THOSE WHO MUST REPORT INCOME BRIEFLY LISTED

In order to correct an erroneous impression as to the filing of income tax returns by individuals, Clyde G. Huntley, collector of internal revenue, states that without any exception the following persons must file returns for the calendar year 1921:

Every single person whether or not the head of a family, who had a net income of $1000 or more.

Every married person who had a net income of $2000 or more.

The exemption for dependents under 18 years of age has been increased from $200 to $400 but a return must be made in order for the taxpayer to claim credit for the exemption. A return must be filed, although the person may not be liable to the payment of a tax after claiming the exemption to which he is entitled under the law.

In addition, every man or woman whose gross income for the year was $5000 or more is required to make a report regardless of the fact that this sum may not have netted him a cent of profit.

Taxpayers must file their income tax returns not later than March.

PLACE COUNTY ON CASH BASIS IS PLAN OF COURT

In order to place the county on a cash basis by 1923, when some of the county road bonds become due, the Lane county court has decided to deduct 10 per cent each year from the general road and bridge funds, the market road fund and the special road funds and to use the sum so deducted to pay off outstanding warrants.

Owing to the fact that the amount of delinquent taxes uncollected is mounting up each year, outstanding warrants against the county are gradually increasing. The county court each year bases its budget upon the amount that would be raised by the rate of taxation fixed, but as there is always a considerable amount of taxes uncollected the county is compelled to issue warrants for many expenditures because there is no cash on hand with which to redeem them. It is for the purpose of retiring these warrants that this new fund taken from the road funds is created.

The county road bonds will have to be paid off by direct taxation against property and the court desires to be in a position to provide for their prompt retirement when they become due. With the county on a cash basis at that time the burden of taxation will not be so heavy upon property owners, in the opinion of members of the court.

Interest on the bonds is paid out of the fund returned to the county by the secretary of state as its share of the automobile licenses paid by Lane county automobile owners.

Tested Recipes

Oatmeal Macaroons.

Cream 1 level tablespoonful butter with 1/2 cupful sugar, 1 1/2 level cupfuls raw rolled oats, 1 level teaspoonful salt, then add 1 well beaten egg. Cream butter, egg and sugar, stir in rolled oats and drop from spoon on well greased pan and bake in quick oven. These macaroons have a nutty flavor.

Apricot Tapioca.

One-half cup minute tapioca, 1/2 cup brown sugar or karo syrup, 18 apricots, 2 1/2 cups boiling water. Soak apricots in water until soft. Add boiling water to tapioca, cook in double boiler until soft. Add syrup and apricots either whole or forced through a sieve. Cool and serve.

Black-eyed Susan.

One cup brown bread crumbs, 2 1/2 cups scalded milk, 2 eggs, 1 tablespoon butterine, 1-3 cup molasses, 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 1-3 cup raisins.

To brown bread crumbs add scalded milk and let stand until mixture cools; then add eggs, slightly beaten, and remaining ingredients. Bake in a moderate oven until firm. Serve hot with sugar and top milk.

Cornmeal Puffs.

One pint milk, one-third cup cornmeal, four tablespoons sugar, one-half teaspoon salt, four eggs. Cook the meal and milk together 15 minutes with the salt and sugar; when cool add the eggs, well beaten; bake in cups and serve with stewed fruit or jam. Serve six people.

Tubercular Testing Assured.

The movement in charge of the grange for tubercular testing of cows of this section is progressing satisfactorily. All owners of cows who have been approached have signed the petitions. G. W. McFarland reports getting 100 cows signed within a short time. The agriculture class of the high school is circulating the petitions within the city and on the Coast fork road.

COUNTY TO START ON ROAD WORK AT ONCE

Cottage Grove-Lorane-Eugene Loop Is One of First Projects for Consideration.

Of the ten highway projects planned in Lane county during the present year the county road-building equipment will be used on six of them and the work done under the supervision of the roadmaster, J. R. McKy.

The court will, as soon as the figures of the engineers are completed, call for bids on four of the projects, all of which will be covered by bond issues. These are as follows: Elmira to Smithfield, estimated cost, $48,000; Eugene-Lorane highway from Amis gap to Knox section, $40,000; Cottage Grove-Lorane highway, mountain section, $50,000; Hayden bridge to Camp creek, $30,000.

The projects which the county expects to handle without calling for bids, together with the estimated cost, are as follows: Elmira to Noti, $48,000; Coast fork bridge through Cloverdale, $30,000; Springfield-Lowell section, $13,000 from market road fund and $10,000 from bond fund; Cross stage route, $3500; Fall creek road, $3000; Alvarado-Coyote road, $5000.

Members of the court foresee great activity in road building in this county during the year 1922. Several hundred men will be given employment throughout the spring, summer and fall, going a long way toward relieving the present unemployment situation. It is planned to place men at work clearing the right of way on some of the new projects in the very near future.

GRIEVED MOTHER ANXIOUS TO LOCATE HER LOST SON

Mrs. Sam Griswold, of Camp Point, Ill., is anxious to find her son Emerson, who came to Oregon in 1919. The last the mother heard from him was in June, 1920, when he left Portland for San Francisco. He is 23 years of age, is 5 feet, 9 inches in height and weighs 15 pounds. He has brown eyes, dark Auburn hair inclined to be curly, fair complexion, is of sunny disposition but is rather reserved and spends much time reading.
