BOYS' CONFERENCE FOR EUGENE NEXT MONTH

Y. M. C. A. Officials Invite Local Young Men to Meeting December 1-3; 500 Expected.

In an effort to interest local boys in the Older Boys' conference, for the older boys of western Oregon, to be held in Eugene December 1, 2 and 3 under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A., John H. Rudd, of Portland, state county work secretary of the Y. M. C. A., and W. P. Walters, boys secretary of the Eugene branch, were in Cottage Grove Tuesday. The Eugene association is preparing for the entertainment of 500 out of town delegates for the three-day conference, all entertainment and expenses of the three days to be cared for by the people of Eugene except care fare and a $1 registration fee.

On the program for the conference are some of the best known men in Oregon, Dr. Harold Bowman, pastor of First Presbyterian church, Portland; Norman F. Coleman, president of the Four Ls; Dr. E. H. Pence, pastor of Westminster Presbyterian church, Portland; Dr. J. M. Walters, Methodist minister of Eugene, and others. On Friday night the Eugene Chamber of Commerce has arranged for a banquet in honor of all the delegates. The University of Oregon gymnasium floor will be used for the various athletic contests and games scheduled and the Oregon Knights, freshmen and sophomore men at the University, are arranging for a reception committee to show the delegates through the University.

The conference is open to any boy between fifteen and twenty years of age who wishes to attend and who will accept the responsibility of being a delegate from his community by attending the meetings and by doing any duty assigned him by the conference. Registration cards, which were left here by Mr. Rudd and Mr. Walters, must be filed in Eugene by November 21 since accommodations are limited to 500 or 550. Cottage Grove may send six delegates this year. Last year a number of local boys including Claude Sherman, Dwight Buchanan, Marion Richmond and Ralph Fullerton attended the conference in Corvallis.

Drinking wouldn't be quite so bad if it didn't make a man want to talk so much.

1918 SERIES WAR STAMPS PAYABLE JANUARY 1

Holders of Government Securities to Get 4 Per Cent Interest Compounded Annually.

War savings stamps of the series of 1918 become due and payable on January 1, 1923. People who bought these stamps will receive their full face value upon redemption and will find that the money they saved five years ago has earned about four per cent interest compounded annually. In order to afford holders of war savings stamps an opportunity to continue their investment in a safe government security the treasury department is offering an exchange of war savings stamps for treasury savings certificates. The certificates are issued in denominations of $25, $100 and $1000, maturity value, and sold for $20.50, $82 and $820 respectively. Holders of war savings stamps can get them at these prices upon application through their own banks or their postoffices. Exchanges will be made as of January 1, 1923, upon applications presented between November 15, 1922, and January 15, 1923. Immediate payment will be made in cash of any difference due stamp holder of war savings stamps if he takes the largest possible amount of treasury savings certificates on the exchange.

'OLD PEABODY PEW' IS FULL OF LAUGHS

"The Old Peabody Pew," the play written by Kate Douglas Wiggin which was presented at the meeting of Eastern Star Friday night, was full of laughs for the large audience which enjoyed this entertainment feature. The story centers about the meeting of the Edgewood Dorcas society members of which have gathered to lay the carpet and fix up the old church. All of the roles were taken by women and the characters wore costumes of the latter part of the nineteenth century. Mrs. H. W. Titus read selections from the play which was directed by Mrs. K. K. Mills. Added features of the evening were musical selections by Mrs. Archie Knowles and Mrs. Carl Witte.
The parts were taken as follows:
Mrs. Baxter, the minister's wife, Mrs. S. S. Lasswell.
Mrs. Burbank, president of the Edgewood Dorcas society, Mrs. C. C. Cruson.
Mrs. Miller, wife of the sexton, Mrs. Kelly.
Mrs. Sargent, a village historian, Mrs. A. W. Swanson.
The Widow Buzzell, willing to take a second risk, Mrs. George Matthews.
Miss Lobelia Brewster, no lover of men, Mrs. Jas. P. Graham.
Miss Maria Sharp, quiet of speech, sound of heart, Mrs. Earl Hill.
Miss Nancy Wentworth, who has waited ten years for her romance, Miss Margaret Galloway.
Justin Peabody, sole living claimant to the old Peabody pew, Mrs. Merrill-Veatch.

A Message of Hope to Many

Boswell Mineral Springs

Famous for marvelous cures of rheumatism in acute and chronic forms, stomach disorders, kidney troubles and intestinal derangements, are now available to sufferers, who may hope for immediate and permanent cure. The

New Hotel at the Springs

which are just north of Yoncalla and south of Drain, on the Pacific highway and touched by the S. P. Co. railway, is ready for guests. The building is equipped with electric lights, hot water radiators in every room, and the commodious lobby is doubly inviting and restful because of the huge fireplaces which make the room a most cheerful place during cold weather. A ladies' parlor, attractive dining room, and new, modern furnishings throughout make the hotel just such a place as the invalid requires. Mountain spring water is piped to the building for domestic uses. Coupled with all these features is the beauty of the natural surroundings, which radiate a charm indescribable.

Boswell Springs Water

is Mother Nature's own remedy, and the hand of the Creator compounded the elements therein that go to build up wasetd strength and restore youth and vigor to worn and distressed humanity. This strongly impregnated mineral water bubbles up in almost endless quantities from Nature's great laboratory, and here the Indians brought their sick, long before the days of the white man, for curing those ills contracted by exposure, or to heal the wounds received in tribal wars. What this remarkable water has done for others it will do for anyone afflicted with rheumatism, stomach disorders, kidney and intestinal troubles, and the management is announcing the opening of these famous springs to the present generation.

The mineral water baths will be given under the personal direction of Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Strom, expert mineral springs people.

A lady attendant will have charge of the women's bath rooms, where is installed every comfort and convenience.

Present Accommodations Limited

Our present building is limited in capacity, and those desirous of treatment at the Springs are urged to write or phone Boswell Mineral Springs, at Yoncalla, Oregon, for rates and reservations.
