

Two Cents Plus $787.40

—gives you one of the classy, latest model Ford Sedans, all slicked up like an 18-year-old maid on her way to Easter services, together with whatever gasoline may be in the tank, and it only takes a little for a trip in one of these always-on-the-job little busses.

If it's a warm day, any three-year-old can let the windows down and you have all the advantages of an open car. If a rain blows up, you don't need to stop and get out in the mud—the same little three-year-old can raise the windows and you are just as comfy as if at home around the fireside.

Always ready to go—small upkeep—all the speed the law allows—you wouldn't think you could get so much for so little money.

Five Cents Plus $492.80

—gives you the greatest little jack of all trades on the market today—the far-famed Fordson Tractor. There's almost nothing on the farm it won't do except spank the kids, and even that could be arranged. Get the mortgage off the farm and keep the boys and girls on it, by cutting down the overhead and cutting out the arduous labor—all done with the Fordson Tractor. No business farmer will be without one.

PORTLAND MAN SAYS IT KEPT HIM ON THE JOB

Was Afraid His Working Days Were Over But He Feels Just Fine Now, Says Burkhisser.

"Tanlie made a brand new man out of me and I am strong for it," said L. B. Burkhisser, 1140 Maryland St., Portland, Ore.
"Three years of stomach trouble and kidney disorder had pulled me down until I was almost past going and nothing I ate agreed with me. My liver didn't work right and my back, right over my kidneys, hurt me so that I couldn't bend over and straighten up again without suffering agony.
"I was very much alarmed for fear that my working days were over and I am convinced that they would have been if I hadn't gotten Tanlie in time.
"This medicine has benefited me in every way and I eat, sleep, work and feel better than in years."
Tanlie is sold by all good druggists.
