

"HELPFUL HINTS"

DEPOSITING BY MAIL

WHEN forwarding checks to the bank for deposit, don't indorse them in blank—that is by simply signing your name on the backs. If they should then become lost, anyone might make collection. Indorse them "payable to Bank of Cottage Grove."

We are carrying many "by mail" accounts here—and are always glad to receive inquiries about opening and maintaining either Checking or Savings Accounts in this way.

Bank of Cottage Grove

FIRST AID

TO A WEAK FINANCIAL STANDING

—may be had through the channel of better vision. Fact! Fully 70% of us have defective eyesight—without knowing it. Naturally our ability to think, to work, to earn, to save—is impaired. Know that your eyes are right. You may not need glasses, but be sure. Our new Shelltex Shur-ons are much the vogue just now.

D. J. Scholl

OPTICIAN-OPHTHOMETRIST
Factory on Premises
Cottage Grove Oregon

Tales of the Town

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hawley and grandson Kenneth Ward and Mr. and Mrs. George Hawley left Saturday to spend a month at Newport.

Shot guns and rifles at greatly reduced prices at W. L. Darby & Company's.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Ford, of Belle Center, O., who are on a motor tour of the coast country, visited during the week at the L. B. Morris home.

Mrs. S. D. Brady, of Ashland, and Mrs. H. A. Balenewer and Mrs. Evenson.

Galloway for insurance, 511 Main. If Chud Sterling had a large silver removed from his left foot at the office of a local physician Saturday morning.

Mrs. F. J. Hard and daughter, Dr. Frane, who had spent two months on the Vesuvius properties in the Bohemia district, left Saturday for their home in San Jose.

Moving and storage. Phone 99. City Transfer. nov11tf

It's Cheaper

to buy your cakes here than it is to bake them yourself. And since we use only high grade, pure ingredients they are wonderfully good.

Cottage Grove Electric Bakery

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Chapman and Mr. and Mrs. E. L. McKeonolds moved to Monmouth Saturday and visited with Clara Chapman and Kenneth McKeonolds, who are in school there this summer.

Mrs. H. H. Horton, of Oakridge, is visiting with her sister, Mrs. Thomas Tiller.

HONEY!

HONEY! HONEY! HONEY!

We have it from one quart jar to the gallon size. This honey is from Lebanon, Ore., and is of the finest quality and is the cheapest in price that we have had for several years.

FRUITS AND VEGETABLES
We carry a most complete line of fruits and vegetables at all times.

Smith-Short Grocery

The Store That Appreciates Your Trade

Mrs. Horace Cochran and two daughters Marjorie and Mildred arrived last week from Tiller for a visit at the home of Mrs. Cochran's mother, Mrs. Josiah Porter. Marjorie has returned home but Mrs. Cochran and Mildred will remain for a longer visit.

Go to Nelson's for used cars. a18c

Mrs. Ora Swerengen and children, who had been visiting at the home of Mrs. Swerengen's sister, Mrs. Isaac Ritehey, left Friday for their home in Sunnydale, Wash.

Ruth and Vera Cummins, of Eugene, visited several days of the past week with their cousins Helen and Harriett Ostrander.

Hop pickers wanted; cabins furnished. Picking starts September 1. Hardie Bros., Eugene, R. B. a18-25p

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Berg and small son, of Winnett, Mont., who are on a motor trip down the coast looking for a location, were in Cottage Grove a day or two the latter part of last week and were much impressed with this locality.

N. J. Rutley was fined $10 and costs in police court Monday morning on a charge of drunkenness.

Get our prices on ton lots of feed. Beidler's Feed Store. jun9c

Miss Margaret Edmondson returned to her home in Eugene Friday after a visit at the O. H. Heine home.

O. H. Foster, of Eugene, was in the city Saturday on business.

Lowest prices on guaranteed work. Try us, Overland Garage. j128tf

Glen Jenkins and Grace E. Funk were married Saturday by County Judge C. P. Barnard at the court house in Eugene.

J. E. Young was in Eugene Saturday on business.

Try some of the Milk Producer at Beidler's Feed Store. jun30c

D. H. Hemenway returned Friday night from Portland, where he attended the wedding of his daughter, Miss Nellie, to Carl Edward Price on Thursday.

To The Public

I have purchased the interests of my former associates in the City Meat Market. I shall make no changes in the conduct of the business at the present time and shall continue to give you the same excellent service and excellent meats that you have received in the past.

City Meat Market

Frank Safley, Prop.—Phone 89

M. H. Anderson made a trip over the new road to Lorne Sunday and reports it pleasant to travel over and one of the prettiest drives hereabouts. The grading on the road has just been completed but there is little change, according to Mr. Anderson, of its being rocky this fall.

Used cars at Nelson's Auto Sales: 1918 Chevrolet touring, $250; Chevrolet touring, $200; Ford delivery, $225; Ford bug, $125; 1918 7-passenger Studebaker, $225. a18c

Miss Dorothy Pitcher and Miss Kathryn McQueen spent the week end in Eugene visiting the J. A. Griffin family.

William Turk, who is employed at Wendling, spent the week end here with his family.

Moving and storage. Phone 99. City Transfer. nov11tf

Miss Gertrude Nelson has returned from a Eugene hospital, where she recently underwent an operation for appendicitis.

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Finerty, of Eugene, stopped here over Friday on their way to Grants Pass.

Beidler's Feed Store is buying wheat and oats. a11c

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ellsworth returned Friday night from Portland, where they had visited with Mrs. Ellsworth's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Burdick.

Ben Lurch was up from Portland Friday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Norval Rice, of Crawfordsville, spent Sunday with Mrs. Rice's sister, Mrs. David Sterling and family.

We have some No. 3 common lumber on hand at $5 per m while it lasts. Walter A. Woodard. a11c

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. McKinney, who returned recently from Arroyo Grande, Calif., have purchased a lot and an unfinished house on Jefferson avenue between Twelfth and Thirtieth streets. The McKinneys, who formerly resided here, went to California two years ago.

Ben Lurch was up from Portland Friday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Norval Rice, of Crawfordsville, spent Sunday with Mrs. Rice's sister, Mrs. David Sterling and family.

We have some No. 3 common lumber on hand at $5 per m while it lasts. Walter A. Woodard. a11c

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. McKinney, who returned recently from Arroyo Grande, Calif., have purchased a lot and an unfinished house on Jefferson avenue between Twelfth and Thirtieth streets. The McKinneys, who formerly resided here, went to California two years ago.

They will have their new home completed in about a month. They had planned to locate in Roseburg, but the lure of the old home town was too strong to be resisted.

Company D held machine gun practice Sunday. A target has been erected on the T. C. Wheeler property.

Don't have any slackers; keep track of what each hen does by using egg record cards; for sale by The Sentinel at $1.75 the hundred. tf

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Wheeler and family, are camping out on Mosby creek during Mr. Wheeler's vacation from the First National Bank.

Mike Keibelbeck was in Eugene Monday evening on business.

Eugene Finnea, of Wendling, spent the week end here with his family.

The only way to clean rugs and carpets. The Premier way. A. L. Wynne, phone 6. jun16c

The Charles Adams family left Tuesday for Rainier park and other northern points of interest on their vacation.

Why go unshaven when you can buy a razor from W. L. Darby & Company for 25c up! a18c

Miss Belle Burkholder, of Portland, is spending the week here with her mother, Mrs. Clara Burkholder.

Mrs. L. B. Beals and Mamie Gidney came from Days Creek Tuesday to attend the remainder of the camp meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Ferrin, who have been living on the Skaggs ranch just south of the city, left Tuesday to make their home in Grants Pass.

Mrs. H. K. Morgan arrived Wednesday from Aledo, Ill., for a visit at the home of her brother, Homer Galloway. Mr. Galloway and daughter Rachel went to Portland Tuesday to meet her.

Patronize home industry. The Oregon Fire Relief has written insurance at cost for 27 years—has over half million dollar reserve as evidence of its good management. See Tom Awbrey or John Durham for rates. Near Bartlett hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. William Frasier Johnson returned the first of the week from a week-end motor trip to Portland.

Easy to own a Premier, $5.00 down, $5.00 per month. A. L. Wynne, phone 6.

"EVERY DAY" BREAD

is the same every day—wholesome, nutritious, delicious. Don't just say "A loaf of bread" to your grocer; say "A loaf of 'Every Day' Bread."

Bender's City Bakery

Dr. and Mrs. W. T. Robbins, former residents, visited during the week at the H. A. Miller home and at the home of Dr. Robbins' brother-in-law, O. P. Willis, on the Coast fork. Dr. and Mrs. Robbins motored up from their home in Oakland, Calif.

An eight-pound son was born Wednesday morning to Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Pleunard, of Row River.

C. M. Emery, Eugene insurance man, was in Cottage Grove Tuesday to adjust two fire claims, one with Mrs. Laura McFarland whose barn burned Sunday night and one with J. F. Spray whose chicken house was destroyed by fire early Monday morning.

Sterling can save you money on tires: 30x3 fabrics $7.90, 30x3 1/2 fabrics $9.95, 30x3 3/4 cords $14.85. No war tax added. See them today. a18c

Charles Combs, Ivan E. Warner and Miss Eva Broekus, of the local staff of Gray's Cash & Carry store, went to Eugene last night to attend a banquet given by A. R. Gray, proprietor of the string of Cash and Carry stores, for all clerks and managers.

Frankie Snodgrass, of this city, sang as a feature at the Rex Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday nights this week. At each performance he has been well received.

Moving and storage. Phone 99. City Transfer. nov11f

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan E. Warner returned Tuesday from Siletos Lake, where they spent a week's outing. They enjoyed some good fishing while camped at the lake for few people are camping there this year.

The N. W. White family, of this city, and Dr. and Mrs. T. W. Harris, of Eugene, have returned from a trip through southern Oregon. They visited Crater lake and the Josephine county caves.

Buy Sterling brand feeds. Dairy feed, horse feed, egg mash, scratch feed, hog feed, etc. Manufactured in your home town and quality guaranteed. Prices are right. Give your home products the preference. Sterling Feed Company. a18c

Robert Jones left Tuesday by motor for a week's visit at Maupin, eastern Oregon. Thomas Jones, an uncle of Robert's father, J. L., accompanied him as far as Salem and will visit at the W. C. Conner home.

Miss Delia Roach, who had been visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. Winifred Tarpen, returned Monday to her home in Portland.

Sugar and flour at Beidler's Feed Store. jun9c

A handsome new two-color sign was put up this week in front of the Sterling Feed company's store on west Main this week. The front of the building has recently been painted red and the interior repainted gray.

Mrs. Clarence Selbrede and baby daughter Georgia, who have been at the home of Mrs. Clara Burkholder for several months, leave next week to join Mr. Selbrede in Los Angeles.

Moving and storage. Phone 99. City Transfer. nov11f

Mr. and Mrs. V. S. Goff have as their guests during camp meeting week Rev. and Mrs. P. A. Brown, of Harrisburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Blair, of Portland, visited over the week end with Mr. Blair's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Blair.

Let us figure with you on that overhaul. Don't neglect the old boat too long—it doesn't pay. Overland Garage. j128tf

I. B. Morris returned Thursday evening of last week from a trip to Klamath Falls and Crater lake.

Lucile Whitlock has gone to Portland to live with her sister, Mrs. W. O. Asher, and attend school this winter.

John Culver arrived Friday from Centralia, Wash., and is visiting with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Culver Sr.

Notice—I have opened a furniture repair and saw filing shop in the F. T. building on old Pacific highway. S. G. Brund. a18pd

Mrs. Mary Truax, of Grants Pass, and Mrs. Fred Yost, of Roseburg, are visiting with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Willard.

George Marksberry and his sister, Mrs. O. M. Miller, spent buyers' week in Portland.

School Books and School Supplies

Our new line of school books and all kinds of school supplies—tablets, ink, pens, pencils, erasers, crayola, rulers—everything needed—has just arrived. School reopens in a short time and you will need these things. Let us help you arrange your list.

And remember that our groceries, fresh vegetables and supplies are as good as the excellent service which you always receive here. Telephone orders carefully and promptly filled. Our phone number is 55.

Ostrander & McQueen

An enviable record for prompt and fair treatment has brought the Oregon Fire Relief Assn. many new policy holders. Are you one? See Tom Awbrey or John Durham for particulars. tf

A new plate glass window was put in the corner window of the Service garage Monday replacing the one that was cracked some time ago.

Mr. and Mrs. George Foster, Miss Jennie Tunison, Harry Kettle and Bert Lancaster motored to Lebanon Saturday night and spent Sunday. Mrs. Lancaster, who had been visiting her parents there, returned with them. The same party went to London Monday night to camp out.

Good piano for rent to responsible parties where there are no children. Inquire London Mercantile Co., phone 11-F12. a18c

The Ralph Lancaster property on Sixth street was sold Friday to Sam Howell, of Chehalis, Wash. E. C. Lockwood made the deal.

Professor and Mrs. F. L. Shinn and children and Miss Margaret Cox, all of Eugene, spent the week end at the O. H. Heine home.

Mrs. George Orr and daughter Naomi returned Friday from a three months' trip to Granger, Wash., Enterprise and Wallowa lake.

Mrs. H. V. Larson has gone to Divide to stay with her daughter, Mrs. Angele Perini, while Mr. Perini is in the Southern Pacific hospital in San Francisco.

Mrs. Levi Neet, of Springfield, visited Saturday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Nelson, Sr.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Hawkins left Tuesday for the John Seavey hop-yard at Springfield for the hop-picking season.

Mrs. Cordelia Ankeny and daughter, Miss Gladys, motored up from Eugene Tuesday and visited briefly at the Elbert Smith. Miss Nellie Myers accompanied them home and returned the next morning.

James Hardman and G. A. Nichols returned Monday night from a business trip to Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Mathins, of Eureka, Calif., who will attend the Eugene Bible university this year, are visiting with Rev. and Mrs. J. E. Carlson.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Powell are driving a Chevrolet coupe, purchased last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pizer, who had been visiting with the George and John Keibelbeck families, returned to their home at Stayton Wednesday. Mrs. Pizer and Mrs. John Keibelbeck are sisters.

Mrs. E. W. Horine, of Palo Alto, Calif., is visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. G. A. Proctor.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Hill, of Eugene, parents of Mrs. O. W. Hays and Lester W. Hill, visited Sunday with the Hays family and Mr. and Mrs. Hill.

Harry Hall, who had been visiting here with his aunt, Mrs. Anna Hall, left the first of the week for his home in Pocatello, Ida.

Mrs. J. J. Dillon and daughter Margaret, of Portland, are visiting at the home of Mrs. Dillon's parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Magee.

Miss Catherine Mendenshall, who is spending her vacation in Portland, was in the city Tuesday on business.

Miss Dessie Harms has returned from a vacation trip to Ridgefield, Wash., and has resumed her work at the Helliwell, Bangs & Marksberry store.

Miss Lura Hefty arrived several days ago from Newport and is a guest of Miss Lura Currin.

Mrs. J. P. Newell and son Webster, of Portland, arrived Wednesday from Newport, where they had been on an outing, and are visiting at the home of Mrs. Newell's niece, Mrs. W. B. Cooper.

Herbert Eakin, Miss Lura Currin, Miss Lura Hefty, Maryellen Benson and Henry Wynne motored to Eugene Wednesday and met Mrs. Eakin, who had been visiting in Marshfield for a month with Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Smith.

The Hamant residence at the corner of Third and Washington has been reshingled during the past week.

A nine and one half pound daughter was born Tuesday to Mr. and Mrs. William Hohl in Portland.

Miss Margaret Carter, who had been visiting her sister, Mrs. Will Bartels, left Thursday for her home in Portland.

Mrs. L. L. Harrell returned Sunday from spending the summer with her sister, Mrs. Hinkle, in Carbondale, Colo. Mr. Harrell met her in Portland on the return trip.

Have you something you don't want? A Sentinel wanted will find

John Nokes has recently built a fence on his Third street property extending north from Washington avenue along the river bank. The sidewalk skirts the river bank closely at this point and pedestrians will appreciate the improvement, especially at night, when formerly a misstep might easily have landed one in the river.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Neet have rented the Benson property, on Quincy avenue, which has recently undergone extensive alterations and improvements. Painting, paper hanging and interior decorating are in progress now and it is expected that the house will be ready for occupancy about September 1. Mr. Neet is employed with the Western Lumber & Export company.

Mrs. J. E. Cooley and little daughter returned Wednesday from Seattle, where they had spent the past three months. Mr. Cooley returned a month ago.

Miss Bethel Gowdy is enjoying a three day's vacation from Kem's pharmacy this week.

Mrs. Edwin Redford was taken to a Eugene hospital Saturday night for an operation for appendicitis.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Woodson, of Stanford, Texas, arrived this week to visit for several months with their sons, Oscar, J. E. and F. M., local garage men.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Roberts left Tuesday for Gold Hill to visit Mr. Roberts' parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Roberts.

Mrs. J. Coates, of Portland, is visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. Amy Page.

George Laubdin and daughter Margaret, of Touchet, Wash., arrived Monday to visit Mrs. Laubdin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Richards.

Mrs. C. E. Frost, Mrs. Clara Burkholder and Miss Belle Burkholder will leave this morning for Gearhart to spend a week's vacation.

Mrs. Jack Nort and three children, of Chetwood, are visiting at the Hiram Griggs home.

The J. H. Bennett family left Wednesday by motor for Medford, where they expect to locate.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lacky left Tuesday by motor for Portland and Seaside.

Mrs. Arthur Leonard and daughters Beatrice and Edith went to Portland Wednesday for a visit at the home of Mrs. E. Smith.

Miss Margaret Cramer, who had been attending Columbia university in New York City, is visiting with Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Proctor. She is en route to Oakland, Calif., where she will teach this year.

George Jacobson was down from Silverton Sunday for a brief visit with his family.

A. F. & A. M., Attention

Special communication Tuesday evening, August 22 at 7:45. Lecture by representative of Grand Master. Regular communication Wednesday evening, September 6, at 7:45. Work in M. M. degree. Refreshments. Members and visiting brethren urged to attend.

L. N. PHELPS,
Secretary.

READ THIS AND ACT QUICKLY
We perform the functions of a banking institution in such a way that every depositor is pleased. You are always on the side of safety when you have any business dealings with us. Be sure that you do not lose any opportunity that offers to let us serve you.

First National Bank

"The Old Reliable"

Kerr's Feed

Baby chick feed and mash, developing grain and mash, egg producer and scratch feed. Also Fisher's and Golden Rod feeds.

Jones & Eaton Feed and Seed Store