

Vote for M. Svarverud for Commissioner

The most important county office is that of commissioner and the qualifications of a county commissioner should be one of a constructive and experienced mind and with proven ability in his community.

THE OFFICE IS NOT CLERICAL BUT EXECUTIVE

Has the candidate shown ability of a progressive nature by which you may judge his fitness and business ability of handling the constant growing affairs of the people? If so, cast your votes accordingly.

I am not a picked candidate by any political ring or club, nor do I owe anything to their dictates.

If elected I shall serve the people of Lane County with prudence and fairness and to the best interest of every part of the county.

I am for a law abiding and clean government.

Respectfully yours,

M. SVARVERUD.

Profit by

Great Reductions East Through California

Round Trip Summer Tourist Tickets

On Sale May 25th to August 31st—Return limit October 31st
Liberal Stopover Privileges

"High Points" on the Way

THE GLORIOUS SISKIYOU—
MAJESTIC MT. SHASTA—
THE RUGGED SIERRAS—

"Pleasure Places" You Must See

San Francisco—world famous city that "tis hard to leave."
Los Angeles—wonder city and noted tourist center.
San Diego—romantic city "where California began."
Three National Parks—Yosemite—Sequoia—General Grant.
Scores of charming seashore and mountain resorts.

For fares, sleeping car reservations or beautiful folders
ask any agent, or write

SOUTHERN PACIFIC LINES

my 19-26 JOHN M. SCOTT, General Passenger Agent.

LITTLE SHORT OF MIRACLE

If Story Is True, This Englishman's Middle Name Must Surely Be Good Luck.

Lying on a path 18 months a leather wallet containing over $140 was found by the loser after being unnoticed by hundreds that passed each day, writes an English correspondent. A dining-car conductor on the Great Western railway, who lives at Southall, left home one morning in June, 1920, and went to Old Oak Common, near Acton, where the dining cars are stored. From Acton station he walked through a private path used by the railway staff and leading to Old Oak carriage sheds. Later he went to Paddington station and worked the dining-car train to Plymouth. When he returned to London he discovered that he had lost his wallet. He had not the faintest idea where or how he had lost it, and although he made inquiries he could find no trace of it. The other morning he walked up the same private path on his way to work, as he has done scores of times since he lost the wallet, when he stopped for a moment, and looking on the bare ground just at the side of the path he was amazed to see his wallet lying there. He picked it up, and was further amazed to find that the contents had not been touched. The wallet was weather-beaten and the notes were soiled as though they had been soaked in rain, but when he found them they were dry. The path is used by hundreds of men every day.

INVALUABLE AID IN COOKING

British Journal Points Out How the Use of Thermometer Will Help the Housewife.

Every housewife is aware that the actual cooking of a dish is a very important factor of success or failure. A "hot oven" and a "moderate oven" are often referred to, and testing by holding the hand inside for a few seconds is a method frequently employed.

But there is no real dependency on such haphazard methods, since one person can bear much more heat than another. Therefore, in an efficient household a kitchen thermometer to register cooking heats should be considered as necessary as a clinical thermometer. There are two varieties of kitchen thermometers to be had. The cheaper kind is of white china, and can only be used for oven cooking. A more durable make, of brass, which costs a little more, can be used for testing frying fats, etc., and will not break so easily. An iron leg supports the thermometer, so that it stands upright and can be read at a glance when in the oven. Every degree of heat from low to high temperature is registered, and at the side the standard temperatures for cooking are printed.—Manchester Guardian Weekly.

Population in A. D. 2000.

According to Dr. Edward A. Ross, by the year A. D. 2000 the population of the United States will number about 223,000,000. Extremists are painting vivid pictures of our country, pointing out that the condition of China, Japan and India will be rivaled here. They predict a starving country with too many inhabitants and too little space in which to house them. In their minds are scenes of war, famine and misery as a result.

On the other hand, John S. Summer, secretary of the New York Society for the Suppression of Vice, says: "Overpopulation is not a menace to the peace of the world, because there is no overpopulation. It is not the physical fact of population, but the mental and spiritual condition of people which determine the question as a menace to continued peace."

Little-Known Washington Portrait.

Discovery of a long-lost portrait of George Washington by the American artist, Gilbert Stuart, in New York city, directs attention to the Stuart portrait of Washington which hangs in Memorial hall in the State Library building at Hartford, Conn. It was bought direct from the artist by virtue of a resolution of the general assembly in May, 1800. The understanding was that it had been painted by order of a committee from South Carolina, and was then declined on the ground that it was not a portrait of Washington.

A committee from Connecticut conferred with Gilbert as to a Washington portrait, and purchased the one he had painted for South Carolina.

New Harbinger of Spring.

There was a drumming roar above the city the other day, rising and waning and passing into distance. "Listen to her," said the man in the street, "that's the first plane I've heard for months. Sounds kind of good." His companion was equally pleased. "You know what that means, don't you?" he rejoined. "Means it's spring, that's what it means. We used to depend on the robins, but now a very different sort of bird flies when the weather gets decent again. Look at her, would you?" The gleam of a far-off wing as the plane banked, the sudden wind-borne stutter of sound, and spring's modern harbinger drifted beyond ken.—Portland Oregonian.

When She Has Gone.

"Woman's place is at home, and she should stay there," was the opinion of the municipal board of Versailles, France, when, some little time back, they considered a proposal to admit women in the higher municipal posts. And the report says that women should not be encouraged to apply for administrative positions, but should remember that they would do better to confine their activities to the home.

Some of the cooking recipes that newspapers are allowed to print leave no doubt as to the liberty of the press.

It is better to have a secure footing part way up the ladder than to have a precarious position at the top.

The house of a young Chicago couple was recently burned by one of the hubby's former sweethearts. In other words, the fire was set by an old flame.

Salt water is good for the skin, and best when it comes in the form of perspiration.

There is nothing more embarrassing than to tell a good story and not have it take.

Automobiles are said to be producing a race of lazy people. There is no serious danger of inertia for those in the pedestrian class.

What's the use wasting time trying to get on amicable terms with someone we can not get along with when there are plenty others suited to our temperaments.

How many graduates would write the same essays four years after graduating?

It's a wonder to the men folks how easily a sweet, dainty, refined little girl is sometimes satisfied.

A bill is proposed which will result in dumping into the sewer all doped hen fruit over one year old. That's a cold blooded way of killing off the sewer rats.

It should be fixed some way so men and women wouldn't pick life partners at a time when they don't know what they're doing.

A Boston man won a fifty dollar prize a short time ago for a song on the high cost of living. The man who can sing after paying his bills certainly deserves something.

It is impossible not to believe in hell when contemplating the sins that go unpunished on earth.

To cure tapeworms, eat these prepared breakfast foods and starve 'em to death.

A woman was recently divorced in one of the divorce colonies at 12 o'clock and married again before 1 o'clock. Why the delay?

Expect but little and you may have the pleasure of a surprise once in a while.

Knowles & Graber

Hardware and Furniture

Cottage Grove
Oregon

FISHING TACKLE
BASEBALL GOODS
TENTS
CAMP STOVES
OIL STOVES
RUBBER GARDEN HOSE
LAWN SPRINKLERS
HOES AND RAKES
SHOVELS AND SPADES
AT VERY LOWEST
POSSIBLE PRICES

Get Them at

DARBY HARDWARE

No War Tax

Effective May 8, 1922, the Excise Tax on United States Tires for passenger cars, both casings and tubes, is absorbed by the makers and is not added to the selling price.
UNITED STATES RUBBER COMPANY.

To the Purchasers of a 30 x 3 1/2 Usco for $10.90

WHEN the "Usco" Tire announced its new price of $10.90 it carried this understood contract with the buyer—

A price reduction made in good faith—using all the U. S. advanced art of tire making not only to get the price down, but to keep the quality up.

Today $10.90 is not the uncommon price it was last November.

But the "Usco" Tire is still the uncommon tire value it always has been.

Because in carrying out the "Usco" price reduction in good faith, we learned something about raising the quality, too.

United States Tires
are Good Tires

Copyright
1921
U. S. Tire Co.

United States Tires
United States Rubber Company
Fifty-three Factories The Oldest and Largest Rubber Organization in the World Two hundred and thirty-five Branches

Where You
Can Buy
U. S. Tires:

N. J. Nelson Jr., Cottage Grove
Corner Service Station and
Garage, Drain

Brown & Marketta, Comstock
Jackson & Addison, Lorane

BIG POWER in EVERY DROP!

"Red Crown" meets the automotive engineer's demand for a motor fuel that will vaporize rapidly and uniformly in the carburetor, and explode completely in the cylinder. Every drop is 100% power.

Fill your tank with "Red Crown" and nothing else, and you won't have to bother with carburetor adjustments. You'll get prompt starting, better mileage, and a sweeter-running motor.

Fill at the Red Crown sign—at Service Stations, at garages, or other dealers.

The Gasoline
of Quality

STANDARD OIL COMPANY
(California)

