

OREGON NEWS NOTES OF GENERAL INTEREST

Principal Events of the Week
Briefly Sketched for Information of Our Readers.

A modern old people's home is to be erected in Salem at a cost of approximately $55,000.

The monthly payroll at North Bend from mills and other plants amounts to nearly $118,000.

The 1922 state convention of the American Legion will be held in The Dalles, July 12, 13 and 14.

Taxpayers of Linn county met in Albany Monday to consider means of bringing about a reduction of taxes.

The state irrigation securities commission has certified to $260,000 of bonds issued by the Medford irrigation district.

Seventy-five property owners met at Salem and organized what will be known as the Marion county tax reduction league.

Charles Hall, state senator, of Marshfield, has announced his candidacy for the republican nomination for governor of Oregon.

Milwaukee refused Friday to recall John M. Snyder as mayor, voting 110 to 105 against the recall which was circulated last month.

The population of the state hospital for the insane at Salem totals 1870 patients, the largest number in the history of the institution.

Marion county poultry raisers held a meeting at Salem and organized a branch of the Pacific Co-operative Poultry Producers' association.

Main line traffic on the Southern Pacific was halted several hours on account of a heavy slide of dirt about three miles east of Grants Pass.

A special election held at Drain resulted in the authorization of an $18,000 bond issue for the purpose of buying and improving the water plant.

Mount Hood is 11,253 feet high, or 25 feet higher than the generally accepted altitude, according to new figures announced by the forest service.

Grand Ronde valley wheat was somewhat damaged by the frosts of the past few months, but so far as has been reported the crop as a whole will not suffer.

Governor Olcott has announced that he has called a conference of western governors to be held in Portland Saturday, March 4, to discuss the narcotic drug situation.

Between 600 and 800 members of the Oregon Christian Endeavor union from all parts of Oregon met in Salem to attend the annual convention of the organization.

The O. W. R. & N. has announced that about March 1 it will begin work on rehabilitating the road between La Grande and Crook and between Baker and Huntington.

To protect the entrance to the Oregon caves in Josephine county, Representative Hawley has introduced a bill to add 120 acres of land to the Siskiyou national forest.

Approval was given by the house in committee of the whole to the item of $460,000 in the interior department appropriation bill for the Baker irrigation project in Baker county.

A resolution opposing the consolidation of the United States forestry bureau with the department of the interior was adopted by the board of directors of The Dalles-Wasco county chamber of commerce.

Asahel Bush Jr., prominent Salem business man, expects to leave early in March for France with a cargo of fruit and other Oregon products which he will introduce in the foreign markets.

The Douglas county jail has become filled almost to capacity during the past two months and the county has been forced to buy new furniture in order to provide additional accommodations.

The output of butter in Oregon in 1921 was greater by more than a million pounds than that of 1920, according to the annual report made by C. L. Hawley, state dairy and food commissioner.

Lena Joyce, Camas valley girl who recently received considerable prominence by killing two large wolves single handed, added to her laurels by bringing in to Roseburg the carcasses of two large cougar which she killed near her home.

The five patrol boats of the state fish commission are being conditioned to patrol the waters of the Columbia and Willamette rivers beginning with the closed salmon season, March 1, according to Master Fish Warden Shoemaker.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Kuser, until recently of Eldora, Ia., have assumed charge of the Oregon state training school for boys at Salem. Mr. Kuser is superintendent of the institution, while Mrs. Kuser will act as matron. They succeeded Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Gilbert, who have been employed as superintendent and matron of the school for the last four years.

First Arrivals of Spring

By good fortune and early planning we now show some of the first of spring's earliest styles. Each week and almost each day from now adds something new suggesting the newest styles and changing tints of spring at this store. Come today and look. You are most welcome.

Announcing the New Mina Taylors

The New Mina Taylors for Spring Are Here on Display

We will not try to tell you here about their charming styles and their unusual quality. We just ask you to come to the store—at once—to see this display of pretty dresses. They say "Spring" in every line—these dainty wash frocks. You'll like them, of course. So will everyone else who sees them—and therefore we urge that you come early to make your choice.

Price Range, $4.95 to $7.00

First Early Arrival of Spring Coats Now Here

THE PALMER GARMENT

You will like these new coats for their freshness and fullness, designed so that while they hang gracefully, they may also be caught closely about one, giving equally pleasing lines in wear.

The garments bear the "Palmer" brand label which assures the best in fabrics and tailoring and authentic styles. The designers have produced effects as remarkably original as they are strikingly attractive. You are most cordially invited to see the coats for yourself today.

Price range.....$11.00 to $25.00

HERE ARE THE EARLIEST OF THE NEW FABRICS for SPRING DRESSES —TISSUE GINGHAMS.

These newest tissue fabrics are indeed pretty and practical for making into afternoon dresses, street dresses, party dresses, etc. The fabric is sheer and dainty in texture. Each thread is first dyed in the yarn and then woven, producing a fast color fabric. The patterns include the newest small and medium check plaids and stripes.

Priced a yard.....50c and 60c

New Corsets in Slenderizing Models

You will enjoy wearing these new corsets for the greater comfort of their natural figure lines conforming to the more slender and youthful silhouette of the new spring models. Here are a score of new models in American Lady corsets which our saleswomen will be pleased to show you. The new lower price range is $1.25, $1.50, $1.75, $2, $2.50, $3 up.

HERE ARE Pretty Dresses FOR THE SCHOOL GIRL

Simple, clever in design, and made to give excellent wear, no matter how often they are laundered. That is what we bought these for. You can depend on them. The dresses are made of pretty plaid gingham and trimmed in plain colors. The size range is from 6 years to 17 years.

Priced.....$1.25, $1.35 to $2.25

Pretty New Curtain Draperies

The coming spring days will call for new curtain draperies and we have planned here for your early selection with these new stocks.

There are new marquisettes, new nets, etamines, and new colored drapes to contrast. We cordially invite every housewife to look over these new curtain drapes this week end. Prices are on a new lower level—a yard.....15c to $1.25

NEW INEXPENSIVE BRAIDS

Here at this store is a host of new and pretty trimming braids including ric rac, binding tape, edging braid, etc., in black, white and colors.

Umphrey & Mackin
THE QUALITY STORE—GOOD SERVICE

BUTTERICK PATTERN STYLES FOR MARCH
NOW ON SALE AT THIS STORE

Neighborhood News

MOUNT VIEW.

(Special to The Sentinel.)

Feb. 21.—C. W. Sears, Clarence Sears and Floyd Jones attended the auction sale of horses held in Eugene Thursday of last week.

J. B. Cooley was a Cottage Grove visitor Monday. Mrs. Kate Sears accompanied him home for a visit with Mrs. Cooley.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Frost and Harry Frost, of Blue Mountain, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Heath.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bales visited Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Waldo Miller.

Miss Pearl Layng attended the Rebeccah lodge Friday night in the Grove. Mrs. C. W. Sears, Lewis Sears and Clarence Sears were in the Grove Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Arne and family, of Cottage Grove, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. Arne's sister, Mrs. F. B. Phillips.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Schneider have both been quite ill with influenza the past week but are now able to be up and around. Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Lockwood have been staying at the Schneider home during their illness.

Homer Chamberlain, who is employed at Elk Creek, was at home last week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Arne went to Eugene Monday for medical treatment for Mrs. Arne.

Clarence Sears spent Sunday at the W. D. Heath home.

Miss Pearl Layng has been confined to the home this week with tonsillitis.

Mrs. C. W. Sears visited her parents and sister, Mr. and Mrs. J. Kile and Mrs. Anna Hoffman, in Eugene Saturday evening and Sunday.

SAGINAW.

(Special to The Sentinel.)

Feb. 21.—L. T. Miller, of Eugene, spent the week end with his family here.

Tom Scott, from Cerro Gordo, spent Sunday night with his parents here. Bartlett Johnston is quite sick with flu.

Miss Mary Cormick went to Eugene Tuesday to remain for some time. Mrs. Howard Moody and children returned Monday evening from Creswell, where they had visited for a week.

J. A. Burgess attended church at Cottage Grove Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Briggs, accompanied by Mrs. Scott, were in Eugene last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Kelly Moody visited last Friday at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Moody. They returned to Tacoma, Wash.

Dewey Fogle, of Crawfordville, spent a few days of last week at the Taplin home.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Shanon were visiting in Creswell Sunday.

Mrs. Taplin has been quite sick during the past week.

C. J. and Ed. Queener came home from Curtin, where they are working.

Several in the community have been sick but are improving.

The Walker union high school basketball teams played the Marcola teams Friday night. The games resulted in victories for the Walker boys and Marcola girls.

Vern Briggs visited at the Myers home Sunday. The basketball game that was scheduled for Saturday night between the second teams of the Walker high and Creswell was called off on account of sickness in the Creswell team.

J. E. Adney was called home from Elkton Thursday on account of sickness in the family.

The Otto Vaughn family, of Mount View, visited Sunday at the F. T. Benton home.

The play, "Merchant of Venice Up to Date," will be presented by Miss Satchwell's students at the Walker union high school Wednesday evening, February 22.

LYNX HOLLOW.

(Special to The Sentinel.)

Feb. 21.—The L. A. H. society met with Mrs. Taylor Wednesday of last week.

Ernest Caldwell has gone to Comstock to work for the Nebraska Bridge & Lumber company.

Grant Sweet carries his arm in a sling as a result of his attempt to crank the engine of his car.

Mrs. Ellen Lajoie and son James, of Wendling, visited relatives here Sunday.

The funeral of J. W. Walker, which was held at Walker Sunday, was attended by a large number of people from here.

Mrs. Walker and her children spent part of the time last week with her sister, Mrs. Marion Lebow, of this place.

Among those on the sick list the past week were Frank Mackie, Lester Porter, Olin Fisher, Mr. Dreese and Mr. Kindsland.

Mrs. Otis Briggs was brought home from the hospital last week.

The Truman Clark family, of Hebron, were Sunday guests of relatives here.

Mrs. Nora Lebow and Doris England, of Salem, and Mae England, of Corvallis, came up to attend Mr. Walker's funeral Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Moses Getz, of Garret, Ind., who took the long journey to be present at the funeral of Mrs. Getz's father, Mr. Walker, came up Monday for a short stay at the Marion Lebow home.

Read the editorials. You may not agree with them, but they are likely to make you think, and that's worth while.