists to some degree among members. The enthusiasm manifested was in keeping with the Cottage Grove spirit, which is becoming contagious. Several matters of importance to the community were discussed, prominent among which is a project to construct a railway from this city to a point on the coast. A locating engineer was here last week looking after the project, and it is probable that the undertaking will be given substantial assistance if business is meant by the promoters. Messrs. Rosenberg and Conley were appointed to draft resolutions favoring the project.

A vote of thanks was tendered the Promotion department of the club for the excellent work it has accomplished, and in response President H. O. Thompson, who is likewise chairman of the auxiliary, made a short talk, which was directly to the point.

Signs have been posted excluding persons not members of the club, or invited guests, from the rooms. This was made necessary by the fact that the rooms are at times overrun by individuals who do not appreciate the courtesies of the association.

This Is a Busy Place.

The rapid strides of modern development are in much evidence at Dorena, a station nine miles east of Cottage Grove near the center of the rich Row river valley. Eight years ago when the O. & S. E. was surveyed to that place, and stakes set for a side track, two little farm girls were playing near. Their names were Dora Hawkins and Rena Jones. Dora and Rena were favorites of the surveyors, and, so the story goes, the station was named Dorena after both, and now fifty children are there attending a graded school with two teachers, Prof. Harshel and his cousin, Miss Maude Hedrick. Beside the pretty school house is a fine church. At Dorena some 150 people reside, many of them owning costly homes.

The Chambers Lumber company at this place has a large store and their shipping docks and planing mill are here, the lumber being carried in a flume a distance of one and a half miles. This company employs 75 men and has a large payroll. W. S. Shearer is superintendent of the planing mill and saw mill, Frank McFarland superintendent of timber, C. J. Chambers sawyer, W. C. Shearer foreman of planer and George Orr machinist. Others employed there are C. G. Shearer, George Stanley, Lee Thompson, W. A. Land, Geo. Shields, Fred Brewster, C. Plank, J. P. Clark, W. A. Kidney, Geo. Bonham, Geo. Van Schoiaek, Bill Plank, E. K. McGilland and Will Clark all at the planer, and A. B. Wooley, C. Brandt, Leo Wilson, R. McDonald, E. Little, W. Churchill, W. T. Churchill, G. W. Churchill, J. Thompson, George Thompson and J. W. Frank, all at the mill, and Jim Hanks, L. W. Wilson, J. L. Lingo, F. Jones, O. Ross, B. Addison, L. Bender, A. G. Heaton, G. W. Hansen, D. Hansen, G. W. Morris, W. R. Pearson, C. Jones, R. E. Ladd and G. Scott, all in the woods.

DON'T WAIT.

Take Advantage of Cottage Grove Citizen's Experience Before It's Too Late.

When the back begins to ache Don't wait until backache becomes chronic; Till serious kidney troubles develop; Till urinary troubles destroy night's rest.

Benefit by a Cottage Grove citizen's experience.

Mrs. E. B. Sherman, of Cottage Grove Ore., says: "Kidney disease came on me gradually and I was in a serious condition before I realized it. I had pains in my sides, hips and loins and was always worn out. I became weak and was subject to headaches and dizzy spells. My feet and ankles were swollen so badly at times that I could not put on my shoes. A friend advised me to use Doan's Kidney pills and I procured a box at Benson's pharmacy. I noticed a wonderful improvement in a short time. The kidneys became normal, the backaches ceased and all the other disagreeable symptoms were banished. I am now feeling better than in a long time and owe my present good health to Doan's Kidney pills."

HOME CURE FOR ECZEMA

Oil of Wintergreen, Thymol, Glycerine, Etc.,
Used as a Simple Wash

It really seems strange that so many people suffer year in and year out with eczema, when it is now no longer a secret that oil of wintergreen mixed with thymol, glycerine, etc., makes a wash that is bound to cure.

Old, obstinate cases, it is true, cannot be cured in a few days, but there is absolutely no sufferer from eczema who ever used this simple wash and did not find immediately that wonderfully soothing, calm, cool sensation that comes when the itch is taken away. Instantly upon applying a few drops of the wash the remedy takes effect, the itch is allayed. There is no need of experiment—the patient knows at once.

Instead of trying to compound the oil of wintergreen, thymol, glycerine, etc., in the right proportions ourselves we are using a prescription which is universally found the most effective. It is known as the D. D. D. Prescription, or Oil of Wintergreen Compound. It is made by the D. D. D. Co. of Chicago, and our long experience with this remedy has given us great confidence in its merits.
