BULLETIN

A recent Congressional order authorized the United States War Department to dispose of all New and Reclaimed Surplus Army Goods. This action is due to the fact that the tremendous expenses involved in guarding, warehousing and administering this huge bulk of Army Goods has been so great and has cost so much that it was deemed necessary ONCE and for all to dispose of these goods immediately. You can easily understand the importance of this order. It means to sell the entire quantity of the country's best merchandise at whatever it will bring. This means that it will be sold at the country's lowest prices. People of Cottage Grove are indeed lucky to have the opportunity of buying their share of this surplus Army Goods and to make it possible for every man and woman of Cottage Grove to take an allotment of these goods, the prices have been arranged SO VERY LOW that you can not help but buy. Good advice is to BUY ALL YOU CAN while you have this exceptional opportunity for it will never come to you again. Six short days is the specified time for you to secure your share.
