Scott and Mrs. T. G. Suddell. The date of the dance was postponed from November 7 to 14 on account of election on the previous date.

Mrs. A. W. Kime was a pleasant hostess Tuesday afternoon for the regular meeting of the LaComus club. Invited guests for the afternoon were Mrs. P. C. LaCasse, Miss Adelaide LaCasse, Mrs. E. L. Royle, Mrs. Lafayette

MEMBER FEDERAL RESERVE SYSTEM

This bank has a history of more than 32 years of faithful and consistent service to its customers. Our record in the past is your guarantee of our continued reliable service in the future.

First National Bank
"The Old Reliable"

Long, Mrs. M. P. Garoutte and Mrs. Victor Chambers.

Mrs. K. K. Mills was hostess Wednesday afternoon to the ladies' aid of the Baptist church. A short business session was followed by a pleasant social session.

Members of the Constellation club and their families held a covered dish supper in the banquet room of the Masonic temple last night.

Members of the Mizpah class of the Presbyterian Sunday school and several invited guests were entertained Wednesday night at the home of Mrs. G. B. Pitcher for their monthly business and social meeting. At the business meeting, presided over by Mrs. Anna J. Gowdy, president of the class, members decided to appoint entertainment committee for the regular monthly meetings at the gathering of the class on Sunday morning. Following the business meeting a social evening was enjoyed and the hostess served delicious refreshments.

High School News

Patriotic high school students led by the business manager took an assortment of musical instruments and paraded the streets in a Ford Thursday afternoon advertising the football game with Lebanon.

Cottage Grove defeated Lebanon on Armistice day, the score being 19 to 0. The game, the last to be played at home this season, was featured by an 85-yard run for a touchdown by Morelock, who intercepted a pass.

Cottage Grove plays Corvallis November 24 at Corvallis. Corvallis claims a championship team but if defeated by Cottage Grove it cannot claim the championship.

Most of the members of the local high school team witnessed the U. of O. W. S. C. game at Eugene Saturday.

Kathleen McKeonolds and Opal Hill attended the U. of O. W. S. C. football game and spent the week end in Eugene.

The girls' glee club met Friday after school and elected Ray Godard secretary to succeed Kathryn McQueen, who resigned. The club voted that a fine of 25 cents be assessed against members failing to attend meetings unless a valid excuse is given to the president before the meeting.

Group pictures of the classes were taken Monday morning at the high school.

No need to be in want—use a Sentinel wanted.

MRS. NELIA W. DRAKE DIES AT CORVALLIS

Mrs. Nelie Wheeler Drake died Wednesday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Zena Miller, in Corvallis. Mrs. Drake was the daughter of J. M. Comer, of Sutherlin, and formerly lived in Cottage Grove. She was born in Minnesota August 24, 1867, and married Joseph F. Wheeler December 25, 1885. She was the mother of seven children, one son who died in infancy and six daughters who survive. They are Mrs. Nellie Schaffer and Mrs. Hattie Schaffer, Toledo; Mrs. Hazel Schaffer, Logsdon; Mrs. Gertrude Woodruff, Portland; Mrs. Zena Miller and Mrs. Mabel Sharp, Corvallis. Funeral services and interment will be at Corvallis.

VERTEBRA FRACTURED BUT MAN ABLE TO WALK

Henry Richardson, an employe of the A. L. Woodard Lumber company, near Divide, who fell 20 feet from the company's flume recently and suffered a complete fracture of the fifth vertebra of the spine, is recovering from the accident. Although the vertebra was completely fractured Richardson has been able to walk at all times since the accident. The case is remarkable for this reason, according to the attending physician, for it will be two, months before the injured man can return to work although he can walk about now when he wishes.

Three Arrested for Drunkenness.

Charlie Hastings, Bill Burnett and Carly Grooms were arrested Saturday night by Night Police McFarland on a charge of drunkenness. Grooms paid a fine and costs amounting to $12.50 and Burnett forfeited bail in a like sum. Hastings has not yet appeared to answer to the charge against him.

Never put off until tomorrow anything that you can do today.
