

EXHIBIT OF MANY BIRDS

Calapooia Association's Show Success in This Respect.

400 FOWLS IN FINE ARRAY

Second Annual Exhibit Attracts Wide-spread Attention From Poultry Fanciers—Awards by Judge Collier of Tacoma.

The second annual show of the Calapooia Poultry association, which came to a close Saturday night, was one of the most successful exhibitions of its kind ever held in this section of the state. The exhibits were not as numerous as on previous occasions, but the variety was greater and better birds were shown. The cup for the highest scoring bird in the show went to Edward Sherear, Eugene, on one of his fine light Brahma pullets. President F. H. Rosenberg made the high score of 95 1-4 points on one of his Buff Cochins pullets. H. H. Collier of Tacoma, who has this season judged seven poultry shows, says Cottage Grove has one of the most enthusiastic bunches of poultrymen that he has met in his travels. They are, he says, alive to the importance of good poultry and their show this year was a great improvement over their first annual, which was held in December, 1907.

There were something over four hundred birds on exhibition, the Rocks, Wyandottes and Rhode Island Reds predominating, while many Hamburgs, Bantams and games were entered. Mr. Collier expressed the opinion that no other town in the Northwest of equal population could put up as good a show as the one held in Cottage Grove, which is evidence that not only a lively interest is taken in the industry hereabouts but that those engaged in it are successful. There is at this time a demand from other sections for thoroughbred stock, and Cottage Grove is looked to largely to supply this demand.

It's Evidently Profitable.

Among the other opportunities offered by our neighbor, Eugene, to make money from comparatively small investments is that of "bootlegging," if we are to judge from the daily arrests of drunks. On Monday eight individuals were arraigned before a magistrate on the charge of plain drunk. The fines ranged from $10 to $60.

Isn't It Awful, Mabel?

AMONG THE CHURCHES

Business Men to Talk at Presbyterian Church.

GENERAL RELIGIOUS NEWS

Themes for Discussion at the Several Places of Worship Next Sunday. Epworth League Celebration at the Methodist Church.

Next Sunday at the Presbyterian church the subject of the morning sermon is: "Heroes of the Faith." The evening theme is: "A Business Man's Religion." The Rev. Selden Adams will preach on "Building a City." Three-minute talks will be made as follows: John Spray, "Why the Business Man is out of the Church;" H. O. Thompson, "Why the Business Man Should be in the Church;" Frank King, "Does the Church Care for the Masses?;" C. P. Jones, "Brotherhood;" F. H. Rosenberg, "Young People;" Henry Veatch, "Appearances;" A. B. Wood, "Management;" Lew. A. Cates, "The Preachers;" B. Lurch, "Morals in Business;" C. C. Hazelton, "Prospects;" Fred Conley, "Co-operation."

A most enjoyable evening was spent at the Christian church last Friday when the new members of the church were given an informal reception. The following persons had a part in the brief program: Miss Vena Brown, reading; Clarence Boyd, recitation and dumb lecture; Miss Laughlin, solo; Miss Boyd, recitation in special costume; Edward Finnerty, solo; Misses Jean Dorward and Lottie Beals, duet. Games and refreshments also added to the pleasure of the event. The twenty-eight new members were made to feel that they have entered a church which is thrilling with life and enthusiasm.

Epworth League day will be celebrated in the Methodist church in a royal fashion the coming Sabbath. Every member of this hustling organization is to wear a beautiful ribbon emblem and occupy special reserved seats at both services. At the morning service the Rev. Robert Sutcliffe will speak upon the League's motto, "Look up, Lift up." Miss Jessie Berg will outline the work of Miss Laura Hefty of Cottage Grove in China. President Bertram Applegate will explain how the leagues of Salem district are pledged to support this heroic young woman in her work in the old kingdom on the other side of the Pacific. An offering for this purpose will be taken. In the evening there will be a dozen one minute addresses on "What the League is to Me." A short address by one of the youngest members and another by one of the oldest. The captains of the respective sides are to hold forth. Exhortation by the president. District Superintendent Wire is to be present. Several young men are to be baptized and taken into the church. Selection by the Ladies' League quartet. Messrs. Tyson and Glaze will render a guitar and ocarina duet.

Next Sunday morning the Rev. W. A. Elkins will begin a series of "Quiet Talks About Jesus." The series will be especially appropriate, coming at a time when the Bible schools throughout the country are taking up a study of the life of Jesus of Nazareth. "Dealing With Doubt" will be the evening subject. In discussing this subject the speaker will make use of the most telling archeological discoveries made in Egypt, Babylonia and Palestine. These discoveries throw light on the credibility of the scripture. "Doubting Thomases" are especially invited to come that we may "reason together."

Evangelists Whitson and Longman, who will enter upon a campaign at the Christian church in the spring, are now at Grangeville, Idaho, and if press reports are authentic are "turning the town upside down." They got after the curfew ordinance, which had long been disregarded, and through public sentiment demanded its enforcement.

The Bible School at London is occupying much of the time of the religiously inclined denizens of that locality. There is a daily enrollment of about twenty-five pupils between the ages of eight and eighty years. The school is conducted by the Rev. Mr. Love of California, and the hours are the same as in the public schools—from 9 to 4, with fifteen-minute recesses. Besides the day sessions, Tuesday and Friday nights are devoted to review work, and Saturday nights to singing. On Sundays there are two services, conducted by Rev. Love. The school term is twelve weeks.

The Presbyterian Brotherhood will meet in the Christian Endeavor room at the church next Tuesday evening when the following program will be rendered: Orchestra; prayer by the chaplain; song, "Onward Christian Soldiers; business; Brotherhood song; "The Brakeman at Church," by Ernest Anderson; orchestra; declaration, selected, Elmer Spencer; male quartet; palaver; Boost Brothers, Boost, speeches by the brothers; song, "The Son of God Goes Forth to War;" reception and refreshments.

Injunction proceedings which threatened to prevent the construction by the Ministerial Association of a frame tabernacle inside the fire limits at Eugene have been called off. Plans for completion of the building have been made and construction begun. The building will have a seating capacity of not less than 3000, or three times that of any church. The tabernacle meetings will be conducted by Rev. Dr. French Oliver, an eminent evangelist of Kansas City, Mo.

At the Presbyterian church there were thirty-two persons present at the Mizpah Bible class last Sunday morning. Four received the sacrament of christian baptism and one was confirmed, at the morning worship. In the evening at Christian Endeavor service the room was so crowded extra chairs had to be brought in. On Feb. 6, the Endeavor will have charge of the regular evening services, it being the anniversary day of Christian Endeavor. The evening service was much better attended than usual. After an impressive sermon on "The Worth of a Soul," by the Rev. Adams, Mr. Benjamin King and Melvin Jordan made short addresses. The congregation stood at the call of the minister for volunteers to assist in making the evening service fill a vital place in the religious life of the whole community. Several who are not regular members of that congregation offered their services.

Mrs. Lizzie Cochran returned to her home at Creswell on Monday.

A shoe that is tight will hurt your feet and ruin their natural beauty. A loose shoe allows the foot to slip into an unnatural position, which is hard on the shoe as well as the foot. A perfect fit is a snug fit all over the foot. No pinching—no slipping—no rubbing. You can easily get such a perfect fit in the
