Trouble Ahead for Percy.
"Miriam," said her mother, "Percy Flaxham is an excellent young man, with desirable family connections, and upon the whole I have no objection to your receiving him on a familiar footing, but you must not allow him to presume upon the fact that you have accepted a present from him."
"I won't, mamma," said the proud young beauty. "If he gets chummy over it I'll give him the clammy flipper the next time he blows in here."—Chicago Tribune.

A Movable Feast.
She has a biscuit-colored hat, With plumes of olive green. Beneath the mushroom crown so flat A bunch of cherries may be seen.
"Tis perched upon her chestnut hair Above her shrimp-pink gown. And from her little neck so fair A chain of oyster pearls hangs down.
Her coat is made of Persian lamb, And frogs are all the style. She doesn't mind at all the "jam," Because she's got 'em beat a mile.
And scallops, points of every size, Go floating round her feet. When she goes mincing down the street She looks just good enough to eat! —Harper's Weekly.

Mothers will find Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup the best remedy to use for their children during the teething period.

One Woman Has Her Rights.
Mrs. Kelly and Mrs. Rafferty were exchanging ideas across the shabby fence which separated their respective domains. The conversation turned on the subject of woman suffrage. The Philadelphia Record quotes the first lady as saying, "Are ye taking much stock in this attempt that a lot iv th' wimmin are making to get th' vote fr us, Mrs. Rafferty?"
"I ain't bothering me head about it," declared Mrs. Rafferty. "I'm satisfied to let Dinny and th' bys do all th' voting for me family. But I do think that a lady shud get a man's pay."
"Well," replied Mrs. Kelly, "all I kin say is, Mrs. Rafferty, that I get one man's pay, or know the reason why, I've Saturday night."

Probably Accidental.
Mrs. Highmuss—I was glad to learn from the report the president read last night that our club is still progressing.
Mrs. Upmore—Yes; but I thought she made too long a pause between "still" and "progressing."—Chicago Tribune.

Urchin—Is this the office of the Bugle? Well, sir, I have come to subscribe for your paper.
Editor (with a genial smile)—Why, sonny, you don't look quite big enough to do such a thing as that.
Urchin—Sir, if a man has to be measured for his subscription at this office I shall subscribe for the Palladium, just across the street. Good day, sir.—Chicago Tribune.

Prisoner—Yes, sir; I'm serving a term in the penitentiary for a crime I never committed. The real criminal is still at large. I tell you, it's pretty tough!
Philanthropic Visitor—It ought not to be. The joke isn't on you; it's on the jury that convicted you and the judge who sentenced you. The trouble with you, my friend, is that you don't catch the humor of the situation.—Chicago Tribune.

Onward and Upward.
"We should keep going onward and upward," said the earnest citizen, "with our eyes fixed on higher things."
"That's what I'm doing," replied the busy person. "I have traded my automobile in as part payment on an aeroplane."—Washington Star.

BURMA A WOMAN'S LAND.

Country Affords the Sex Much Freedom and Many Opportunities.
For the woman Burma is a veritable heaven on earth. No country elsewhere furnishes her more freedom, more opportunity. Even occidental countries cannot vie with Burma in this respect. Mrs. Burma outshines everybody and everything. Moreover, she is ubiquitous, the Southern Workman says.

You find her here, there and everywhere. You stop at the jewelry store containing millions of dollars' worth of pearls and rubies and precious stones, and the person in charge of the establishment is a woman. The salespeople are also women. You go to a fruitstand and it is a woman who owns and conducts it and sells you a banana or a mango.

At railroad stations a Burmese woman sells you the tickets and a fair daughter of the land is ready to take your dictation and do your typewriting if you are looking for an amanuensis. The Burmese woman is not only an efficient business woman but a good mother. Her duties as mother and merchant do not interfere with each other in the slightest degree.

Added to her superior intelligence the Burmese woman has good looks. She has eyes of a deep liquid black or brown bordering on black. The forehead is usually high and well filled out and there is a purity of expression about the face. Her head is oval and shapely, this effect being heightened by the manner in which she dresses her hair in a big knot on top of her head. Her dress is white, with a tight-fitting jacket with large sleeves; the lower part of the body is covered by a bright silk petticoat, which also is tight fitting and displays the figure like a modern sheath skirt.

POEMS WE ALL REMEMBER

"Maud Muller."
Maud Muller, on a summers day,
Hid her jug in a pile of hay.

The judge came by on his Arab steed,
And he was a very dry man, indeed.
"Aha," said he, with a winsome wink,
"Now where can a dry man find a drink?"

She put her finger in her mouth,
And slyly said, "A half mile south."
So the judge he galloped, likety-split,
Which showed that Maud had a pretty wit.

"Hiawatha."
Hiawatha, in his plug hat,
Whispered low to Minnehaha;
Put his graceful arm around her,
Held her fingers tight in his;
Just about to woo her wildly
With the chorus from a coon-song,
When there came the U. S. agent,
Made a gesture at his wrist-band,
Said, "You'll kindly please to move on
People who have failed at farming
Now would like to try it over.
You are sitting on the town-site;
Skiddoo, please, and three and twenty."

"The Girl I Left Behind Me."
Oh, the day was dark and the hour was sad
When Mary Jane declined me.
But oh, just think of the luck I had
With the girl I left behind me!

She's fair and fat and forty, too,
I wonder what inclined me
To ever want to wed and woo
The girl I left behind me!

"The Old Swimmin' Hole."
Oh, the old swimmin' hole, in the creek so cold and still,
There are moments that I can't forget,
And likely never will;
Even now I'm still in wonder, and can't think to save my soul
How we had the heart to climb out of the old swimmin' hole.

"Twenty Years Ago."
I wandered to the village, Tom,
I sat beneath the tree;
But things were sadly different from
The way they used to be;
The advertisement signs were out
To such a great degree,
It took me nearly half the day
To find the dog-gone tree!

A Wild Ride for Life.
Con Etrohm, of Panoche, Cal., raced against death when he was bitten in the heel by a rattlesnake. Mounted, he covered a score of miles, and reached the Hazel Hawkins Hospital, in Hollister, before the venom had completed its deadly work. Etrohm was walking through a patch of sage brush when the snake struck. He killed the reptile. A handkerchief was bound tightly around the wound before the dash to the hospital started.

An Oversight.
An old German maker of violoncellos has just finished one which he considered to be a particularly fine piece of work, and he proudly lifted it up for a friendly musician who was standing near him to admire. He had just called attention to its beautiful lines when all of a sudden something rattled.
"Ach," he exclaimed, "I have left der glue pot inside!"

Her Self Possession.
"Miss Oldcastle is always self possessed no matter what happens."
"Well, she ought to be seeing that she has had practice in the self possession line for at least thirty-five years."—Chicago Record-Herald.

Slightly Deeper Dye.
"Ever see an Indian policeman?" asked the passenger with the bristling moustache.
"Yes," said the passenger with the skull cap. "I used to know one in Omaha."
"How did he look in uniform?"
"Much like the ordinary copper, only a little more copper colored, of course."

DYSPEPSIA
"Having taken your wonderful 'Cascarets' for three months and being entirely cured of stomach catarrh and dyspepsia, I think a word of praise is due to 'Cascarets' for their wonderful composition. I have taken numerous other so-called remedies but without avail, and I find that Cascarets relieve more in a day than all the others I have taken would in a year."

"Mr. Spoonamore, do you think any young man ever stole a march on a watchful mamma? According to my calculations you were due to say two weeks ago to-night what you have said to me just now."

Destroys Hair Germs
Recent discoveries have shown that falling hair is caused by germs at the roots of the hair. Therefore, to stop falling hair, you must first completely destroy these germs. Ayer's Hair Vigor, new improved formula, will certainly do this. Then leave the rest to nature.
Does not change the color of the hair.

Ayer's
Formula with each bottle
Show it to your doctor
Ask him about it, then do as he says
Recent discoveries have also proved that dandruff is caused by germs on the scalp. Therefore, to cure dandruff, the first thing to do is to completely destroy these dandruff germs. Here, the same Ayer's Hair Vigor will give the same splendid results.

Wireless to Japan.
The efforts made by the United States government to establish a wireless communication between Japan and San Francisco, by way of Hawaii, have been in the main unsuccessful, although messages have been successfully forwarded.

PACIFIC INDIAN FIRE REPELLANT
Drives away Flies, Mosquitoes and Gnats. It protects horses and cattle from attacks of insects, enabling them to feed and sleep in peace. It prevents loss of weight and strength from worry caused by attacks of insects, and from the irritation of their bites and stings. There is a satisfaction in the relief it affords domestic animals from the scourge of maddening parasites and flies, besides the profit in returns. Horses do more work on less feed and cows yield more and better milk when relieved from the frenzy incited by constantly fighting a swarm of voracious, insatiable insects.
Four sizes, 25c, 50c, 75c and $1.25. Ask your merchant for it.
