JANUARY CLEARANCE SALE

The Pendulum of Values
Swings Higher Still While
Prices Strike Their Final
Low Level

NOT since the days when A. T. Stewart and John Wanamaker established the idea of a lowest price for the highest value, has there been a clearance sale in which we have offered more excellent merchandise at so greatly reduced prices.

The reductions made only for our January clearance represent savings which command the attention of every man and woman who realizes the great economies they present.

The Opening of Our
January Sales Is Set for Saturday, January 7
