

A MERE TRIFLE

If it be underweight, is not a mere trifle to a customer. A mere trifle over is little to pay for the friendship and good will of patrons. The latter is what we want and the end towards which we strive.

The Store Where Your Dollar Does Its Duty
EADS GROCERY
ON THE WEST SIDE PHONE 9

Painstaking Efficient Optical Service

Our eyeglass service is based on long experience, modern equipment and progressive methods in optometry.

This entitles us to your serious consideration, if your eyes need glasses.

D. J. Scholl
OPTICIAN-OPHTHOMETRIST
Factory on Premises
Cottage Grove Oregon

Tales of the Town

Emory Goodridge, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Madsen and Misses Thelma and Neva Pooler motored to Eugene Sunday.

Galloway for Insurance, 511 Main. If O. M. Kem has recovered from an attack of influenza.

The J. L. Queen family have moved into the J. H. Short property on north Lane street, which they recently purchased.

Fixit Shop. In new location at the bridge. m1c

Ed Spriggs is here from Canby visiting at the homes of his brothers, J. H. and A. C. Spriggs, while convalescing from a severe attack of influenza.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Williams, of Tillamook, and Mrs. Anna Hagert, of Portland, were visitors here Sunday. Mrs. Williams and Mrs. Hagert are cousins of S. V. and Fay Allison and Mr. Williams is a brother of Mrs. Stanley Hickey.

Make it snappy. List it right, sell it quick. Tell me what you want, get it right away. J. M. Durham, realtor.

The Whitney boys' chorus will meet at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon in American Legion hall.

Moving and storage. Phone 99. City Transfer. nov11fc

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Bennett, of Portland, former residents, are here this week on business and pleasure.

Among visitors from here in Eugene Tuesday were T. C. Wheeler, C. M. Parker, Clarence Stoneberg, H. J. Shinn and G. B. Picher.

FOR HIGH GRADE PHOTOS

Monroe Photo Studio
COTTAGE GROVE

Kodak finishing, printing, developing, enlarging. Open on Sundays from 10 to 3 o'clock.

Talk with E. E. Arthur about a life insurance policy. Agent for Equitable. f24fc

E. E. Chadwick, secretary of the Eugene chamber of commerce, was here Tuesday on business.

Joe Danewood is moving his family to their ranch near Red bridge on Row river. m1c

The Store That Appreciates Your Trade

This is one store that appreciates your patronage and is willing at all times to accommodate customers and to make every sale a satisfied sale. Any suggestions as to how to make our store or service better will be appreciated.

We want this to be YOUR STORE.

FRESH VEGETABLES AND FRUIT THIS WEEK

LETTUCE	SWEET SPUDS	YAKIMA APPLES
CABBAGE	PARSNIPS	ORANGES
CAULIFLOWER	CARROTS	BANANAS
TURNIPS	ONIONS	GRAPE FRUIT

Smith-Short Grocery

MAIN STREET—FIRST DOOR WEST OF THE ELITE

Mrs. D. C. Bosley and son Fred spent Sunday in Eugene.

William Morelock was in Portland Friday on business.

Notice.—Eugene Cottage Grove stage has just put on another run leaving Eugene at 5 p. m. and Cottage Grove for Eugene at 6 p. m. daily except Sunday. Other runs as before. m10-17p

Miss Ethel Hedgepeth, of Creswell, visited over the week end with her grandmother, Mrs. Emma Doolittle.

John Milne made a business trip to Portland Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Caldwell motored to Eugene Friday.

Baby chick orders all sold for March and April. Can take orders for May. J. P. Spray, phone 125Y. m1010fc

Mrs. O. M. Miller returned Friday from Roseburg.

Fixit Shop in new location at corner of Main street and Pacific highway. c

W. S. Bennett, of Portland, has sold his residence property on Adams avenue to A. G. Williams, of the People's market.

Galloway writes insurance.

Miss Ruth Phelps, of this city, who is attending Monmouth normal, will be one of the story ladies with the Ellison White chautauqua during the coming summer.

Ellena Shortridge and Sophia Booker visited at Walker over Sunday.

Moving and storage. Phone 99. City Transfer. nov11fc

Clyde Leonard and Cecil Messenger were up from the U. of O. over the week end visiting at the home of Mr. Leonard's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Leonard.

Walter Bilderbeck has arrived from Medford to accept a position with J. H. Chambers. He lived here about 20 years ago.

Treat 'em rough if you want to, but bring them here for the repairs that such treatment makes necessary. Spray, Long & Cruson's Service Garage. f17fc

Mrs. Mary Sherwood arrived from Los Angeles to attend the funeral of her father, Joseph Garoutte.

Ren Sanford was down town Monday for the first time since his recent severe illness.

At west end of bridge. Fixit Shop. Fixes most anything. m3c

The James Potts car sustained a wrecked front end in an accident Saturday night on Main street.

D. T. Awbery is ill with influenza at Eugene and will not be able to make his regular visit here this week.

You may take a chance but not the loved one. Equitable Life. E. E. Arthur. f24fc

Mrs. Ida Miller went to Roseburg yesterday to attend the funeral of her nephew, W. L. Dysinger, prominent resident of that city. He leaves a wife and a son.

Fred Ernst has begun suit in circuit court against J. B. Morris and others seeking to foreclose a mortgage in the sum of $500.

Seventh Day Adventist Church, west Main street. Services every Saturday. Sabbath school, 10 a. m.; church service, 11 a. m. Prayer meeting Wednesday, 7:30 p. m. Persons desiring information call 161J.

H. W. Lombard was in Eugene Wednesday on business.

Mrs. W. F. Colvig returned to Eugene Wednesday, after a visit at the W. W. Shortridge home.

Have the Fixit Shop fix it. New location at west end of the bridge. m3c

Thieves broke into the J. I. Jones warehouse a few nights ago and appropriated some of the apple cider stored there.

Equitable Life. E. E. Arthur. f24fc

Curran Cooley came up from Eugene Saturday with his daughter Fay, who left Sunday for Dunsmuir, Calif., to visit her aunt, Mrs. Edna Russell.

Miss Frances Cox came up from Albany and spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Cox.

Advice and service free. Charges not high. Spray, Long & Cruson's Service Garage. f17fc

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Holderman were down from Rujada Sunday visiting Mrs. Holderman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Cochran.

Edd Jenks came down from Bohemia Saturday.

Dressmaking, remodeling children's clothing, general sewing. Reasonable prices. Mrs. J. H. Heard, 322 Second street. m31fc

Miss Hazel Loucks was home from Monmouth normal over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Maglady, of Eugene, attended the Joseph Garoutte funeral Sunday.

See the Cottage Grove Vulcanizing Works about putting those damaged tires in condition. It means something to you. f17fc

S. L. Mackin motored to Eugene Sunday and brought home little Thomas-Gallo, who is recovering from his recent illness.

Harry Webber was in from Coast fork Saturday. He has been very ill.

Moving and storage. Phone 99. City Transfer. nov11fc

Christian Church.—The Home-Like Church.—J. E. Carlson, minister.—Bible school at 9:45; junior congregation meets at 11. At the morning hour there will be a memorial service in honor of Dr. D. C. Kelless. Rev. V. E. Hoven, of Eugene Bible University, will speak. Intermediate and senior C. E. at 6:30; regular evening worship at 7:30, sermon by the pastor.

Chickens, hogs, veal and cattle wanted at the People's Market. tfe

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Poole motored to Sutherlin Monday. They took home their granddaughter, Miss Goldie Cooper, who had been going to school here but was recently taken with a severe attack of influenza. She will remain at home while convalescing.

Regular services at the Methodist church Sunday. Morning subject, "The Work of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society." Evening, "Is Water Baptism Essential to Salvation?"

New pianos, $25 cash and $15 a month. Eugene Music Shop, Eugene, Oregon. j13fc

Lawrence K. Phelps writes from Klamath Falls that the live wire must come every week or someone else will have to build the fire for the family. He says the Cottage Grove contingent are all well and in good spirits.

The C. O. DeVere family have all been flu victims.

Battery testing and overhauling. Spray, Long & Cruson. j201fc

Miss Marie Jones, of Eugene, spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Jones.

W. L. Swartz, of Roseburg, is visiting at the home of his daughter, Mrs. F. B. VanNortwick.

Go to Sterling's for your horse feed, dairy feed, scratch feed and egg mash.

Miss Allie Phillips, of Corvallis, spent the week end at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Phillips.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Hauser motored up from Eugene Sunday and spent the day with Mrs. Hauser's mother, Mrs. Allie C. Hawkins.

Christian Science church, corner of Jefferson avenue and Second street. Sunday services at 11 a. m. Wednesday services at 7:30 p. m. tf

All those holding tickets in the recent lyceum course put on under the auspices of the high school will be admitted free to the number being put on by the Oregon Agricultural college glee club on March 20. This is done because of the fact that the lyceum course fell short one number on account of sickness here and on account of a mixup in dates.

Ellena Shortridge and Sophia Booker visited at Walker over Sunday.

Moving and storage. Phone 99. City Transfer. nov11fc

Clyde Leonard and Cecil Messenger were up from the U. of O. over the week end visiting at the home of Mr. Leonard's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Leonard.

Walter Bilderbeck has arrived from Medford to accept a position with J. H. Chambers. He lived here about 20 years ago.

Treat 'em rough if you want to, but bring them here for the repairs that such treatment makes necessary. Spray, Long & Cruson's Service Garage. f17fc

Mrs. Mary Sherwood arrived from Los Angeles to attend the funeral of her father, Joseph Garoutte.

Ren Sanford was down town Monday for the first time since his recent severe illness.

At west end of bridge. Fixit Shop. Fixes most anything. m3c

The James Potts car sustained a wrecked front end in an accident Saturday night on Main street.

D. T. Awbery is ill with influenza at Eugene and will not be able to make his regular visit here this week.

You may take a chance but not the loved one. Equitable Life. E. E. Arthur. f24fc

Mrs. Ida Miller went to Roseburg yesterday to attend the funeral of her nephew, W. L. Dysinger, prominent resident of that city. He leaves a wife and a son.

Fred Ernst has begun suit in circuit court against J. B. Morris and others seeking to foreclose a mortgage in the sum of $500.

Seventh Day Adventist Church, west Main street. Services every Saturday. Sabbath school, 10 a. m.; church service, 11 a. m. Prayer meeting Wednesday, 7:30 p. m. Persons desiring information call 161J.

H. W. Lombard was in Eugene Wednesday on business.

Mrs. W. F. Colvig returned to Eugene Wednesday, after a visit at the W. W. Shortridge home.

Have the Fixit Shop fix it. New location at west end of the bridge. m3c

Thieves broke into the J. I. Jones warehouse a few nights ago and appropriated some of the apple cider stored there.

Equitable Life. E. E. Arthur. f24fc

Curran Cooley came up from Eugene Saturday with his daughter Fay, who left Sunday for Dunsmuir, Calif., to visit her aunt, Mrs. Edna Russell.

Miss Frances Cox came up from Albany and spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Cox.

Advice and service free. Charges not high. Spray, Long & Cruson's Service Garage. f17fc

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Holderman were down from Rujada Sunday visiting Mrs. Holderman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Cochran.

Edd Jenks came down from Bohemia Saturday.

Dressmaking, remodeling children's clothing, general sewing. Reasonable prices. Mrs. J. H. Heard, 322 Second street. m31fc

Miss Hazel Loucks was home from Monmouth normal over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Maglady, of Eugene, attended the Joseph Garoutte funeral Sunday.

See the Cottage Grove Vulcanizing Works about putting those damaged tires in condition. It means something to you. f17fc

S. L. Mackin motored to Eugene Sunday and brought home little Thomas-Gallo, who is recovering from his recent illness.

Harry Webber was in from Coast fork Saturday. He has been very ill.

Moving and storage. Phone 99. City Transfer. nov11fc

Christian Church.—The Home-Like Church.—J. E. Carlson, minister.—Bible school at 9:45; junior congregation meets at 11. At the morning hour there will be a memorial service in honor of Dr. D. C. Kelless. Rev. V. E. Hoven, of Eugene Bible University, will speak. Intermediate and senior C. E. at 6:30; regular evening worship at 7:30, sermon by the pastor.

Chickens, hogs, veal and cattle wanted at the People's Market. tfe

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Poole motored to Sutherlin Monday. They took home their granddaughter, Miss Goldie Cooper, who had been going to school here but was recently taken with a severe attack of influenza. She will remain at home while convalescing.

Regular services at the Methodist church Sunday. Morning subject, "The Work of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society." Evening, "Is Water Baptism Essential to Salvation?"

New pianos, $25 cash and $15 a month. Eugene Music Shop, Eugene, Oregon. j13fc

Lawrence K. Phelps writes from Klamath Falls that the live wire must come every week or someone else will have to build the fire for the family. He says the Cottage Grove contingent are all well and in good spirits.

The C. O. DeVere family have all been flu victims.

Battery testing and overhauling. Spray, Long & Cruson. j201fc

SEE OUR SPECIAL ALUMINUM WINDOW

We have just received a full line of flower pots and stone jars. Also a complete line of BULK SEEDS AND ONION SETS

Ostrander & McQueen

James Whitford has been admitted to the Masonic and Eastern Star home at Forest Grove and will leave for there today, accompanied by S. L. Mackin, senior warden of the lodge here. The home has only recently been completed and Mr. Whitford is to be one of the first guests there.

A 6-pound daughter was born March 7 to Mr. and Mrs. Earl Harris.

Editor Bede flirted with the flu over the week end but it did not "take" very hard.

Ruby Swerengen and Virginia Appleget, of Drain, spent the week end with their aunt, Mrs. Albert Anderson.

Mrs. Frank Erber and son Erwin, of Portland, who had spent several weeks with Mrs. Erber's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Welden, returned home Monday.

Harry Benston was in from Saginaw Monday on business.

Banker Bergman, Florence, Dead.

Florence, Ore., March 2.—John W. Bergman, president of the Lane County State and Savings bank of Florence, died early this morning after a brief illness with influenza. Mrs. Bergman is also ill with influenza, but her condition is not at present regarded as serious.

Mr. Bergman attended a meeting of the state highway commission in Portland last week for the purpose of furthering road interests of this region and was taken sick immediately after his return. He became rapidly worse and the end came this morning.

He was a member of a pioneer coast family and was widely known in the western part of the state.

Two Suits Filed in Court.

Eugene Register: W. L. Darby & company have instituted suit in circuit court against R. B. Arden, seeking to recover the sum of $231.40, with interest at the rate of six per cent from February 27, 1922, and the further sum of $35.95 with interest from January 10, 1922.

The Credit Service company is plaintiff in a suit against W. A. Trowbridge and Henry Mabie, seeking a judgment in the sum of $476.43, with interest at the rate of six per cent per annum from January 30, 1922, and the further sum of $85.67 with the same rate of interest from November 28, 1921.

Superintendent Churchill Takes Bride.

Salem, Ore., March 2.—Announcement was made today of the marriage of J. A. Churchill, state superintendent of public instruction, to Miss Inez E. Depew, of Chicago. The wedding took place in Chicago, where the bride had lived for 12 years.

Miss Depew lived in Oregon from early girlhood. She taught in the rural schools of Lincoln and Lane counties and was graduated from the Oregon Normal school. She taught in the schools of Baker for eight years while Mr. Churchill was supervising the schools there.

Mr. Churchill is attending a superintendent's meeting in Chicago.

The Quarter at Church.

An instance of momentary success in the collection has been noted when the minister published the following soliloquy in the congregational calendar: "I am 25 cents. I'm too small to buy a quart of oil; I'm too small to buy one-half pound of candy; I'm too small to buy a ticket to a good movie show; I'm even too small to buy a box of undetectable rouge; but most people think I'm 'some money' when I come to church.—Christian Register.

SOCIETY

The Euterpean club met Tuesday night with Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Helliwell. Games were played and a short vocal program given. Miss Elmer Knowles sang "Rose in the Garden"; Miss Dollie Pitcher sang "Love's Sorrow"; Miss Marie McGarrar sang "Good Bye Summer"; Mrs. Victor Kem sang "Good Night, Sweet Dreams," and Miss Myrtle Potts sang "The Temple Bells." The following officers were elected: President, Mrs. Victor Kem; vice president, Miss Myrtle Potts; secretary-treasurer, Miss Frances Beatty. Refreshments were served cafeteria style.

The M. P. G. club meets next Tuesday with Mrs. H. W. Titus.

The ladies' aid of the Christian church was entertained Wednesday afternoon in the church parlors with Mrs. Charles Stevens, Mrs. Emma Miller, Mrs. C. M. Parker and Mrs. J. E. McKibben as hostesses. The afternoon was spent with needlework and social chat. The society has elected the following officers: President, Mrs. J. E. Loucks; vice president, Mrs. Charles Stevens; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Charles Lambart.

The ladies' aid of the Presbyterian church was entertained in the church parlors Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. T. C. Wheeler, Mrs. C. H. Vandenburg and Mrs. Herbert Eakin as hostesses. Following a social session, a business session was held, at which the following officers were elected: President, Mrs. G. B. Picher; vice president, Mrs. Homer Galloway; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. J. E. Blackmore.

The Derthick club held a social session Tuesday night in American Legion hall. The musical program was as follows: Piano solo, Donald Umphrey; vocal solo, Grace Fullerton; piano solo, Frances Mackin; vocal solo, Lois Thomas; piano solo, Lenora Hubbell; vocal duet, Mrs. Leon DesLarzes and Bernard Brinnard. Games were played and refreshments served.

The Umphrey & Mackin store force gave a farewell party Friday night at the C. E. Umphrey home in honor of Miss Nieta Hazleton, who recently resigned her position as cashier. A social evening was enjoyed and refreshments served.

Miss Ruth Bede was the guest of honor at a surprise party Tuesday evening at the home of her parents, the occasion being her seventeenth birthday anniversary. Refreshments were served following a social evening.

Mrs. V. T. Randall entertained at dinner yesterday in honor of her birthday anniversary. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Powell, her parents; Mr. and Mrs. George Keibelbeck, Mrs. J. Q. A. Young and Mrs. Eva Small.

The H. C. club will meet next Sunday with Miss Ellena Shortridge. The club has just elected the following officers: President and treasurer, Ellena Shortridge; vice president and secretary, Sophia Booker.

The Constellation club will meet next Thursday afternoon with Mrs. A. W. Swanson and Mrs. Andrew Brund as hostesses.

Silk Creek Society.

Mrs. Arthur Woolcott entertained most charmingly Monday afternoon, February 20, in honor of her little son Robert Gordon, who was one year old that day. The birthday cake was white, trimmed in pink, with a pink candle in the center. Little Robert helped his mama hold the knife as she cut the cake. Those present were Mrs. D. A. Estes and grandson Bertram, Paul Estes, Mrs. B. W. Garner, Mrs. S. Burcham, Mrs. E. M. Wheeler, Mrs. E. Darnell, Mrs. Bob Cole and son and daughter Everett and Virginia and Mrs. Alice Ruter and daughter Clara.

A. F. & A. M., Attention

Regular communication Wednesday evening, March 15, at 7:45. Educational night. Address by E. J. Carleton, superintendent of Eugene city schools. Visitors and members urged to be present.

L. N. PHELPS, Secretary.

By order of W. M.

Lost—Black velvet purse, trimmed with beads; hand purse inside. Return for reward to Mrs. G. W. McQueen. m10c

For Sale—Solid oak desk, roll top, large size, good order; cannot be duplicated new for less than $300. Price, $75; terms. Inquire Sentinel of fice. mh10fc lowing officers: President, Mrs. J. E. Loucks; vice president, Mrs. Charles Stevens; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Charles Lambart.

The ladies' aid of the Presbyterian church was entertained in the church parlors Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. T. C. Wheeler, Mrs. C. H. Vandenburg and Mrs. Herbert Eakin as hostesses. Following a social session, a business session was held, at which the following officers were elected: President, Mrs. G. B. Picher; vice president, Mrs. Homer Galloway; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. J. E. Blackmore.

The Derthick club held a social session Tuesday night in American Legion hall. The musical program was as follows: Piano solo, Donald Umphrey; vocal solo, Grace Fullerton; piano solo, Frances Mackin; vocal solo, Lois Thomas; piano solo, Lenora Hubbell; vocal duet, Mrs. Leon DesLarzes and Bernard Brinnard. Games were played and refreshments served.

The Umphrey & Mackin store force gave a farewell party Friday night at the C. E. Umphrey home in honor of Miss Nieta Hazleton, who recently resigned her position as cashier. A social evening was enjoyed and refreshments served.

Miss Ruth Bede was the guest of honor at a surprise party Tuesday evening at the home of her parents, the occasion being her seventeenth birthday anniversary. Refreshments were served following a social evening.

Mrs. V. T. Randall entertained at dinner yesterday in honor of her birthday anniversary. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Powell, her parents; Mr. and Mrs. George Keibelbeck, Mrs. J. Q. A. Young and Mrs. Eva Small.

The H. C. club will meet next Sunday with Miss Ellena Shortridge. The club has just elected the following officers: President and treasurer, Ellena Shortridge; vice president and secretary, Sophia Booker.

The Constellation club will meet next Thursday afternoon with Mrs. A. W. Swanson and Mrs. Andrew Brund as hostesses.

Silk Creek Society.

Mrs. Arthur Woolcott entertained most charmingly Monday afternoon, February 20, in honor of her little son Robert Gordon, who was one year old that day. The birthday cake was white, trimmed in pink, with a pink candle in the center. Little Robert helped his mama hold the knife as she cut the cake. Those present were Mrs. D. A. Estes and grandson Bertram, Paul Estes, Mrs. B. W. Garner, Mrs. S. Burcham, Mrs. E. M. Wheeler, Mrs. E.