

Aditorial

Blooming girls and radiant women attired in beautiful new raiment are just as much a part of spring's awakening as the budding of jonquil and daffodil and the appearance of Robin Redbreast. It is such a pleasure to select fitting new apparel this year for not only may it be had in broader variety than ever before, but at the new lower prices which proclaim better values.

in the northwest clay pigeon shoot, winning money in five of the eight contests which he entered. He knocked down 126 out of a possible 150 and 45 out of a possible 50. He discovered soon after leaving here that he had forgotten to put a license plate on the rear of his car. He telephoned to have it mailed to him, but traveled to Portland and around the city and covered a distance of over 300 miles before the plate reached him and no one asked him a question.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson's little son was taken for an examination and it was found that the physical defect is rapidly righting itself and it is probable that another operation will not be necessary.

Otto Michel Loses Case. Otto Michel lost his suit against the Southern Pacific railway, tried in district court this week. The instruction of the judge to the jury did away with any possible advantage before the jury. The costs were divided between the litigants. The suit was to recover damages for injuries sustained about a year ago when Mr. Michel jumped from a moving train after he had assisted passengers onto the train.
