

TERSELY TOLD TOWN TALES

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Jones, accompanied by Miss Marguerite Jones of Roseburg, took advantage of the three-day's rate to Newport and enjoyed Sunday at the seaside. A most pleasurable outing is reported; ideal weather with no wind and an almost smooth sea; the air so clear that one might see for miles. Mr. Jones' place in the post-office was filled during his absence by Ernest Purvance.

Mrs. George Brown and children joined Mr. Brown on Tuesday at the mill near Dorena, to remain until school opens.

Mrs. Richmond spent a portion of the week in the country at the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Kennedy.

Warren Asher has been appointed assistant freight agent for the Southern Pacific at this point, the business having grown to such proportions that additional help was found necessary.

Mrs. Cora McFarland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Baker, is here from Marshfield visiting home folk and many friends.

Miss Olive Willard of Portland is spending her annual vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Willard of this city.

Carl Berg is visiting his sister, Miss Jessie Berg.

Miss Anna Oglesby is in Eugene in the Postal office, relieving Miss Harms, who is on a vacation.

Rev. Selden C. Adams has leased the Thomas residence on Fourth street, and Mrs. Adams and the children will make their home here while Mr. Adams travels in Southern Oregon in the interest of the Presbytery.

Hon. W. C. Hawley, who is visiting different cities in his congressional district, will be in Cottage Grove on September 3.

Miss Verna Eastern of Eugene spent a portion of the week with Cottage Grove friends.

The Presbyterians have recently expended about $300 in improving the manse.

W. E. Williams and wife were recent Eugene visitors.

The Rev. Groat and wife, after spending a week at Dexter, returned home on Monday.

Dr. Lowe is the only optician in Western Oregon that has taken a course in medicine and diseases of the eye. This enables him to detect the difference between eye diseases and eye defect. He won't put glasses on you unless you need them, as is often done by ignorant though honest opticians. A little eye knowledge is a very dangerous thing. Think it over.

Walker Young of Eugene, a pioneer of this section, was a recent guest of Rev. C. H. Wallace of this city.

R. J. Hemphill of Pleasant Hill, a candidate for county commissioner of Lane county, which joins Nesmith on the north, was in the city on Saturday.

Fred Cornett broke his leg at Sutherland the other day, and is laid up as a result of the accident.

Michael Conniff of Eugene and Hattie Jett of Saginaw have been licensed to wed.

Mrs. A. C. Spriggs recently entertained her mother, Mrs. J. M. Singletary of Eugene.

Fred Conley spent Sunday in the city with his family.

Prof. J. M. Garrison of Forest Grove was a guest of Editor Connors on Tuesday. He is connected with the Pacific University.

H. O. Thompson and O. M. Kem of Cottage Grove, were here today in the interest of Nesmith county. They are both in business in that city and are spending all their time between now and election at their own expense in the interest of the cause.—Harrisburg Bulletin.

Mr. Abbott of Portland, representing the American Radiator company of Portland, was in Cottage Grove on Wednesday, figuring on a steam heating plant for Hotel Oregon, and the balance of the Stewart-Porter block.

Rev. C. T. Whittlesy of Eugene is in the Bohemia hills on a vacation.

Mrs. Jones of California is a guest of Mrs. Geo. Lea.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Geo. McGilvray of Canyonville, on Aug. 18, a daughter. The parents were formerly residents of Cottage Grove.

Mrs. Geo. Fleming of Montana is a guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Woodward.

Mr. and Mrs. Iams have arrived here from Eugene to take up their permanent residence.

The Rev. Sutcliffe and family have returned from a fortnight's outing in the hills of Bohemia.

Dr. T. D. Bancroft of Portland, who lectures on "the world's greatest tragedy, the assassination of Abraham Lincoln," is advertised to speak at the Christian church Sunday night, and at the Methodist church Monday night.

H. C. Madsen, the jeweler, was confined to his home the first of the week by illness.

Mayor Kime visited the county seat on Tuesday.

Mr. Tyson has proven himself to be a most successful horticulturist. The evidence is before us in the form of a half bushel of luscious pears, which Mr. Tyson picked from a tree in his orchard. John H. Shewry, of the Warren Construction company, was in Cottage Grove on Monday making preliminary arrangements for paving Main street. He left that evening for Albany. The company expects to commence work here within a fortnight.

W. C. Billings of Lorane was a Cottage Grove visitor on Sunday.

Mr. Secrist is erecting a comfortable cottage east of the city park.

Shall we observe Labor Day—Sept. 5? Wm. Landess and family have returned from a month's outing near Disston.

The public schools will open September 12.

Mrs. Mary C. Pringle is in Albany for an extended visit in the family of W. S. McLaughlin.

The Calapoo'ya Springs company will make an exhibit at the State fair.

Elmer Spencer returned to Cottage Grove on Saturday, after an absence of several weeks.

Pure strained honey, 25 cents per jar. Also have in combs at 20 cents per frame—Kerr & Silsby.

Wanted to Trade—Centrally located city lots for acreage close in. Apply to Hemenway & Lockwood.

Capt. J. C. Johnson has returned from Vancouver, B. C., whither he went from the encampment at American Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Foster Phillips are camping for a few days up Mosby creek.

Mrs. F. C. Bean of Eugene is visiting friends at Dorena.

D. S. Minogue visited the county seat on Tuesday.

Governor Frank Benson is recovering health in California. So says Dr. Steiner of Salem, who recently visited the chief executive.

FOR SALE—House, barn, outbuildings, all new, two acres, one in fruit trees and small fruits, just outside city limits. Ten acres, with house, barn, modern improvements, running water and household goods, three quarters of a mile from city limits. Two A1 lots on Wall street. Address P. O. box 424.

Mr. Batfield of this city has put in a new telephone switchboard at Oakland.

C. A. Stevens and Almon Cook and family of Oakland were recent visitors to Cottage Grove.

The Roseburg fair has been postponed to Sept. 27.

William's bread, wholesome eating without the work of making it yourself.—Kerr & Silsby.

Horace Cochran, an extra Southern Pacific brakeman, who has been employed here for some time past, left for his ranch near Cottage Grove yesterday afternoon, where he expects to reside permanently. He was accompanied by his family.—Roseburg News.

Miss Esther Silsby of Ashland is a guest of Mrs. Kerr.

Mrs. Eva Reed, who purchased the James Hemenway place, has arrived in Cottage Grove, and taken possession of the property. Mr. and Mrs. Hemenway have taken up their residence on Third street.

Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Watkins were recent visitors at Newport.

Try our Special Blend O. S. roast coffee, 25 cents per pound. Kerr & Silsby.

Dr. Nave spent Sunday in the city while enroute from Portland to Southern Oregon.

John Addison of Lorane was a county seat visitor on Saturday.

Miss Sadie Noon was a Eugene visitor on Saturday.

L. S. Hill was in Portland on business Saturday.

Col. D. W. Bath, formerly publisher of this paper, has gone to Billingsham, Washington, where he has employment in a print shop.

The Carlton & Coast railway, of which Mr. London formerly of this city is superintendent, has completed the first mile of grade out of Carlton, and has several camps on the first twenty miles, which it expects to complete and have trains running over this year.

Williams' hard wheat bread—really worth the eating.—Kerr & Silsby.

A word to the wise who need glasses. Dr. Lowe will be at Hotel Oregon next Monday, Aug. 29.

C. R. Eldredge and Iva Lawson of Vale, Oregon, have taken up their residence in Cottage Grove. They have rented on the West side, and contemplate buying land and engaging in "hog culture."

Messrs. David and Roy Griggs and families left on Monday for the Siuslaw, where they will spend ten days camping and hunting.

Dr. Lowe, the well-known optician and optometrist will be in Cottage Grove next Monday, Aug. 29. Don't fail to have him show you the new glasses with which you can see all distances. One solid piece of glass, no lines or divisions to catch dirt and strain the eyes; no cement to come apart. See these wonderful glasses. Free demonstration at Hotel Oregon on that day only.

The young men of Cottage Grove will give a dance at the Armory tonight for which Throne's orchestra will furnish music. These terpsichorean entertainments are given fortnightly, and are enjoyable social events.

There is a movement under way to organize a brass band composed entirely of "old players," of which there is a sufficient number in the city. An effort will be made to induce Mr. Throne to lead it.

Mr. L. Knowlton of Portland was a guest of his sister, Mrs. Fingal Hinds, over Sunday. Mr. Knowlton is with the Canadian Pacific Railway company.

Marion Veatch was a Springfield business visitor the first of the week.

Mr. Ben Lurch rusticated at Newport this week.

Manager Strubble of the Albany Commercial club has resigned.

Engineer Nichols' bungalow east of the park is receiving the finishing touches.

Groceries—Attractive things for summer menus—Kerr & Silsby.

For Sale—A "Domestic" sewing machine in good condition, $15.00. May be seen at residence of Mrs. C. S. Hefty, cor. 2nd and D.

Mrs. Minnie Price was a guest of Mrs. G. S. Gourley of Eugene the first of the week.

Mrs. M. J. Avery, of Dorena, returned home today after visiting with Mrs. V. A. Avery at Wendling. Mrs. V. A. Avery returned with Mrs. M. J. and will visit in the Bohemia district for a few days.—Guard.

M. S. Schwartz of Amity was a Cottage Grove visitor the first of the week, looking after property interests.

Let Goff put on a pair of rubber heels for you.—50 cents.

Mr. Ely and daughter returned to Kelso, Washington, yesterday after having spent several weeks at the Mayflower mine in the Bohemia hills.

A. Alsted was a Eugene visitor yesterday.

Mrs. Eugene Matlock was a guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Johnson, yesterday.

Mrs. John Simmons was at the county seat on Wednesday.

Mr. F. G. Horton, representing the New York Belting & Packing company, with headquarters at Portland, was in Cottage Grove yesterday. Mr. Horton is an "old Michigan boy," and attended the same Sunday school as did the publisher of The Sentinel. He will hereafter make this territory every sixty days.

M. B. Stone, who recently sold his ranch in Lorane to Mr. Reed, will move his family to Tacoma next week.

There have been several small forest fires near Lorane during the past week, none, however, doing much damage.

Miss Anna Hohl has returned from Roseburg, where she visited Miss Hess. The city council will meet Monday evening.

Wanted, two or three pullets of American or Mediterranean breeds. W. J. Messenger, Dorena, Ore.

If your heels are too high let Goff lower them.

H. H. Hill of Cincinnati, who is a guest of R. O. Brady, the Creswell hop raiser, accompanied the latter to Cottage Grove yesterday, and viewed the manner of the town.

Let Goff square up those heels.

John Silsby is an Ashland visitor this week.

Mr. Whitney, a postal inspector, has been in Cottage Grove a portion of the week, arranging for carrying the mails between this city and Bohemia. The government has had no reasonable bid for the service, and something has to be done about it forthwith. In the meantime the mail is going and coming regularly.

C. C. Hazleton was a Eugene visitor yesterday.

J. E. Heaton of the telephone company was in Cottage Grove yesterday, coming from Eugene.

Mr. R. O. Brady of Creswell has fifty acres of hops, from which he expects to harvest 85,000 pounds. Picking will commence on Wednesday next.

Miss Lillian Green will conduct the Epworth League meeting next Sunday evening.

Welcome L. Hubbell et al to N. P. Chrisman lot in N. P. Chrisman's add. to Cottage Grove; $1.

N. P. Chrisman et ux to Welcome L. Hubbell et al, tract in section 28-20-3 W.; $300.

Eber G. Browne to W. H. Hill, lot 1 in block 4 of D. G. McFarland's second add. to Cottage Grove; $800.

Notice.

Hop picking will commence in my yard on Aug. 31st. Hops are nice and clean and pickers can make good money. Wood furnished and good water on camp ground. Pickers wanted.

R. O. BRADY.

For Commissioner.

I hereby announce myself as candidate for county commissioner, subject to the will of the republican voters at the primary election. A dollar's worth of work for a dollar and serving the public without fear or favor is my platform.

R. J. HEMPHILL, Pleasant Hill.

Charles W. Edmunds, M.D.

Specialist in

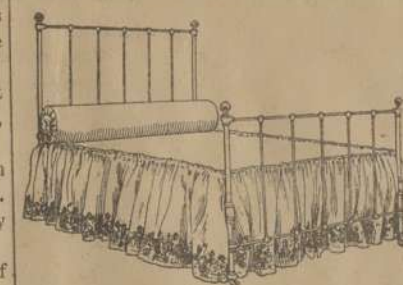

EYE, EAR, NOSE AND THROAT DISEASES

from New York City has located in Eugene, Ore. The doctor graduated at the University of Michigan, serving as house surgeon to the University Hospital, and after seven years of practice in general medicine and surgery took up his specialty. During this seven years he was president of The Saginaw Valley Medical Society, a member of Bay City's sanitary board, and a member of the board of plumbing inspectors.

Doctor Edmunds has done work in the following New York institutions. Post Graduate School of Pathology and Operative Surgery, Mt. Sinai Hospital, St. Bartholemew's Hospital, The Eye and Ear Infirmary, Bellevue Hospital Clinic and had charge of The Demilt Dispensary Eye and Ear Clinic. The doctor has opened fully equipped offices in the White Temple Building

EUGENE, OREGON

The Lock Rail Bed

Is the greatest invention of the age in the iron bed business.

We have it on display. It will pay you to see it before buying.

It Doesn't Cost Any More Than the Ordinary Bed

We Have a New Spring That's a Dandy

It is elaborate in construction and modest in price. Its the kind of a spring that assures peaceful slumber and is the

Most Satisfactory Cheap Spring on the Market

Saturday and Monday Special

Bamboo Novelties in work baskets, umbrella stands, shelves, etc. See window 50c

KINTER BROS.

House Furnishings. Phone 6. Nuf-Ced.

New Fall Dress Goods

Some attractive novelties can be found in the Dress Goods section. The heavier weaves seem very much in vogue. However, for those who avoid extremes, we are prepared with new colors in the more quiet weaves. The shades are all that can be desired. Price range is the yd. 50c to $2.00

BLACK SILK PETTICOATS

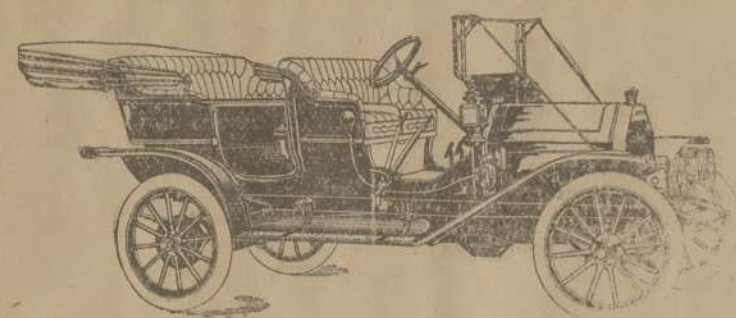

Here's a great big value: Full black silk petticoats, wide flounce with narrow bands, a bargain, each $5.00

Headquarters for the Following

Which are the best obtainable.

Dutchess Trousers (you know them) per pair	$1.00 to $5.00
Headlight Overalls, nothing better, per pair	$1.00
Live Straps Overalls, per pair	85c
Painters' Overalls, per pair	75c
Work Shirts, the best money will buy, each	50c
Work Socks, special, 3 pairs for	25c

HAMPTON & CO.

AUTOS FOR HIRE

Garage-Repairing-Supplies

Inspect Our Cars Before Buying

Nesmith Auto Co.

PHONE MAIN 36

DO YOU KNOW

That changing your shoes—wearing one pair today and another tomorrow—will lengthen their service almost 50 per cent?

THE FLORSHEIM SHOE

Will never lose its shape if properly fitted and we know how to fit—that's our business.

We are agents for the Famous Bergman Logger Shoes

Made of the best leather in any height top you want.

Friday and Saturday Special: Children's 25c value hose only 17 Cents

LURCH

Do You Read The Sentinel

--If Not, Why Not

KINTER BROS.

House Furnishings. Phone 6. Nuf-Ced.

THE SENTINEL FOR JOB WORK