DESTRUCT THE THISTLES.

Obnoxious Weed Should Not Be Permitted to Mature.

The dry weather has not stunted the growth of thistles, of which there are many in all sections of the city. They are a member of the cactus family, and are therefore naturally partial to dry conditions. The municipal council should legislate against these obnoxious weeds that their growth may be destroyed. There may, perhaps be a penalty for permitting the growth of thistles within the corporation limits, but if so it avails nothing. It should be a misdemeanor, with penalty attached, for permitting thistles to blossom or mature upon any lands within the boundaries of Cottage Grove. But regardless of such a law it should be the duty of anyone owning or occupying land, whether in the municipality or not, to destroy thistles before they reach maturity, thus preventing a spread of the nuisance. The council should forthwith issue notice to all persons upon whose lands thistles are growing to cause their complete destruction without unnecessary delay.

RECEIVES NEW EQUIPMENT.

Company E Must Carry Spades, Picks and Axes For Ditching.

Company E, O. N. G., has received a quantity of new equipment that they will hereafter be obliged to know the use of, and which will be carried to the American Lake encampment. The equipment consists of entrenching tools and first aid to the injured. The first consists of several implements for throwing ditches, such as spades, picks and axes, which are carried in a canvas case that goes over the shoulder. The other is a case on the belt, and consists of cotton, antiseptics and other medical articles that would be necessary on the battlefield for the wounded. Besides these other equipment that will not be as difficult to carry is included a pair of "hiking shoes" for each member that will be used at the encampment that begins on the 8th of next month.

ESPEE FILES ITS ANSWER.

Company Alleges Hazelton's Injuries Resulted From His Negligence.

In the circuit court case of John W. Hazelton of this city against the Southern Pacific company, instituted to recover damages for injuries received while being put off the Shasta Limited at Eugene, the defendant company has filed its answer. The answer alleges that Hazelton was well aware that the Shasta Limited took no passengers, and was acquainted with the schedule of the local and the Limited, Hazelton claiming to have mistaken the Limited for the local. The company alleges that by his own negligence and carelessness Hazelton fell off the train to the platform, while Hazelton claims that he was pushed off by the trainmen. Hazelton, whose home is in this city, is blind and for that reason mistook the Limited for the local.

NESSMITH IS ASSURED.

Eugene Hen Lays Egg Bearing Significant Letters.

That Nesmith county will be created by the qualified electors of Oregon at the general election in November next seems assured. In fact the handwriting has appeared upon the egg. And there can be no discounting the sign. During the past week an unusually large hen's egg, on which are plainly visible to the naked eye letters spelling the word "Nesmith," has been on exhibition at the store of the Wheeler-Thompson company. It is alleged that the egg is the product of a hen owned by a Eugene man, whose name is withheld that he may retain his residence in the county town. The egg is genuine and may be inspected by anyone who is skeptical.

SELLS PART OF RANCH.

Felix Currin Transfers Two Hundred Acres to John Cooley.

Mr. John Cooley has bought 200 acres of the Felix Currin ranch of 750 acres, three miles East of Cottage Grove, the consideration being $10,000. The land sold was that occupied by George Currin, who will now erect a $2,500 residence on another part of the ranch, and continue to till its fertile acres. Mr. Cooley's brother, "Bob," will occupy his newly acquired farm, which is considered one of the best in this section.

Mr. Currin contemplates disposing of the balance of his holdings and retiring from the activities of life.

SANFORD PLACE SOLD.

Californian Buys 130 Acres Seven Miles Up the Row River.

Dr. McCargar, late of Chico, California, has purchased the Sanford farm of 113 acres, seven miles up the Row river valley, and moved his family thereto. It is understood that the price paid was $55 per acre. The doctor is very favorably impressed with this section of Oregon.

Vetch Pays Large Profits.

Mr. Roland McKee of the United States Department of Agriculture, was in Cottage Grove on Monday. He is connected with forage crop investigation, and is in Oregon to induce farmers to plant vetch and contract with the government for the seed. He says vetch may be grown here with great profit, that it will pay as high as $600 per acre. Mr. McKee visited the Spray and Currin ranches while here.

The Prize Fish Story.

Jay McCarmack of Eugene caught a Dolly Varden trout that measured 30 inches and weighed 15 pounds. The catch was made on the McKenzie river, with an ordinary line and bamboo rod, and it took two hours and fifteen minutes to land the trout. This is the record trout of America.

Pays $700 For An Acre.

James H. Smith, a new-comer to Cottage Grove, on Monday purchased an acre of land southeast of the corporate limits, belonging to D. C. Bosley, paying $700 therefor. He will build a home on the land.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray C. Watkins of Portland were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Hemenway of Nesmith Heights.

COL. HOFER FOR GOVERNOR

MAKES FORMAL ANNOUNCEMENT OF CANDIDACY.

Believes People of Oregon Are Entitled to New Deal in Every Department of State.

Colonel E. Hofer has announced himself as a candidate for the republican nomination for governor. Attached to his declaration is a copy of the form of petition, which, if voluntarily signed by enough registered Republicans will make him a candidate before the primary election. If the petition is not sufficiently signed, Hofer's name will not be on the ballot, and the Colonel says he will not send out people to circulate the petition. This leaves his candidacy in a nebulous state, depending upon whether a sufficient number of Republicans go to his cause to qualify him as a candidate. Here is the platform upon which Colonel Hofer stands:

"If I am nominated and elected I will during my term of office, to the best of my ability, and invoking divine aid in every act of my life during my official career, discharge the duties of that office according to the constitution and the laws of the state and the United States. I will stand at all times for the rights of the laborers and the producers from the soil and against professional officialism and the unjust exactions of predatory wealth. I will stand firmly for the nomination and election of all candidates for public office according to the letter and the spirit of the direct primary law, including Statement No. 1 so far as it relates to the election of members of the General Assembly and the direct election of United States Senators, that the electorate may rule in all public policies when their will has been expressed. I believe the people of the State of Oregon are entitled to a new deal throughout every department of the state government, and that it should be conducted on progressive and businesslike policies, and that institutions of the state should be conducted in the interest of the people and not for the benefit of any machine, faction or political combine. I believe in direct legislation and proportional representation, and believe it is the first duty of a governor to curb the extravagance of the legislature by the use of the veto power, even though it be against a majority of his own party.

"I am opposed to the prohibition amendment to the constitution and in favor of home rule for cities. I am opposed to county bond issues to build permanent highways. Such highways should be built with convict labor."

On the ballot, following his name, Hofer asks that these words be printed: "Good laws. Good administration. Good roads. Good-will to all. Develop Oregon."

LORANE PEOPLE OBJECT.

Undertaking to Issue Additional Bonds for Bar Not Favored.

Andrew Jackson representing the Siuslaw Port Commission, was in Cottage Grove on Saturday, having come hither from Lorane, where he was getting signatures to a petition asking the commission to bond in the additional sum of $115,000 for the improvement of the Siuslaw bar. The company pledged itself not to bond the district in an amount exceeding $100,000, but inasmuch as the government has offered to appropriate $215,000 provided the district will raise a like amount, the commission has undertaken to relieve itself from its pledge by securing signatures to the petition mentioned. The citizens of the lower Siuslaw are favorable to the proposition, but those of the Lorane valley, who derive comparatively little benefit from the proposed improvement, oppose the measure and refused to sign.

We Are Poor Dairymen.

The local people who pay 80 cents a roll for butter will be interested in Dr. Boggild's statement to the effect that this extraordinary price is due to the failure of American dairymen to get results from their milkers. Dr. Boggild, who is the great Danish expert on dairying, says the American has the disposition to let his cow board with him and pay him nothing for it. In Denmark the cows cost much more and the feed costs more there, but the product of the cow sells for much less there and dairymen in that country make as much profit as they do here. Dr. Boggild says that Danish exports of butter are 200,000,000 pounds. The country has an area of 11,000 square miles and the population is between 2,000,000 and 3,000,000. The area is one-ninth that of Oregon.

Come Again, Please.

Timothy heads fifteen inches in length is the product of Felix Currin's ranch. Recently samples twelve inches in length were exhibited at the Board of Trade at Salem, and created much surprise and admiration, but the timothy shown by Mr. Currin beats it by three inches. For productiveness and fertility no soil on earth can excel the bottom lands of this locality.

Will Improve School Grounds.

The Sentinel is informed that the Board of Education is advertising, somewhere about town on a telephone pole, for the improvement of the public school grounds. Some time ago Mr. Venske made an estimate of the dirt to be handled in connection with this undertaking, and found it to be approximately 2400 yards. Of this amount 1860 is on the east side and the balance on the west side.

Mayflower Building Road.

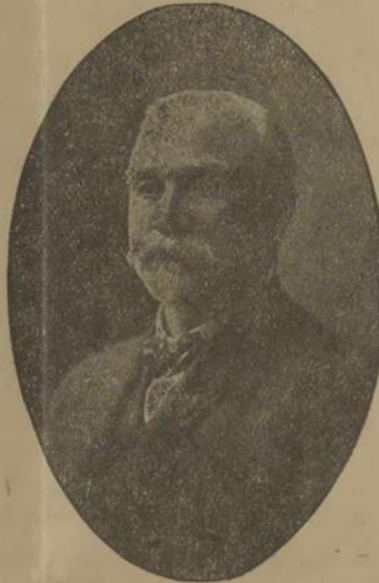

The Mayflower, which is owned and operated by Kelso, Wash., people, has its entire force of eight men employed in repairing roads into its camp. This company did considerable heavy hauling during the wet season, cutting the roads up badly, and the rains completed their ruin. The work will be finished this week, when operations at the mine will be resumed. Mr. Hoag, a prominent merchant of Kelso and a member of the company, has been in camp during the past few days.

Camp Moves Nearer Town.

The American Light & Water company moved one of its camps down to a point near Dorena on Saturday, and is now working this way from there. The camp is located on the rance of West Chrisman, who was forced to cut his grain on the right-of-way in order that the work might proceed. There are about 100 workmen in this camp.

Want Expert Fruit Man.

California fruit growers are in search of an Oregon expert fruit man, and looking to that end have communicated with Professor C. I. Lewis, of the Oregon Agricultural College, and he, in turn, now communicates with various fruit inspectors, asking them to assist in the search of securing a man for the position.

INFORMATION by TELEPHONE

PEOPLE are not leaving so much to chance in these days of universal telephoning service. Instead of risking disappointment they telephone and get the facts.

Will school be held on a stormy morning, will your friend be in if you call, what does the weather man predict, and when does the train leave—are samples of myriads of questions constantly passing over the wire, and being answered by the proper authorities.

There are also questions to be asked about the telephone service, how somebody can be reached over the Bell Long Distance Telephone, and what it will cost, and similar questions, which are being answered by the information operators.
