FIRES WILL SCARE TOURIST DOLLAR

According to records of the federal foresters on the 23,072,793 acres of national forest lands in Washington and Oregon, 1206 forest fires occurred during the year 1921. Of this number 469 fires, or 39 per cent, were started by lightning, which no man could possibly prevent. The next highest number was 434, or 36 percent of the total, and these were due to careless, thoughtless or ignorant campers, mostly our own people. Frank Branch Riley is now preaching to the east the gospel of the scenic glory of the northwest. The northwest is asking the world to come and see, and come again, but will blackened mountainsides and smoke-covered peaks attract the world tourist? Eternal watchfulness and thoughtfulness regarding the use of fire in the forests are essential if we may expect the tourist dollar to roll northwestward.

GOD—AMERICA—THE CHILD.

(By John W. W. Cumming, U. S. N.)
May not the child be taught a simple evening prayer that contains certain fundamentals that are essential to good citizenship and thus impress upon the unfolding mentality certain ideas as soon as it is ready to grasp them?
This question did the writer ask himself regarding his own little family—the certain fundamentals classed as Dependence and Trust in the Divine, Duty to Mankind, Divine Guidance in national affairs and Duty of Country to God and Man.
The writer has attempted to embody all this in two simple little verses which have in no way proved difficult for his baby boy to repeat when given

Autographic Brownies

FRANKLY we consider the Autographic Brownie one of the "best buys" that our photographic department has to offer—and that is a real tribute.

Any one, however, can see value plus price considered in an efficient picture-maker fitted with carefully tested lens and shutter that folds like a Kodak, and like a Kodak has the autographic feature.

- No. 2 Folding Brownie, pictures 2 1/4 x 3 1/4 inches
- No. 2A Folding Brownie, pictures 2 1/2 x 4 1/4 inches
- No. 2C Folding Brownie, pictures 2 3/4 x 4 1/4 inches
- No. 3A Folding Brownie, pictures 3 1/4 x 5 1/4 inches

the first word of each line or some times every other line. While most of us learned as children the "Now I lay me—" prayer and perhaps never gave a thought as to the fundamentals it contains, yet it contains mostly "I's" and nothing beyond Dependence upon the Divine and soul safety without any reference to others or to our country.

The two simple verses referred to are as follows:
God, please hear me while I pray,
Keep me safe through all this night.
When I wake up every day,
Help me do just what is right.
God, bless our United States;
May our President do Thy will,
May our Flag spread love, not hate,
And Thy holy plans fulfill.
Reader, I trust you will find this matter concerning your own home worth giving thought, particularly if you have "kiddies" there.

THINGS WE THINK

Things Others Think and What We Think of the Things Others Think

If some folks were not permitted to tell of what they are going to do it would be no inconvenience to them to be deaf and dumb.

Bookkeeping should figure in every business, but some of the government prosecutions of illegal combinations have developed the fact that some businesses have developed this part of the business out of due proportion.

It is not usually wise to do things on the spur of the moment, but we do not wish to advise too severely against such kind of action for fear of keeping some folks from doing anything.

A woman is the most exasperating creature. Just when hubby has his plans all laid out as to how mean he is going to be until wifey gives in over some trivial little thing that has caused a spat, she comes up behind him—and all those well laid plans and the time consumed in laying them out are absolutely wasted.

A western crank who argued that all punishment for sins is meted out in this world, was burned to death in a hotel fire the next night.

A warning; when a fellow is in his cups he should be careful not to get in the jug.

Some folks are about as consistent as the hen which will mother chicks which she has hatched from eggs laid by every hen in the flock, but will peck the brains out of a chick which it suspects some other hen has hatched.

A South Dakota candidate for office exclaims that he is hard up. If he could draw to his banner all who feel with him on that proposition, his election would be a cinch.

A woman doesn't realize how much some of her sisters must suffer until she marries a widower.

It is pretty easy to forgive if we only stop to think of the many things we have done for which we need forgiveness.

There is often more to a thing than you see at first glance. For instance, take a figure 6 and turn it upside down and you will see half as much again as you did before.

The California Packing association, one of the largest organizations of its kind on the Pacific coast, has leased a warehouse at Salem, formerly under control of the Pheasant company. It is announced. The plant is equipped for the manufacture of jams and jellies.

Carson D. Beebe, accused of murdering John Painter and his son, William Painter, near Lebanon last fall, may be reindicted by the Linn county grand jury. This action may be taken, according to report, so that the state may try Beebe again if he is released from the state hospital.

Deposits in the 278 state and national banks of Oregon at the time of the call, March 10, aggregated $232,568,694.29, according to a report prepared by Frank Bramwell, state superintendent of banks. This represents an increase of $1,228,027.07 over the deposits on December 31, 1921.

A lowering of the cost of fuel through improved transportation conditions, lower freight rates and well-organized methods of distribution is planned by coal dealers of the state. It was announced at the first annual convention of the Oregon Coal Dealers' Credit association, held in Portland.

The state, through District Attorney Moore, of Jackson county, announced that it has dismissed the indictments against Mrs. Myrtle Blakely, former county treasurer, in connection with the wrecking of the Bank of Jacksonville. Mrs. Blakely was tried twice, a jury disagreement resulting both times.

Columbia river mills will ship to the neighborhood of 240,000,000 feet of lumber by water to the New York market during the present calendar year, according to estimates made by lumber exporters. This figure will exceed by several million feet the total amount shipped from all North Pacific ports last year.

An extension for one year of the contract between the city of Klamath Falls and the Oregon, California & Eastern Railway company was granted R. E. Strahorn by the city council, with the provision that construction work be resumed within 60 days and the road be completed to Sprague river by May 29, 1923.

A copy of the so-called compulsory education measure which will go before the voters at the general election in November was received at the office of the secretary of state. The measure has been referred to the attorney-general for ballot title. The measure, if approved, will not become effective until September, 1926.

Although chemists at the Oregon Agricultural college, in reports to orchardists who sent dead birds for postmortem analysis, state that they could find no poison traces in crops or glizzards, growers of Hood River express the opinion that robins, which have died recently by the hundreds, were killed by eating atmospheric nitrate of soda.

At the annual picnic of the Douglas County Oddfellows' association held at Myrtle Creek, I. A. Dean of Riddle was elected president, R. A. Hutchinson of Oakland, J. I. Pickens of Roseburg, Mrs. Bessie Hermann of Myrtle Creek and Mrs. Stearns of Yoncalla vice-presidents; Mrs. Bell Stephenson of Roseburg secretary, and V. T. Jackson of Roseburg treasurer.

A proposed constitutional amendment initiated by the people's power league of Oregon which seeks occupational representation in the conduct of the state government was filed with the secretary of state. The amendment has been referred to the attorney-general for ballot title. The amendment probably will be submitted to the voters of Oregon at the general election next November.

Reports received in Salem from the rural districts indicate that the loganberry and strawberry crops in Marion county not only will be larger this season than last year, but that the prices will be more satisfactory than at any time since the close of the war. This year, it is estimated, there will be 15,000,000 pounds of loganberries. The strawberry crop probably will aggregate 1,000,000 pounds.

There were four fatalities in Oregon due to industrial accidents during the week ended April 27, according to a report prepared by the state industrial accident commission. The victims were L. J. Throop, chokerman, Healdsburg, Cal.; A. M. Danton, laborer, Newberg; C. F. Scoggins, logger, Oswego, and R. Moriyaser, hog feeder, Astoria. A total of 384 accidents were reported during the week.

J. M. Ramsdell, Sam Padgett, Phil Motschenbacher and another man from Klamath Falls have gone to Diamond lake, where they will gather about 8,000,000 trout eggs during the next 60 days. The men will walk from Kirk to the lake and will encounter snow ranging in depth from four feet on the level to 12 feet at the summit, according to Harry Stout, county game warden. This season promises to be bannel one for trout eggs. At Spencer creek 2,800,000 have been taken, while enough fish are in the pen to furnish 1,000,000 more eggs. At Wood river probably 2,000,000 eggs will be taken.

The Corvallis Gazette-Times on Lane County Legislative Candidate:

Old Elbert Bede has been "drafted" for the legislature. It was a great surprise to Elbert to have a group of Eugene citizens swoop down upon him, though he would have been more surprised if they hadn't come after the banquet was all ready for them. Now if Eugene doesn't double-cross Elbert, Lane county will have a representative who has no sympathy with freak legislation and one who will know what is going on. Nine-tenths of the legislation enacted at any state capital in this country is enacted in some legislator's room after dinner. Certain types of legislators never even know it. They are not invited to "sit in" because they are not the kind who adapt themselves to situations. They are long on talk and short on performance and so far as accomplishing anything is concerned, their constituents would be much better off if they were at home. There is also the legislator who has his ear constantly to the grass roots. Popular passion with him is the epitome of condensed wisdom. Therefore the thing he votes for today may be the thing that roils the anger of the populace tomorrow.

Bede is too well grounded in the fundamentals to go off half-cooked in that fashion. He has too often taken the unpopular side of an argument in his newspaper, to be vindicated later when the public found itself, to be scared into voting for a foolish measure merely because there seemed to be a big demand for it for the time being. He is safe and sane and will make a good legislator.

We haven't seen old Elbert Bede's legislative platform yet, but we imagine his slogan will be "More publicity for Cottage Grove by munching the size of Cottage Grove hen fruit."

There is a pleasing sociable feeling about living in a small town where everyone knows you, but sometimes it is inconvenient.

Woman is usually content with reflected glory; the least hubby can do is to present a sunshiny face around home.

A woman doesn't like to be married for her good cooking—and she seldom is.
