are extended to the many who made the past year a happy and prosperous one for us, and to one and all we wish all good things during the year to come. The year will be happiest to those whose eyes, if needing glasses, are properly prescribed for. You can not see prosperity when it starts your way if your eyes are under a strain. Let me assure you that your eyes are all right, or fit you with the lenses that will make them all right.

You Have Perhaps Observed

—that there are several different grades and prices of feeds on the market. The two main grades are those that are put up "just to sell," and those that are manufactured by well established firms to meet a permanent demand for feed of actual value. The firm that has spent years in establishing a business, and invested every dollar the business has earned in manufacturing equipment, seriously intends to give the public a good article. It has too much at stake not to give value. QUALITY is our motto.

Bell Ringing Quartet Wins With Sweet-Toned Chimes and Melodious Song

These Four Gifted Lads Ring and Sing Their Way Into Hearts of Hearers—Carry Seventy-five Swiss Handbells.

Here they are—four lively young Americans—the members of the Bell Ringing Male Quartet. And they are in action, too—just as they will be seen here in the near future. These young musicians are clever vocalists, also, and they sing and ring—and ring and sing—to your heart's content. They offer a program of brilliancy and snap and theirs is one of the finest novelty entertainments ever presented. Their traveling equipment consists of four well-oiled sets of vocal cords and some seventy-five sweet-toned handbells. Everywhere they have been a veritable sensation during their present tour.
