Noteworthy Exception.
The early bird had caught the worm. Thinking the incident self-explanatory and the moral perfectly obvious, the bird refrained from trying to say anything smart.

Thereby introducing a startling innovation and establishing a new record.

Expected Trouble.

DISPUTED DA VINCI BUST.

Dr. Bode, who was responsible for the purchase of the "Leonardo da Vinci wax bust" that has aroused so much controversy, is the director of the Kaiser Friedrich museum, Berlin, and it was for that institution that the work was bought for $40,000. Dr. Bode is as firmly convinced that the bust is, in very truth, the work of Leonardo as are certain others that it is the work of R. C. Lucas, the British sculptor, who flourished in the middle of the nineteenth century. Indeed, the more the doctor examines the bust the more certain he is that it is a genuine early sixteenth century work.

BASHFUL STANLEY.
His Response to a Speech of Eulogy at a Banquet.
William H. Rideing tells in McClure's Magazine of a dinner of the Papyrus Club in Boston at which Henry M. Stanley, the explorer, was the guest of honor:
"Whether he (Stanley) sat or stood, he fidgeted and answered in monosyllables—not because he was unamiable or unappreciative, but because he—this man of iron, God's instrument, whose word in the field brooked no contradiction or evasion, he who defied obstacles and danger and pierced the heart of darkness—was bashful even in the company of fellow craftsmen."
"His embarrassment grew when after dinner the chairman eulogized him to the audience. He squirmed and averted his face as cheer after cheer confirmed the speaker's rhetorical ebullience of praise. 'Gentlemen, I introduce to you Mr. Stanley, who,' etc. The hero stood up slowly, painfully, reluctantly, and, with a gesture of deprecation, fumbled in first one and then another of his pockets without finding what he sought."
"It was supposed that he was looking for his notes, and more applause took the edge off the delay. His mouth twitched without speech for another awkward minute before, with a more erect bearing, he produced the object of his search and put it on his head. It was not paper, but a rag of a cap, and with that on he faced the company as one who by the act had done all that could be expected of him and made further acknowledgment of the honors he had received superfluous. It was a cap that Livingstone had worn and that Livingstone had given him."

A Curious Experience.
Lombroso, the famous Italian criminologist, once had a curious experience. He was in a printing office correcting the proofs in his "Delinquent Man" with the chief reader when on reaching a page which dealt with a young man who, impelled by jealousy, had stabbed his fiancée, he made a surprising discovery. The proofreader was this man.
"Suddenly," Lombroso said in telling the story, "he threw himself at my feet, declaring that he would commit suicide if I published this story with his name. His face, before very gentle, was completely altered and almost terrifying, and I was really afraid that he would kill himself or me on the spot. I tore up the proofs and for several editions omitted his story."

At the Darktown Culture Club.
Chairman (including an address of introduction)—An' now, ladies and gentlemen, I hab de honor of presentin' to dis audience de speaker of de evening—Prof. Johnsing of de Westville seminary—who will proceed to define de indefinable, depict de indelectable and unscrew the unscrewable.—Life.

A Frequent Insincerity.
"The man's own words prove him a prevaricator," said Mr. Quibbles.
"In what way?"
"He writes me an insulting letter and signs it 'Yours Respectfully.'"
—Washington Star.

Before Election Out West.
"Our ticket is bound to win in Froz-nog."
"All over but the shouting, eh?"
"All over but the shouting," explained the native politely.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

The Wrong Party.
Bill—Congratulations on your marriage, old man.
Will—Congratulate my wife, old boy; she got the best of men.—Harvard Lampoon.

A Braggart.
"Pa, what is a braggart?"
"He's a man, my son, who is not afraid to express his real opinion of himself."—Boston Transcript.

Lived Too Fast.
"Poor fellow! He is quite broken down, and the doctor says that his condition is due to fast living."
"Fast living?"
"Yes; you see, he is a traveling man, and he was obliged to eat so many dining-car meals and lose so much sleep in sleepers that his constitution gave way."—Brooklyn Citizen.

The ocean has, in ceaseless play,
Been rolling right along!

"And what was the subject of your discussion?"
"How we would invest our money if we had any."—Kansas City Journal.

Mothers will find Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup the best remedy to use for their children during the teething period.

As He Ground.
Tennyson had just begun to write the "Charge of the Light Brigade."
"Half a league, half a league,
Half a league onward—"
Then he stopped.
"Sounds a good deal like 'Off agin, on agin, gone agin, Finnegan!' he said, knitting his brows.
But he went ahead with it, and the jingle made a decided hit.—Chicago Tribune.

Didn't Exactly Mean It.
The Girl—Isn't this play tiresome!
The Young Man—It's an awful bore. But there is no use, Miss Pinkie, of your trying to conceal a yawn with that fairly little hand of yours; it can't half cover—er—I mean—that is—"
—Chicago Tribune.

His Pursuit.
"What does Ardup follow for a living?"
"Just now he is following old Seadwell's daughter, in the hope that he will be living in the Seadwell family some day."

Our Lucky Age.
"Speaking of the Wright brothers, it's a good thing for people who like to travel by water that Fulton lived a good many years ago."
"Why that?"
"He would undoubtedly be trying to get an injunction on all the boats afloat."—Boston Herald.

Misfortune of Business.
Dullness means a lack of imagination, and without imagination life and happiness are both impossible. Religion and art, from one point of view share the same mission. They bring to man the sense of amazement. They teach us that the world is a wonderful fairy palace, the place of hourly miracles. Then we discover that we ourselves are most amazing creatures. The dull man is not interested in himself, has no self-love. I am certain that no man can love his neighbor unless he has learned to love himself. From ourselves we discover humanity.

Fair, Fat and Tide-y.
A Kansan sat on the beach at Atlantic City watching a fair and very fat bather disporting herself in the surf. He knew nothing of tides and he did not notice that each succeeding wave came a little closer to his feet. At last an extra-big wave washed over his shoetops.
"Hey, there!" he yelled at the fair fat bather. "Quit yer jumpin' up and down! D'ye want to drown me?"
Everybody's.

Genuine Alarm.
"Madam, your pet dog bit my little boy in the face this morning."
"Oh, you alarm me! Had your little boy's face been antiseptically washed?"
"Of course not. I—"
"Good heavns, woman! How could you let the little darling run such a risk! James, telephone at once for the veterinarian."—Baltimore American.

Lightning Change.
"Marla, who is the spider legged gawk that comes to see Bessie two or three times a week?"
"Why, don't you know, John? That's young Mr. Welloph, the junior partner in the firm of Spotsch & Co."
"Well, confound her, why doesn't she give him a little more encouragement?"
—Chicago Tribune.

Does Not Color Hair

Ayer's Hair Vigor, as now made from our new improved formula, does not stain or color the hair even to the slightest degree. Gray hair, white hair, blonde hair is not made a shade darker. But it certainly does stop falling hair. No question about that.

Does not change the color of the hair.

Ayer's
Formula with each bottle. Show it to your doctor. Ask him about it, then do as he says.

Indeed, we believe it will stop every case of falling hair unless there is some very unusual complication, something greatly affecting the general health. Then you should consult your physician. Also ask him about the new Ayer's Hair Vigor.

The Wisdom of Silence.
The late Judge Silas Bryan, the father of William J. Bryan, once had several hams stolen from his smokehouse. He missed them at once, but said nothing about it to any one. A few days later a neighbor came to him.
"Say, Judge," he said, "I heard yew had some hams stole t'other night."
"Yes," replied the Judge, very confidentially, "but don't tell any one. You and I are the only ones who know it."—Success Magazine.
