A Tribute.
"To E. H. Harriman's obituary notices," said a New York clergyman, "due prominence wasn't given to his fondness for little children. That children were also fond of him was proved by a remark my little daughter made last month.
"Mr. Harriman is dead, my dear," I said to her.
"Her eyes filled with tears, and she said, with a gulp:
"Oh, papa, how happy the angels will be!"

Stops Hair Falling

Ayer's Hair Vigor, new improved formula, will certainly stop falling of the hair. Indeed, we believe it will always do this unless there is some disturbance of the general health. Then, a constitutional medicine may be necessary. Consult your physician about this.
Does not change the color of the hair.
Formula with each bottle
Show it to your doctor
Ask him about it, then do as he says
The reason why Ayer's Hair Vigor stops falling hair is because it first destroys the germs which cause this trouble. After this is done, nature soon brings about a full recovery, restoring the hair and scalp to a perfectly healthy condition.

CHRIST TO COME AGAIN

Faith of Certain People and Sects in His Return Long Has Existed.

ADVENT WAS EXPECTED IN 1844

Out of the Miller Movement Came the Adventists, Who Number About 95,000.

The disappointment of a small body of believers in the coming to an end of the world which has just made a West Duxbury church a momentary object of attention is made the object of ridicule by some and of wonder by others, the New Bedford (Mass.) Standard says. We have in the faith of these few people and in their disappointment a recurrence of a phenomenon which the Christian church has witnessed more than once, on a

DAUGHTER OF THE LATE RAILROAD KING BEGINS MANAGEMENT OF 33,000 ACRE ESTATE

MISS MARY HARRIMAN

Miss Mary Harriman will be the greatest woman farmer in the United States, as by a family arrangement she has taken charge of Arden, at Turner, N. Y. The Arden farms include 14,000 acres, while altogether she will have supervision of 33,000 acres. Three thousand acres are now under cultivation, with much of it in truck farms. The Arden Farms Dairy, with a capitalization of $100,000, will be her special care. There are 350 registered cows, with butter sold every day in New York under contracts.
Miss Harriman has done much settlement work and is not at all fond of society. She is a musician and a linguist and is said to be able to converse even in Japanese. She is 25 years old, but looks much younger. She daily drives over the farm in a smart trap and is every day inspecting the roadmaking, the terracing of hills and landscape gardening which she planned with her father.

more extended scale. The belief in the second coming of Christ at an early date has not been uncommon in the Christian church from the beginning. This idea has persisted and has appeared again and again, and is probably destined to a long, if lingering, life.
So far as this country is concerned, the greatest exhibition of expectation of the early second coming of Christ was at about the middle of the last century, when William Miller, a clergyman of the Baptist denomination, made up his mind that the advent would occur in 1843 or 1844. By means of an extremely literal interpretation of the imagery of the scriptural writers he came at last to be convinced that the end of the world would come on Oct. 22, 1844.

In some sections of the country, it was said that there was scarcely a Christian church in which there were not adherents of the idea, and occasionally a church was disrupted by it. The apostles of this evangel were difficult to contend with. After the disappointment that the predictions of Miller were not fulfilled there was the inevitable reaction. Some returned to their old churches, while some went adrift from all religious faith.

Out of the movement came the advent denomination, which has now six branches with about 95,000 communicants, and in which there is agreement that the second coming of Christ is to be personal and premillennial, and is close at hand, though few venture to fix dates. The differences between the branches are principally with relation to varying ideas about the immortality of the soul.

It is generally understood that in most branches of the Christian church there are men and women who in a vague and more or less speculative way believe in the early second coming of Christ and in the resultant end of the world as it now exists. Such beliefs are usually held quietly and not as occasion for difference. It is not strange, considering the origin and the history of Christianity, that the idea originated and has persisted.

ENGLISH SCHOOLS.

Quaint Customs That Are Maintained with Religious Care.
The head master of Manchester Grammar School, in a speech at Rochdale, referred to a custom at Rugby School which forbids a boy of less than three years' standing to turn up his trousers and insists on his doing so after that period.
The custom is only a minor instance of the quaint practices that exist at all the great public schools in England and are maintained with religious care, though in many cases their origin is obscure or unknown. The Shrove Tuesday tossing of the pancake at Westminster School, with its ensuing scramble for the largest fragment, is another instance.
