ORIENTAL Superstition?
Perhaps so—but at least an interesting relic of Asiatic Antiquity. Alleged by the Chinese to be almost uncanny in its power to bring to the wearer, GOOD LUCK—Health, Happiness, Prosperity, and Long Life. This odd looking ring excites great interest when observed on your finger. An unusual gift. Drop into our store today and ask to see this OLD CHINESE GOOD LUCK RING.

A good name and great riches do not seem to go together—but nevertheless a lot of country newspaper men have unsavory reputations. A man who just tears around to get to work at 7 or 8 o'clock week days seems to delight in fussing around till after church time Sundays. The college professor who wrote the screed against nude statuary probably thought he was confining himself to bare facts.

The Power of the Want Ad

Keen buyers and sellers are daily realizing, more and more, the power of the Wantad to bring them definite and immediate results. If you have something to sell, rent or exchange—or if you want to buy or rent, tell your story in a clear, concise manner and place it in our Wantad columns. The wantad costs little and the results are often surprising.
