STRATFORD IS CRESWELL'S FILBERT BOOSTER

Hardy Nut Puts Forth Its Blossoms During Winter Season and Is Unafraid.

J. C. Stratford, of Creswell, believes so strongly in the filbert as a profitable product for this section that he has devoted two acres of his ranch to this nut. He has 140 trees, the oldest being five years of age. From one five-year-old tree he last year gathered 12 pounds of nuts and a two-year-old tree bore 75 nuts. Some of the nuts are as much as 2 1/2 inches in circumference. Mr. Stratford feels certain that his little tract will in time show splendid profits and that it will not be many years before his success will have led others to follow his example. Some of his trees are now in blossom, so mild has been the season, but early blooming does not injure them, as they are immune to frost, which is a feature recommending them to this section, where early blooming of fruit trees is sometimes followed by severe frost. In fact, blooming during the fall and winter is the method adopted by this hardy tree to prepare to produce a crop. The male flower will live through severe winter weather, while the female takes to hiding. Pollination does not take place until spring. Cultivation of the filbert, or hazelnut, is a comparatively new industry, but in its wild state this nut grows prolifically in nearly all sections of the United States. The life of the filbert is about the same as that of a person and it reaches maximum production at the age when man is said to be in his prime. They sometimes produce until a century of age.

AMERICA HOLDS POSITION AS WORLD LEADER

Responsibilities of Such Position Are Grave and Their Assumption Cannot Be Shirked.

America is looked to by the world to take the lead in world affairs and it cannot shirk the responsibilities of such leadership, whether or not such leadership was sought. America has it within her power not only to say whether or not there shall be further war but also to determine what shall be the position of other nations toward those struggling to recover from the recent war. This is the gist of the address, "America as a World Power," given Monday night in the Methodist church by L. D. Mahone, of Portland, a guest of Pastor Hamrick. Mr. Mahone made a most impressive talk and stated that he has sworn statements to back many almost unbelievable statements made by him in elucidating his views upon his subject. He told of "sitting in" before the war with representatives of the nations about to engage in the recent titanic struggle and illustrated the lack of genuine effort to avert the terrible slaughter.

In Mr. Monroe's opinion, America must send its best teachers to help the leaders in other countries.

Mr. Monroe addressed the student body Tuesday.

PROJECT COMMITTEES ARE ORGANIZED HERE

Ira P. Whitney, county agent, was in the city last week making arrangements for the project work to be carried out during the summer in this section of the county under the direction of the grange.

M. M. Wheeler, master of the grange, will act as chairman of the main committee and also of the poultry committee. S. C. Vench will have charge of livestock projects. G. W. McFarland will have charge of rodent control and C. E. Stewart will have charge of horticultural projects.

Project committees will be appointed at Walker and Lorane to cooperate with the committee here.

MADE HARDER TO DEFAUD COUNTY ON ANIMAL BOUNTIES

Trappers and hunters killing animals on which bounties are given must appear personally before the county clerk and make affidavit that the animals were killed by them, which affidavits must be corroborated by two freeholders. This is in accordance with a law which was passed by the recent legislature.

This is to put a stop to the practice of unscrupulous persons who in many instances have killed animals in other states and have mailed the hides in, claiming that they were killed in Oregon, where there is a higher bounty than in the state where the animals were killed. The same also applies between counties, particularly in counties where a special bounty is offered on coyotes.

Loses Sheep; Catches Coyote.

Wes Christman, of Dorann, lost several sheep a few nights ago when strange dogs got into his barn and attacked the animals.

Mr. Christman's dogs drove a coyote into the barn a few days ago and it was caught alive.

Stewart in Charge of Horticulture.

C. E. Stewart, of this city, had charge of the horticultural part of the Lane county farmers' week held in Eugene this week. Many subjects of interest to agriculturists were discussed during the six-day session.

The minimum price of a wanted is 35c. Three insertions for the price of two. Bookkeeping charge of 25c unless paid in advance.

CRIPPLED BY TIMBER ON FIRST DAY OUT OF QUARANTINE

Usually one is thankful to have been released from quarantine, but Charles McKibben is wishing that he had been kept in a few days longer. The reason for the unusual wish is that the next day after having been released and going to work at the J. H. Chambers mill he was crippled by a timber falling upon his right foot.

NEMESIS PURSUES TWO CHILDREN OF HULL FAMILY

A nemesis seems to have been following the John Hull children during the past week or so. Last week the A. L. Woodard flume gave way while Albert Hull was walking upon it. He fell to the ground 20 feet below, was severely bruised and thoroughly drenched with ice cold water from the flume. This week Mr. and Mrs. Hull received word from their daughter, Mrs. H. C. Johnson, of Bucoda, Wash., that their pretty new bungalow burned to the ground Saturday with all its contents. The occupants escaped without injury.

C. C. CRUSON IS CAPTAIN OF MILITARY OUTFIT

Proctor Is First Lieutenant; Milne Second Lieutenant and Lombard Top Sergeant.

Cottage Grove's machine gun infantry company was successfully organized Thursday night last week at nearly maximum strength with the following officers: Captain, C. C. Cruson; first lieutenant, G. A. Proctor Jr.; second lieutenant, Clarence Milne.

Those present officially representing the state and United States army were Adjutant General White; Major James Dusebury, of the United States army, stationed at Salem; Major Joseph V. Shur, United States property officer, Portland; Captain Eugene Libby, Portland, battalion commander, and Sergeant Frank Jirek, United States army, stationed at Portland.

The mustering-in officers stated that this was their first experience where they had been able to complete their work the night of organization and take all papers back with them. This was due to the fact that old heads in the military game were active in the company's organization and in arranging preliminary details.

The lower floor of Masonic temple, used for an armory before the war, has again been leased for that purpose. A new floor will be laid and it is probable that the building will again be used for dances and other functions as a means of producing revenue for the military organization.

Members of the company, in addition to the three commissioned officers, are as follows:

First Sergeant—Herbert W. Lombard.

Duty Sergeants—Donald M. DeLong, Samuel R. Vench, Wilfred S. McCaleb, Wendell H. McCargar (supply, ordnance), Lee C. Tennis, Philip S. Bukowski (supply, Q. M.), Eddie P. Valentine, William Snelair.

Corporals—Elvin C. Spray (Co. clerk), George D. Foster, John H. Garoutte, Filmore D. Wyatt, Robert E. Simpson, Lawson L. Sledge, Terry H. Moody, Thomas J. Queener.

Groves, Forest Groves, Lorin E. Hanford, Gear H. Hawley, Bert L. Hatcher, Clifton S. Hopper, Henry M. Hubbell, Harvey S. Huff, Richard G. Jenkins, Alfred S. Johnson, Isaac O. Land, Jack Lemon, Florest E. McGee, George R. McQueen, Kenneth P. McReynolds, Walter I. Morin, Archie W. Oliver, Everett Powell, Eston A. Porter, Wesley F. Porter, Willard M. Rawter, Ivan O. Sams, Harry D. Skilling, Thomas L. Smith, Oscar Taylor, Harold A. Whitlock, Leonard R. Whitman, Wilbert O. Wilson.

The maximum strength of the company is three officers and 77 men. The company is just three short of the maximum strength.

INTERESTING SERVICES AT PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

The Sunday forenoon service at the Presbyterian church will be given over to an address by Dr. Adelaide Woodward, returned medical missionary to India. In the evening, Professor Roland M. Miller, of the University of Oregon, will speak on "Some Economic Phases of the Disarmament Question."

George B. Dorris Dies.

George Byron Dorris, for more than half a century a practicing attorney in Eugene, former state legislator, former mayor and city councilman, died at his home in Eugene Saturday morning aged 89 years. The funeral was held Monday.

BUDGET LAW COMES NEAR EMBARRASSING CITY

City Council Evolves an Economical Financing Stunt to Put Over Highway Job.

When the city officials came to sign a contract with the state highway commission for the completion of Pacific highway through the city, it was found that the budget for the year is $2000 short of the amount required for the work, but the city fathers are not easily flustered or frustrated. A unique financial plan was evolved. The contractor who gets the job was sold the city's road roller for $2650, with the understanding that it can be bought back at the end of the year at the same price, with a deduction of $5 a day for rent during the time the roller is used. The city will be able to put the money into the next budget for repurchase of the roller, so the law will be complied with, the highway commission is satisfied, the contractor is satisfied and the city will spend money which it will not have until a year from now and will not pay a cent of interest for the use of the money during a year's time.

Burglars Enter Bill & John Store.

Burglars entered the Bill and John cigar store early Sunday morning and took a gun slot machine into the rear room and removed the money from it. The only articles missing were a revolver and a flashlight. Two men who were in the place Saturday night and who were overheard to say something about how they had worked such machines, are suspected of the theft. They had disappeared Sunday morning and have not been apprehended.

A newspaper without an editorial page is like a ship without a rudder—and you are not willing to take chances on a ship with a flimsy steering gear.

DEATH OF MRS. WM. WARD COMES SUDDENLY

Mrs. William A. Ward died at 7 o'clock Wednesday morning in a Eugene hospital, where she had been taken the night before for medical treatment. It is understood that internal hemorrhage was the cause of death. The funeral will be held from the Vench chapel in Eugene at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon, with interment at Eugene.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward motored to Eugene Monday. While there Mrs. Ward was taken ill and received medical attention. On the way home that evening Mrs. Ward again became ill and the physician who attended her here sent her to the hospital the next day. She arrived there about 9 o'clock the night before her death.

Mrs. Ward, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Hawley, was born at Lorane February 24, 1887, being aged 35 years. She had been a resident here for a number of years. The husband, the parents and two little sons, Kenneth and Dalton, survive. Two half brothers, George and Ira Hawley, live in Portland.

Home Burglarized in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. James Groom have received word from their daughter, Mrs. J. J. (Blanch) Jackson, that their home was burglarized one day last week. The Jacksons were both away from home at the time. Mr. Jackson's articles missing were Mr. Jackson's wedding suit and 15 cents in money. Mr. Jackson is at a loss to understand what use a man would have for a wedding suit and only that amount of money.

Mothers' Club Elects.

The Mothers' club elected the following officers at its first annual election held Saturday afternoon: Mrs. Amelia Phelps, president; Mrs. George O. Knowles, vice president; Mrs. Frank Hauser, secretary; Mrs. T. C. Shaw, treasurer. Mrs. W. L. Darby and Mrs. Amelia Phelps were continued as managers of the rest room. The club will give a 50-cent chicken dinner on the evening of February 1.

Siuslaw May Be Deepened.

A sum of $35,000 for the improvement of the Siuslaw river has been put into the rivers and harbors bill by Senator Stanfield. The federal appropriation, if the rivers and harbors bill is passed, will provide for the removal of three shoals and the dredging of the channel at Acme to a 12-foot depth and will add much to the development of Lane county shipping.

Encampment Installs Officers.

Coast Fork Encampment of the Odd Fellows has installed the following officers: A. E. Hamblith, C. P.; G. W. Sweet, H. P.; C. A. Kurse, S. W.; A. E. Burrows, J. W.; Frank Sherman, S.; Charles Gettys, T.; W. P. Johnson, F. W.; Ira Beidler, S. W.; O. A. Nichols, T. W.; W. N. Hubbell, F. W.; J. W. Eddy, F. G.; J. V. Stewart, S. G.

Bridge Approach Gives Way.

The approach to the Hebron bridge gave way Monday morning under the weight of a 10-ton boiler being hauled to the Walter Woodard sawmill near London. The truck and the load were upset but no damage was done except to the bridge and this was repaired the next day.

Row River Bridge Being Repaired.

Joe Damswood and his county bridge crew are repairing the wooden Row river bridge. It is one of the oldest structures of this section and many of the timbers were badly in need of replacing.

COUNCIL IS STANDING PAT ON BOND ELECTION

Members Refuse to Be Jazzed Off Feet by Attorney Who Asks for New Election.

The city council seems to have changed its mind about calling another election to validate a recent issue of $15,000 in refunding bonds. It is not willing to take the word of one attorney that the process by which the bonds were voted was not the correct one. The bonds were voted in accordance with the charter provisions for bond elections, the same provision under which all of the city's bonds have been issued and accepted without question. Former issues were passed upon by attorneys in eastern cities and members of the council do not intend to be jazzed off their feet by one member of the legal profession who disagrees with other equally competent legal authority. Members of the council hold that the bonds are legal and are the best kind of paper without the further action by the people requested by the attorney for a bond issue.

Christian Church Elects.

The following officers were elected Sunday by the Christian church: Claude Plaster, A. E. Burrows and C. A. Lambert, trustees; C. L. Sarff, N. W. White, Roy Hands, A. J. Stevens and V. O. Huff, elders; Roy Hands, clerk; W. A. Hemenway, Fred Beidler, Leslie Hull, C. E. Walker, G. W. McFarland, C. A. Lambert, George Carlie, A. L. Woodard and George Young, deacons; Mrs. C. A. Lambert, Mrs. Lora E. Roberts, Mrs. J. A. Elledge, Mrs. C. F. Walker and Mrs. G. H. Young, deaconesses.

The following bible school officers were elected: C. L. Sarff, superintendent; G. W. McFarland, assistant superintendent; Sylvia Vench, secretary and treasurer; Lulu Hull, assistant secretary and treasurer; Veta Plaster, organist.

ALICE IN HUNGERLAND IS FILM OF NEAR EAST

"Alice in Hungerland," a strange contrast to "Alice in Wonderland," was shown Tuesday afternoon at the Arcade theater to pupils of the schools. The film depicted the suffering of children and their elders in the near east, where American relief supplies have saved millions from starvation and privation. Mrs. W. E. Rambo, recently returned from the stricken countries, accompanied the film and made an explanatory talk. Mr. and Mrs. Rambo, who were caught in numerous Turkish raids upon Armenians, were once reported killed.

Plans now on foot it is hoped, will make it possible within a year or so to withdraw American relief. A large tract of land in Thrace (Greece) has been secured, upon which the stricken Armenians will be colonized and furnished with equipment to make them self-supporting. A colony of 1000 refugees, who have had no permanent home since their deportation in 1915, already is being placed upon this land and 35,000 children from Caucasus will be placed there.

Another Case of Diphtheria.

C. H. Embree, engineer at the electric light plant, has come down with diphtheria. His condition is thought not to be serious. Mr. Embree lived in the house in which the 8 1/2-year-old son of Mrs. Hazel Robide died during the latter part of November and it is thought that he must have contracted the disease from germs not destroyed by the fumigation.

Eugene Councilman Fined for Speeding.

O. N. Kaldor, assistant manager of the Eugene Fruit Growers' association and city councilman from the fourth ward, was fined $25 in the Eugene justice court last week for speeding with his car. K. L. Bloom, state traffic officer, followed Mr. Kaldor's car on Blair boulevard the afternoon before and said that he was driving considerably faster than the law allows.

L. G. Monroe Goes to Brazil.

L. G. Monroe, former secretary of the Eugene chamber of commerce, who had been residing in Portland for several months, left Saturday for New York to take a steamer for Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, where he is to be assistant to Colonel D. C. Collier, of San Diego, who has been named commissioner to represent the United States at the Brazilian centennial exposition.

Party Wrecked on Way Here.

Perry Williamson and family, on the way here from Creswell to visit at the C. E. Barney home, narrowly escaped serious injury when their car went into the ditch at Walker. The car overturned and Mrs. Williamson was badly bruised but the rest of the family escaped with only minor injuries. They report that they were crowded off the pavement by heavy trucks.

To Junket to Lorane.

A number of members of the chamber of commerce expect to go to Lorane today to assist in the dedication of the new high school building there. An all day meeting will be held, with dinner at noon. Several from here are expected to be on the program of speakers.

Dog Licenses Must Be Paid.

The supreme court has upheld the dog tax law. The license fee is $1 for male and $2 for female dogs. In return for these fees owners are entitled to free collars for their dogs which shall be furnished by the county clerk. For failure to obtain the proper dog license the owner may be fined in an amount not to exceed $10 and costs.

AS LONG AS ONE MEMBER LIVES, APPOMATTOX POST LIVES

As long as a member lives, Appomattox post shall not die. Such was a resolution recently adopted by the post in response to a rumor that the post was about to disband. That there is no immediate need of considering the time when the post shall be no more, is illustrated by the installation Saturday of a complement of officers, as follows: G. W. McReynolds, commander; I. J. Taylor, senior vice; Jephtha Hart, junior vice; C. B. King, surgeon and chaplain; E. D. Handy, officer of the day; M. L. Tompkins, officer of the guard; F. A. Clow, adjutant and quartermaster.

The Women's Relief corps installed jointly with the post Saturday, their officers being: Mrs. Elizabeth Fuller, president; Mrs. Fannie Godard, senior vice president; Mrs. Eva Hatch, junior vice president; Mrs. Alta Hart, secretary; Mrs. Elizabeth Fahrwald, treasurer; Mrs. Nettie Saling, conductor; Mrs. Eliza McKibben, guard; Mrs. Arthusa Handy, assistant guard; Mrs. Emma Miller, post instructor; Mrs. Alicia Harrington, chaplain; Mrs. Anna McReynolds, Mrs. Sarah Kerr, Mrs. Ethel Applewhite and Mrs. Telle Pool, color bearers.

Following the installation, Mrs. Carrie Hemenway gave James Whitcomb Riley's "Old Glory."

The personnel of the two organizations follows:

Ladies' Chorus—Mrs. Short, Mrs. Adams, Mrs. Cruson, Mrs. Arthur, Mrs. Kom, Mrs. Benger, Mrs. Helliwell, Mrs. Blackmore, Mrs. Matthews, Miss Swanson, Miss Knowles, Miss Potts, Miss Lea.

HOTELS CARE FOR TOURISTS OF THE WORLD

Number Who Stop at Local Hostelties During Year Reaches Surprising Total of 3540.

What the tourist traffic means to Cottage Grove is little realized until figures of the actual number of cars stopping here is placed in cold figures. During the last seven months of 1921, 885 parties registered at the Bartell and Oregon hotels. If the average to the car was only three, the total number who stopped at these hotels during the seven months was 2655. Records were not kept during the first five months of the year but if a third is added, which is a conservative estimate, the total number of cars would be 1180 and the total number of people 3540.

The larger number of these were from Oregon, Washington and California, but many were here from New York and other eastern states and even from foreign countries.

The number of tourist parties is considerable even at this time of the year and hardly a day passes that there is not one or more.

The states and countries and the number of cars for each during the seven months a record was kept are as follows:

Alaska, 4; Arizona, 5; California, 178; Colorado, 5; Idaho, 14; Illinois, 10; Indiana, 1; Kansas, 2; Massachusetts, 6; Michigan, 2; Minnesota, 6; Missouri, 4; Montana, 6; Nebraska, 6; Nevada, 5; New Jersey, 1; New York, 15; North Carolina, 1; North Dakota, 5; Ohio, 5; Oklahoma, 2; Oregon, 369; Pennsylvania, 3; Rhode Island, 1; South Dakota, 2; Texas, 2; Utah, 2; Washington, 219; Wyoming, 2.

British Columbia, 1; Calgary, 1; Manitoba, 1; Saskatchewan, 1; England, 1; New Zealand, 1; Philippine Islands, 2.

In addition to the number who stopped at these hotels, two or three times the number stopped at the city auto camp.

MILLER ADDS TO AND REARRANGES HIS SHOP

H. A. Miller has completed some extensive improvements at his machine shop. He widened his building several feet to make room for a mogul lathe large enough to handle any kind of work needed for any of the large machinery of this section. This gives him three lathes. He also has completely rearranged all his other equipment.

MERCURY GETS DOWN TO 10 ABOVE MARK

Cottage Grove is experiencing the coldest weather of the winter. The thermometer dropped Tuesday night to 16 above and on Wednesday night to 10 1/2 above.

O. H. WILLARD HEARS FROM HIS CIVIL WAR CAPTAIN

O. H. Willard has received a cordial letter from G. H. Childs, of Marshalltown, Ia., captain during the Civil war of Co. F, 21st Iowa Infantry, in which Mr. Willard served. Mr. Childs has been getting in touch with the living members of the company. He is now 78 years of age and inspecting officer of the Iowa soldiers' home. He enclosed with his letter his picture as he appeared at 18, when he entered the service, and as he appears today. He was promoted from the ranks to a captaincy within a year.

Timbers From Here Go TO RAILWAY HEADED BY HARDING

Cottage Grove is shipping lumber to President Harding. Well, not exactly, but pretty nearly so. It is learned that timbers shipped east by the Buck Creek Lumber company are going to a small railway company of which President Harding is the official head.

MUSIC EVENING IS FEATURE CHURCH SERVICE

Ladies' Chorus and Carolers, With Splendid Program, Add to Joy of Living Here.

A very important factor in making Cottage Grove a pleasant place in which to live is the amount of artistic talent which can be drawn upon for church and other public entertainments. Proof of this was found in the evening of music presented Sunday night at the Presbyterian church before an audience so large that all could not be seated.

The program was given by an exhibition of the ladies' chorus, directed by Miss Esther Sishy, and The Carolers, or men's chorus, directed by Rev. A. R. Spearow, pastor of the church. Miss Elise Price accompanied on the piano and Miss Sishy on the organ.

The entire program was given in a manner that would have done credit to a city having claims to metropolitanism and was in keeping with the many other musical programs of high merit which have been given in the city during recent years. Two instrumental numbers and twelve vocal numbers were given and Pastor Spearow spoke for a few minutes upon "The Place of Music in the Life of the Community."

A similar program will be given by the same choruses a week from next Sunday evening.

The personnel of the two organizations follows:

Ladies' Chorus—Mrs. Short, Mrs. Adams, Mrs. Cruson, Mrs. Arthur, Mrs. Kom, Mrs. Benger, Mrs. Helliwell, Mrs. Blackmore, Mrs. Matthews, Miss Swanson, Miss Knowles, Miss Potts, Miss Lea.

EDITORS HOLD PROFITABLE SESSION AT EUGENE

Attendance Is Large and Scattered; Program Is Hummer and the Feeds Are Numerous.

The recent conference of editors of Oregon, held Friday and Saturday at the University of Oregon, was characterized by those who attended as the most profitable editorial session ever held in Oregon and the attendance was the largest ever present at a conference. The far eastern, far southern and far northern points of the state were represented and every Portland paper had one or more representatives.

Early arrivals were entertained Friday noon at a luncheon at The Anchorage, a banquet was served Friday evening at the Hotel Osburn by the chamber of commerce and a noon luncheon was served Saturday at Mary Spiller hall. A large number of citizens of Eugene were present, and at the Friday night banquet and that city again maintained its reputation as a royal host. The women of the convention were entertained during the two days by the women of the campus.

WORLD WAR VETERAN IS GIVEN MONTHLY PENSION

Seattle, Wash., Jan. 16.—(Special to The Sentinel)—Albert Claude Whaley, of Cottage Grove, Ore., was today awarded government compensation of $8 1/2 month on account of disabilities resulting from war service, according to an announcement made here today by the United States Veterans' bureau. Whaley was adjudged 10 per cent disabled and was awarded $11.29 back compensation.

Because awards are now being made at the district office here instead of at Washington, D. C., war veterans are now receiving quicker action on their claims than heretofore.

MONROE IS DEFEATED; PLEASANT HILL COMES

Cottage Grove high won both games of basketball played here Friday night with Monroe. The boys won 42 to 14 and the girls 20 to 9. Both Pleasant Hill teams play here tonight and both local teams go to Roseburg a week from tonight. The Pleasant Hill teams are reputed to be among the strongest in the valley.
