

HAWLEY IS ARRAIGNED

Indignation Over Position
Toward Cannonism.

OTHERS WHO ARE ON THE LIST

According to Success Hawley Would Receive But Forty-two Out of Every Sixty-two Votes Cast If Election Were Tomorrow.

If Representative Hawley were up for re-election tomorrow, according to the Auxiliary Editorial Board of the Success Magazine, he would receive but forty-two out of every sixty-two votes cast. The indignation of the people is aroused over his attitude toward the recent tariff legislation. The Hon. Mr. Hawley is not alone, however, for the handwriting on Representative Ellis' fence says, twenty-five republican votes against for every ten for re-election. Insurgent Republican Poindexter of Washington is approved, 102 to three, and but one vote would be cast against him out of 107. In California, the seven republican representatives would receive, but fifty-six republican votes for re-election, while 188 votes would be cast against them. Insurgent Representative Hayes would receive twenty votes out of twenty-seven. What is true of the Pacific Coast states seems true of the country at large.

This interesting summary of facts, given in the January number of Success, was culled from 22,500 life subscribers, representing every walk in life, and living in all parts of the nation. It will be remembered that a year ago last October they took the presidential forecast, and gave out ten days before election the destiny for the next four years as efficiently as the Electoral College itself. This January article shows that of the republicans who voted for Taft 3,092 are satisfied with his attitude on the tariff question and 2,490 are not. Against Cannon himself, 6,485 republicans affirm their righteous indignation against 490 who seem to think him all right.

An interesting article, by J. C. Welliver of the Washington Times, in the same number of Success presents the "End of Cannonism" in no uncertain terms.

IS PONCE DE LEON'S DREAM A REALITY

In the days of Spain's splendor, when returning Spanish galleons brought precious cargoes of gold and other minerals back to Madrid, wild legends of springs of eternal life were told in every European court.

Ponce de Leno, a Spanish gentleman of great riches, fitted out an expedition and went in search of the spring of life. The ludicrous and pathetic ending of this expedition is known to every school boy, but it is very often called to mind by some new discovery of wonderful healing springs somewhere in the wilds of Africa, India or Asia.

The recent and practical demonstration of mineral springs which make marvelous cures has again brought forth the story abroad of Ponce de Leon's myth.

Paso Robles Hot Springs, California, are now the cause of universal wonderment because of the continued successful cures being made there.

But aside from any romantic feature of the springs, dealing with its Indian tradition or its occupancy by the Franciscan Monks, Paso Robles is today among medical men who know, the cause of much interest and scientific investigation.

Many are not aware of what a place Paso Robles really is. The town is by all means one of the most thorough health towns in the world. It is given over to the cure of the sick. Its citizens regard its waters almost in an infallible light.

The temperature, altitude, air and scenery make it an ideal retreat. Its cures of rheumatism, gout, stomach trouble, kidney and other organic diseases have been so remarkable that its citizens believe there is nothing its baths cannot conquer.

Invalids from all over the country come to Paso Robles. Here can be seen every strata of human life from the bank president in the sumptuous hotel to the sick man reposing in his tent on the meadows.

Paso Robles is distinctly a spot where weak women gain health rapidly, and an hour's conversation at the bath house will reveal tales of nervous women who have been cured.

One wonders, after being at Paso Robles—The Pass of the Oaks—whether Ponce de Leon really was without justification when he started in search of the wonderful "waters of youth."

A small book, neatly illustrated, has been recently published by the management telling the story of the Hot Springs in a most interesting manner and giving complete information. Send for it, either to Wm. McMurray, General Passenger Agent of the O. R. &

N., Portland, Ore., or Dr. F. W. Sawyer, manager, Paso Robles, Cal.

Shortridge Hill Improved.

The Shortridge hill, over the condition of which there has been much discussion, has been made passable by Road Supervisor Comer by means of corduroy and gravel. The base of the hill has been corduroyed for a considerable distance, and then gravel spread the rest of the way to and over the crown. This improvement having been made it is not probable that the grade will be reduced to 6 per cent, as suggested by the county court. It is also improbable that the court will make an allowance for the improvement of the hill, inasmuch as its recommendation to reduce the grade from 8 to 6 per cent has not been complied with.

Contracts for Carrying Mail.

On July 1 next the contracts now in force for carrying the mails over the four Star routes of Cottage Grove expires, and the Postoffice department this week advertises for bids over these routes for the ensuing four years, bids to be received until January 4. The routes are to Lorane, a distance of twelve miles; to Black Butte, eighteen miles; to Bohemia, thirty-five miles and from Disston to Orseco, twelve miles. The mail goes from Cottage Grove to Disston over the Oregon & Southeastern.

Drops Dead in Road.

Creswell Chronicle: A valuable mare owned by Schmidt Bros. livery dropped dead in the road Tuesday. The animal had been hired by Marion Veatch of Cottage Grove, who drove to Holbrook's place, a short distance from town. He tied the animal and after spending a short time in the house, came out and started back to town. After going a short distance, the mare fell dead in the road. It was one of the best single drivers owned by the boys, and was valued at $150.

New Mill at Wildwood.

The sawmill of the Star Lumber company at Star has been dismantled, and on Monday work will begin at Disston, to which point the mill will be moved. It will be impossible, however, to do much until the Oregon & Southeastern constructs a spur to the site, a distance of about a quarter of a mile. J. J. Craig and a crew of five men, are engaged in building bunkhouses.

An All-Day Session.

The Grange at London will publicly install its newly elected officers tomorrow, when an all-day session will be held. The full membership is expected to be in attendance, and also a large number of outsiders from the surrounding neighborhood.

No Occupation Tax.

At Creswell the council appointed a committee to investigate the feasibility of levying an occupation tax, and the committee went out and raised $200 by popular subscription in lieu thereof, every firm doing business in the town contributing thereto.

Contract for Jetty Awarded.

I. B. Cushman and T. C. Saubert, representing the Port of Siuslaw, have closed a contract with Wakefield & Jacobson for construction of the south jetty of Siuslaw harbor, for which $100,000 in bonds was recently voted.
