

ARCADE THEATER WEEKLY PROGRAM

Sat., Jan. 28—William Farnum in "When a Man Sees Red," a picture the extraordinary power of which has already been recognized in all sections of the country. It is a story of the sea, of the far-off islands of the south, of a man's relentless pursuit to avenge a deadly wrong. In it Mr. Farnum is seen at his superb best. Comedy, "The Night Before."

Sun., Jan. 29—Bebe Daniels in "Oh Lady, Lady!" They met on a train in the forenoon, had a terrible misunderstanding in the afternoon, exchanged vows of eternal love before eleven at night. Oh Lady, Lady, what a fast worker you are. Semon comedy, "The Grocery Clerk."

Mon.-Tues., Jan. 30-31—Lt. Ormer Locklear in "The Skywayman." The greatest flyer the world has ever known in the greatest romance of the air ever filmed, a story of life and thrills above the clouds. It is worthy of public attention that ten per cent of the profits from the exhibition of this picture throughout America will be given to the families of Lt. Locklear and his pilot, Lt. Milton Elliott.

Century comedy, "The Clean Up."

Wed.-Thu., Feb. 1-2—"East Lynne." Mistaken jealousy sent her away—mother love brought her back—half truths—the most poisonous of the venomous arts of villainy, her happiness was complete—a half truth shattered it. She left home to seek greater happiness—and came home in the end, heartbroken. She was gentle, sweet without guile. He was her husband's best friend. A tale as old—and as new—as life itself.

Comedy and International News.

Fri., Feb. 3—Georges Carpentier in "The Wonder Man." All the world loves a lover—and a hero. Here's a man who is both in a society drama of intrigue and action. The man with a million dollar smile.

"Winners of the West," chapter 5.

Tested Recipes

Caroline Cake.

Use stale cake and lemon sauce. Cut cake in pieces for serving and pour over the lemon sauce while it is hot. The cake should stand during dinner. Serve a pitcher of sauce with the dessert. Chopped nuts can be added to the sauce just before serving, but if nuts stand in liquid they become soft.

Lemon Custard Pie.

Juice and grated rind of one lemon, one cup sugar, two-thirds tablespoon cornstarch, mixed smooth and boiled a few minutes in one-half pint water. Add small piece of butter while hot, two eggs, whites and yolks beaten separately and whites added last. Bake with one crust.

Lorane Valley Mill to Be Moved.

Preparations are being made for the resetting of the Addison sawmill in the Lorane valley in a new belt of timber. The mill has a capacity of 20,000 feet a day and handles all the lumber business of that section. The plant is operated by Edward and A. H. Addison. The new timber tract where they will operate is owned by John Addison, father of the sawmill owners.

Society madams of an eastern city are trying to have married men compelled to wear wedding rings to warn young women against flirting with them. Why, bless your hearts, ladies, half of your innocent, shy society girls would be hunting for the men with the bands on their fingers.

An insane man recently tried to swallow an electric light bulb. That's certainly a unique method of trying to get light on the workings of the inner man.

When the father sits in his chair after the little tots have gone to bed and gazes reflectively at the stubbed out toes of the shoes about the floor, it's pretty certain there are other things in his mind besides the price of a new pair of shoes.

In line with the action of Prineville ex-service men in opposing colonization of Ochocho district irrigated lands with Japanese, Percy A. Stevens post, American Legion, of Bend, adopted resolutions condemning the introduction of the lease system for orientals.

Portland, Seattle and St. Paul had the lowest infant mortality rates of 51 cities in the United States in 1921, according to figures announced by the census bureau. While the rate for the group of 51 cities was 74 to each 1000 births, the rate for Portland, Seattle and St. Paul was 47 to each 1000 births.

Sheriff Terrill of Jackson county declares he will not enforce the dog license law, which recently was upheld by the circuit court of Marion county, following which all county clerks have been instructed by the state attorney-general's office to proceed with the collection of dog licenses.

A meeting of land owners of the Gold Hill, Rogue river and Sams valley districts is to be held at Gold Hill on January 28 to launch a new project to irrigate a total of 55,000 acres of land on the north side of Rogue river between Prospect on upper Rogue river to the Josephine county line down river.

The Union Oil company of California remitted to the state department $14,404.74, covering the company's tax on gasoline sales in Oregon for December. The Associated Oil company of California sent in a check for $13,789.93, covering a similar tax on the motor fuel oil sales of that corporation.

An operation in sympathectomy, believed to be the first ever performed in the United States, by which an effort was made to alleviate the pain in the stump of an arm which had been amputated, was undergone at a Salem hospital by a patient of Drs. F. H. Thompson and C. A. Downs, Salem surgeons.

Forty-two per cent of the entire shipment of lumber from western Oregon and western Washington for the week ending January 14 moved by water according to the weekly lumber review of the West Coast Lumbermen's association. The figures are significant of the rapid development of the via water lumber business.

Arrangements have been made for the transfer of the bureau of entomology, of the United States forestry service, from North Ford to Klamath Falls. The purpose is to place the headquarters of the bureau in closer touch with the northern California and southern Oregon insect control project which is about to be launched.

Unless some means of more successfully combating varmints, particularly coyotes, be found and put into effect, the small stock industry of Lincoln county is bound to continue decreasing in importance. Reports from the east end of the county indicate that a large part of the goat owners have been able to save but few kids this year.

The suspension bridge spanning the Willamette river at Oregon City was closed to traffic Monday and will remain out of commission for the greater part of the present year, according to announcement made by the state highway department. Closing of the bridge is necessary to permit the construction of the new span. The new bridge will be of concrete.

While the cost of living in Portland in December, 1921, was 58.3 per cent more than in December, 1914, the peak of high costs was passed in June, 1920, when the increase over December, 1914, was 100.4 per cent. Food in Portland cost 107.1 per cent more in June, 1920, than in December, 1914, but in December, 1921, had slumped in cost to only 33.1 per cent over December, 1914.

An appeal to the state supreme court in the case of D. Tarabochia and others, of Astoria, against Carl D. Shoemaker, state game warden, is being prepared by attorneys for the plaintiffs. This is a celebrated purse seine case and the appeal is to be taken from a decision of Circuit Judge John S. Coke of Marshfield that the anti-purse seine laws passed by the 1921 legislature and effective Jan. 1 are constitutional. Under the provisions of those laws, not only are purse seiners forbidden to fish for salmon in Oregon waters, but no salmon caught in purse seines outside the jurisdiction of the state can be brought into Oregon.

The California-Oregon Power company headquarters offices at Medford have announced that the company has entered into an interconnection contract to supply power to the Mountain States Power company for a period of 30 years, which power is to be used throughout the Willamette valley. In order to supply this power, the California-Oregon Power company will construct a 115-mile high-tension transmission line of 110,000-volt construction which will extend from the Prospect plant of the company, near Medford, through the Rogue river and Umpqua valleys into the upper Willamette valley where it will connect with the transmission system of the Mountain States Power company at Eugene.
