SOCIETY

Mr. and Mrs. Omer Moore entertained a group of friends Wednesday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Ole Hadley, of Athena, who visited here during the past week. Mrs. Moore and Mrs. Hadley are sisters. Those guests were Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Umphrey, Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Metcalf and Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Smith.

G. W. Denman and Mrs. Emma Ragsdale, both of Corvallis, were united in marriage Tuesday at noon at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. G. J. Landess on north Eighth street in Cottage Grove, the ceremony being performed by Rev. C. W. Reynolds, pastor of the First Christian church of Corvallis. Mrs. Bessie Sutcliffe played the wedding march and Mrs. Landess sang "Oh Promise Me." Shasta daisies and woods vines were used in the decorations. The bride wore an attractive suit of blue tricotine and a black hat. She is well known here, having taught in the Cottage Grove schools for three years. The wedding party enjoyed a dinner at the Bartell hotel immediately following the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Denman have gone to Yachats for a short trip before returning to Corvallis, where they will reside.

Mrs. E. J. Kent's birthday anniversary on Tuesday was the occasion for a gathering of a number of friends at the Kent home in Delight Valley. The party included Mr. and Mrs. A. E.
