

EXTENSION OF FLORENCE HIGHWAY IS ORDERED

A link of seven miles of the Willamette valley-Florence state highway will be built next year, Lane county officials have announced, the county court having received the blue prints showing the location of the highway between Harpole corners, a few miles west of Junction City, to the Bear Creek falls where it will join the summit section of the highway. The proposed stretch follows in a general way the old low pass road to Triangle lake but a number of hills are eliminated in the plans. Road men expect to have the highway completed by 1925.

BOY LOSES FOOT WHEN ACCIDENTALLY SHOT

Billy Moore, 13 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Moore, of Creswell, has lost his right foot and ankle as the result of the accidental discharge of a shotgun in the hands of a boy companion, Kenneth Schwering, when the two were on a pleasant hunting trip Sunday afternoon. The Schwering boy accidentally caught the trigger of his gun in his clothing and the firearm was discharged toward the Moore boy. The lad was taken to a Eugene hospital, where amputation of the foot and ankle was found necessary.

E. L. CAMPBELL, EUGENE POSTMASTER, WAS PIONEER

Edward Lee Campbell, postmaster of Eugene since April, 1915, former publisher of the Eugene Daily Guard and a well-known figure in Lane county, died at his home in Eugene Saturday aged 47 years. He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Campbell, pioneers of 1853. He leaves a widow, two sons and a brother. Mr. Campbell's second term as postmaster at Eugene would have expired August 1, 1925. It is expected that his successor will be appointed soon.

DISTRIBUTION OF TROUT FRY ENDS FOR THIS YEAR

Distribution of trout fry in the streams of Oregon will be discontinued from the McKenzie river and Ukridge hatcheries next week until next summer, Tom Craig, superintendent of distribution, has announced. About 29,000,000 trout fry have been distributed during the past year from the Lane county hatcheries, figures show, but there are still several millions of the trout at the two hatcheries as a starter for next season.
