

Howe's Circus Today TENTH STREET AT MONROE AVENUE

When Howe's great London circus, with Van Amberg's trained wild animals, comes to Cottage Grove today the kiddies will have the treat of their lives. The lion stork recently visited the menagerie, leaving the cutest pair of baby lions imaginable. There is also a baby monkey, ponies who do everything but talk, together with the spectacular production, "Cinderella in Jungleland," in honor of the children. This is the first of the larger circuses to restore the admission price so popular in pre-war days—fifty cents.

Every patron of The Sentinel is helping to give Cottage Grove a newspaper which eminent authority has stated to be one of the best country newspapers published anywhere.
