

Terse Tales of the Town as Told by The Sentinel's Reporters

Messrs. J. H. Tower of Sulton, Nebraska, and Bert Robison of Jefferson, Oregon, were in Cottage Grove last week with a view to engaging in the banking business. Both have had long experience in banking. They went north, but may return.

Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Westbrook spent Sunday with Albany friends, and took in the Chautauqua.

Mr. and Mrs. B. K. Lawson, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. Lew A. Cates spent the Sabbath on the Coast Fork above London. Mr. and Mrs. Marion Veatch were in the same neighborhood. Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Wheeler rusticated on Mosby creek. Mr. and Mrs. Winters Wallace and the Misses Lockwood, spent the day with friends on the Coast Fork.

S. B. Morss has something like 50,000 trees in his nursery, and anticipates a big business this fall. These are principally apple trees.

Company E of this city will go into camp at American Lake on August 8, and remain ten days.

Railroad laborers have found a large vein of coal on the Natron extension. J. F. Goddard will teach the Silk creek school the coming fall and winter.

A letter from Frank Beaulieu, formerly of this city, but now residing in Minnesota, says the crops there are practically a failure and hardtimes are feared in consequence.

Mrs. G. W. Sanders, one of the best known and most highly respected residents of Drain, passed away at her home in that city at a late hour Friday night.

Mr. Lurch will build another cottage on the West side.

Prof. A. L. Briggs contemplates moving his family to Albany in the near future. Prof. Briggs is superintendent of schools there.

Mrs. N. E. Slater, who at one time enjoyed a world-wide popularity as the "bearded-lady" exhibited by P. T. Barnum, died at Rice Hill last week.

H. A. Miller had in contemplation for this season the erection of a new machine shop, but has postponed building until next spring.

The carnival given at the Lawson building last Friday night by the Epworth League was well attended and greatly enjoyed. The program consisted of songs, instrumental music, recitations, etc.

Robert Buchanan, the traveler, gave an illustrated lecture entitled, "Voyage to Hawaiian Islands," at the Methodist church Monday night, which was well attended. The lecture was instructive.

Over $150 was raised by popular subscription for Mrs. Lois Duerst, who lost her farm house by fire.

Albert Ziniker, junior, who recently sustained injuries about the face and hands by a powder explosion in the Bohemia camp, is recovering. He will not be able to resume work, however, for some time.

Mr. Lurch will not add to his store building this season, as contemplated, but will build a handsome brick structure next spring.

We carry the following brands of cheese: Full cream, Imported Swiss, Cream brick, Limburger, McLaren's, Pine Apple, Edam, Roman, and Primost.—Kerr & Silsby.

John Schmitt died at Creswell Friday at the age of 68 years.

The other evening Cashier T. C. Wheeler stooped to pick a paper from the floor and bumped one of his eyes against a chair, from the effects of which bump he suffered for several days.

C. R. Wicks of Disston was in the city on Friday. The mill of which he is superintendent commenced sawing on Wednesday.

The tent meetings have been well attended during the past week, notwithstanding the season is warm for gatherings of this character.

John Spray's irrigation ditch has set others to thinking.

The steel for the new bridge across the Row river is daily expected.

The street sprinkling is not a howling success. Water is needed to lay the dust.

Many new concrete sidewalks have been laid this season, and the end is not yet.

Bowling at the club is a thing of the past—for this season.

The big boys have been swimming in the Row river during the past week. They go thither on a motorcar.

Mr. and Mrs. George Scott have returned from their honeymoon, and are now at home to their friends.

The German society held a meeting at its park west of town on Sunday. It was well attended.

Over 1300 anglers' licenses have been issued in Lane county thus far this season.

Ten carloads of cherries have gone east from this county this season.

Geo. McQueen was a county seat visitor on Saturday.

The lodge of Modern Brotherhood of America is rapidly increasing in membership, having admitted seventeen persons into the order within the past few weeks. The lodge meets in the Oddfellows' hall semi-monthly.

Cook wanted for messhouse, man and wife preferred. Apply to Chambers Lumber Company, Dorena, Oregon.

W. F. Lynch has just completed a barn 40x58 feet on his farm two miles east of Lorane, at a cost of about $700. Mr. Hart of this city did the job.

The Grange of Lorane has under construction a one-story building at that place for grange purposes. The building is 32x80 feet, and will cost about $1000. Mr. Hart of this city has the contract.

A sidewalk has been ordered by the council on the east side of G street.

The residents near West G and Third streets having petitioned the council for an arc light the street committee will investigate, and the petition will probably be granted.

Now is the time to touch up your screens. Screen paint at Waters' Wall Paper Store.

At present the American Light & Water company has about 150 workmen engaged in constructing the pipe line from Layng creek to this city. Pipe is now arriving and being laid. About seven miles of ditch is ready for pipe.

The Iowa association will hold a picnic at a grove near Springfield on July 28. All Iowans are invited to attend.

Mrs. W. D. Dillard of Eugene visited friends here the first of the week.

Mesdames M. Wald and A. Luderma of Eugene spent Sunday in the city.

It is believed that the Oregon Electric is preparing to build its line from Albany to Eugene, in which case it will doubtless be continued to the seat of justice of Nesmith county.

Miss Myra McGilvray returned to her home at Canyonville on Monday, after having visited friends in this city.

Rodgers' Stainfloor will renew your old furniture. You can apply it. Get it at Waters' Wall Paper Store.

Mrs. F. L. Orpud returned to her home in this city on Monday, after having spent Sunday with her daughter, Mrs. C. S. Cochran of Eugene.

Miss Winnie Landess spent Sunday with Roseburg friends. She has secured a position at that place, and will go thither within a few days.

The family of V. C. London will move to Carlton about the first of September.

LeRoy Woods, junior, is camping with friends at Clatsop beach. From there he will go to American Lake on August 8. He was appointed orderly to the adjutant at the recent target contest at Clackamas.

It is charged that as soon as trout from the commission had been planted in the waters of Layng creek Tom Aubrey started thence with rod and reel. But they say many strange things, nowadays.

Miss Inez Flynn is visiting friends at Woodburn for a few weeks.

Alderman Lawson has been up on the pipe line a portion of the week.

Nichols & Brumfield pay the highest prices for second hand bicycles. If you have one you want to see them.

D. B. Austin of Eveleth, Minn., and Owen McDonald of Sterling, Ill., spent a portion of the week in Cottage Grove.

Mrs. S. L. Knox and daughter Mamie of Eugene visited friends in this city the first of the week.

Dr. Job spent Sunday in the county seat.

Mrs. W. C. Johnson visited her daughter, Mrs. Matlock of Eugene, the first of the week.

Heinz's mixed sweet pickles, 25 cents per quart; sour, 20 cents per quart; Dill, 25 cents per dozen.—Kerr & Silsby.

Mrs. A. W. Kime has returned from a three weeks' visit with friends and acquaintances in Coos county.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Schultz of Denver, and Mr. J. W. Schultz of New York, have been in Cottage Grove a portion of the week in search of land to their liking. They are "pathfinders" for five other families.

J. H. Kirk of Dorena was in the city on Saturday.

Mrs. L. A. DeSpain returned from a visit with Eugene friends on Saturday.

Miss Marguerite Johnson is a guest of Mrs. T. K. Campbell of Salem. She will be absent several weeks.

The Guard says Wm. Vick of Cottage Grove underwent an abdominal operation at the general hospital.

The Cottage Grove Light & Power company is erecting a 96-foot smokestack of 48-inch diameter. The East Side Boiler company of Portland has the job.

Eugene loses no opportunity to make it appear that it is sweet on Cottage Grove, being only further evidence that it has fear in its heart. The Register says: "It has been a matter of history that when the Cottage Grove delegations have gone to county conventions united on a candidate they have not been turned down." Wouldn't that skin you?

The new schoolhouse in the recently organized district west of Cottage Grove, is nearing completion. Prof.

Inlow, superintendent of the public schools of this city, is the contractor.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Tyson spent Sunday at the old Hampton homestead at Goshen.

Mr. B. Lurch has been in Portland on business this week.

Owing to the illness of her father, Miss Perry offers her confectionery store for sale, that she may go to Coos county to attend him.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Skow of Longmont, Colorado, arrived in Cottage Grove the first of the week, and will make this place their permanent home. Mr. Skow has leased the storeroom recently vacated by the Nesmith theatre, and will about August 1 open therein a stock of notions, etc.

The Cottage Grove sharpshooters returned from the Clackamas range last Friday night, not quite satisfied with the work accomplished. The team, although winning the silver cup, felt that it should have won at least one other event, it possessing the ability.

The Wheeler-Thompson company has a new advertisement in The Sentinel today, to which your attention is directed.

The Miller Carnival company is announced to appear in Cottage Grove on August 11, 12 and 13. The aggregation has four free and four paid shows.

The membership of the Commercial club has dwindled somewhat since the advent of the summer months. This is not as it should be. The club's work should continue throughout every season of the year. Keeping everlastingly at it brings success.

For Sale.—Good bargain in confectionery store, if sold at once. Also household goods for sale cheap. Inquire at The Rose Confectionery, Cottage Grove, Ore.

Mr. F. J. Hard came down from Bohemia on Tuesday to attend the assembly at Portland yesterday.

J. C. Morss was in Eugene Monday night, as was also N. R. Howard.

Mrs. Mattie Seward and daughter, Mrs. Nellie Loomiller, of Spokane were guests of their relative, H. O. Thompson, on Tuesday. They were on their way home from California.

Miss Lottie Veatch returned home Tuesday afternoon after a brief visit at the home of her cousin, Mrs. Newton Yokum of Roseburg.

D. L. Ambrose of Yoncalla and Miss Pearl Tapp of Oakland were married at the home of the latter's parents Tuesday. They will reside at Yoncalla.

Mrs. Elizabeth V. Wilson, wife of Rev. T. J. Wilson and a pioneer woman in the work of education among the Indians, died at Eugene Sunday.

Cottage Grove is growing so rapidly that it is necessary for a gang of workmen to tear down rural fences nights in order that the town may expand daytime.

In less than three short weeks the crack of rifles will be heard throughout the mountains of southern Oregon wherever the fleet-footed deer is found, for the season will open August 1 and already preparations are being made by local people to take advantage of the law and, judging from the great sale of hunters' licenses, the antlered game will be given a warm reception.

Oscar Campbell of Eugene was in the city on Wednesday on business.

W. H. Abrams was a Eugene visitor on Wednesday.

Fingal Hinds transacted business at the county seat on Tuesday.

Mayor J. D. Matlock of Eugene insinuated his august presence in this neck-o'-the-woods on Wednesday. His honor had not been in Cottage Grove for several moons, and he marveled greatly over its wonderful advancement.

A. P. Churchill went to Portland with the assembly delegates from Eugene on Wednesday night.

Eugene Knox, elocutionist and impersonator, who will appear at the Armory next Thursday evening, comes with an entirely new program this year. This will be Mr. Knox's last tour of the continent, as he will take up a position as instructor of elocution at the university of Nebraska.

Homer Samuel of Dayton, Washington, is guest of his sister, Mrs. Ingram. He will go to Myrtle Creek on Monday.

Misses Maud and Laura Jackson have returned from a visit to Eugene.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Bennett of Portland visited friends in this city this week.

Miss Wilby Huston of Eugene came up on Wednesday to visit friends.

Miss Hazel Hemenway returned from the county seat on Wednesday.

Cottage Grove will be in darkness Sunday night, on account of making improvements at the light plant. The company will shut down at 12 o'clock Saturday night for the purpose of re-winding the generator, which will not be ready for use until early Monday.

Don't fail to hear the noted elocutionist and impersonator, Eugene Knox, who will appear at the Armory next Thursday evening. This will be your last opportunity to hear Mr. Knox, as this will be his last tour of the continent.

Claiming that No. 17 on the Southern Pacific runs from 40 minutes to an hour late south from Salem, the Travelers' Protective association has asked the state railroad commission to take some action to secure a service nearer on schedule. It is claimed that the poor running time causes much trouble to the traveling public as well as the merchants.

Marvin Limebaugh, who is at the open air sanitarium at Milwaukie Heights suffering from lung trouble, is gaining rapidly, and his complete recovery is looked for.

A shoot of ore some 200 feet in length and from three to eight feet wide was discovered at the Review claim the past week. The Review joins the Grizzley, which is considered one of the best prospects in the camp.

It is reported that Lorane will soon have another general merchandise store.

Geo. Lea, who has a contract for the construction of a water works system at Newport, spent Saturday at his home in this city. His contract will be finished this month.

There will be a dance at the Armory next Friday night, given by several of the young men of the city. Good music has been engaged.

Mrs. Cora Jones and Mrs. E. J. Daley of Woodburn, mother and sister respectively of Landlord Westbrook, are guests at the Hotel Oregon, having arrived last night.

Mr. A. B. Wood left yesterday for the East, there to remain for a fortnight on business.

C. E. Spencer, who has been at Portland since the closing of the university, returned to Cottage Grove yesterday.

Rev. Leon Myers has just closed a successful revival meeting at Yoncalla. There were 81 conversions to the Christian faith.

Ed. School of Albany, superintendent of poultry at the state fair, was in Cottage Grove yesterday interviewing local fanciers and interesting them in the coming exhibit. It is probable that this locality will be represented at the big show.

W. C. Billings of the Lorane valley recently marketed 1400 pounds of cheese.

A CLUBBING OFFER.

The Sentinel Free For One Year to All Subscribing to Other Publications.

The Sentinel offers you what is undoubtedly the greatest clubbing proposition in America. Actual experience has proved that there is no better method of securing circulation than by offering a year's subscription to some standard magazine. We have made arrangements whereby we can offer you not one, but three such publications: Boy's Magazine, monthly, subscription price, $1.00; Mother's Magazine, monthly subscription price, 50 cents; Opportunity Magazine, monthly subscription price, 50 cents; total subscription value, $2.00; price to you, including The Cottage Grove Sentinel for one year, $2.00. You are to get The Sentinel absolutely free of cost.

This is the strongest and most remarkable combination ever gotten together for the exclusive use of this paper. Each publication is high grade, well edited, well printed on good paper, with good illustrations and the cover, in each case, is in two colors.

This combination should instantly appeal to you. Every home wants magazines, and this combination is stronger than any yet offered.

You can readily see that with our subscription price at $1.50 a year, and we offer a combination of our own paper and these three magazines, a total value of $3.50 for $2.00, our readers should quickly appreciate the bargain we are giving them. We are making a bargain price that our subscribers cannot afford to resist.

If you want this, you'll have to act quickly. We absolutely refuse to accept any subscriptions at this low price after August 1 next.

Hemenway & Lockwood

REAL ESTATE

314 Acres, 150 acres in cultivation, 100 acres bottom land, 50 acres upland, balance pasture and wood, 6 acres in bearing prune orchard, 6 acres apples and peaches, 10 tons dried prunes on place this year, good eight room house large barn, dry house cost $800, water piped into house, barn and dry house, an ideal home, 4 miles from railroad station, price $10,000.

200 Acres, 10 miles from Cottage Grove, 40 acres in cultivation, 40 acres seeded to pasture, 40 acres timber, 80 acres easily cleared, good family orchard of 300 choice fruit trees in bearing, good out range for stock, good 8-room farm house and large barn, wood house, milk and fruit house, chicken houses and yards, water at door, creek water, on county road. This is one of the best places for farming and stock raising in Oregon. Price is $5,000. Terms on part.

1020 Acres, 200 acres plow land, balance pasture and timber, all fenced, spring, 2 barns, good soil, 6 miles from railway, $12 per acre.

1 Acre, three-room house, new, $650.

2 Lots in Cottage Grove, high and slightly, $200.

We make a specialty of farm, timber mineral and fruit lands. We write fire, life and accident insurance.

Hemenway & Lockwood
Cottage Grove, Oregon

OUR RUG SALE

Closes Monday evening so you had better hurry. There are some very choice bargains and beautiful patterns to choose from.

Here are a few of the good things we are offering in Matting for small rooms, portches and halls:

3 yards regular 15c per yard grade	25c
for
4 1-3 yards regular 30c per yard grade	50c
for
6 1-2 yards regular 25c per yard grade	75c
for
9 yards regular 25c per yard grade	$1.25

We have many more matting bargains—come and see for yourself.

We are headquarters for the best Furniture, Stoves and Ranges, Linoleums, Oil Cloth, Tin and Graniteware, Curtains and Draperies, Beds, Etc.

KINTER BROS.

HOUSE FURNISHINGS PHONE 6 NUF-CED

A STRONG BANK HELPS

YOU as a business man—especially in the matter of credit. Get the right bank back of you and your business will expand more rapidly. Small accounts welcomed as well as large ones.

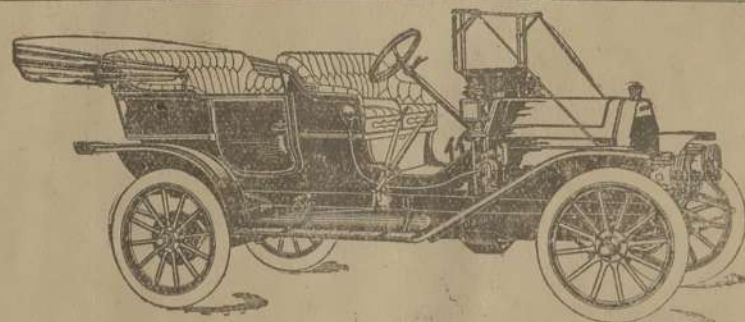

FIRST NATIONAL BANK

ALUMINUM WARE

The pride of the kitchen in the olden days was the shelf on shelf of plates, platters and pans. The belle of the kitchen should be thrice thankful for the latter day improvements in cooking utensils. ALUMINUM is the best. We have. Bought so that we can offer it at bargain prices. See the array of utensils we are showing. It will do you good

Griffin - Veatch Co

AUTOS FOR HIRE

Garage-Repairing-Supplies

Inspect Our Cars Before Buying

Nesmith Auto Co.

PHONE MAIN 36