Six warehouses belonging to J. F. O'Bryant and operated in Haines by the Marshall Grain company, have been sold.

The state treasurer, on December 2, will consider bids for the sale of Oregon district interest bonds aggregating $231,000.

If members of the city council do not change present views, one-way traffic is certain to have a trial in Portland soon.

Bishop William P. Remington, recently elected to the Episcopal diocese of eastern Oregon, was installed in his office Sunday in Pendleton.

Governor Olcott has completed the task of signing $150,000 of road bonds which were sold at a recent meeting of the state highway commission.

Scottish Rite Masons from various sections of the Willamette valley held a meeting at Salem and perfected organization of the Rose Croix club.

Approximately 75 per cent of the Oregon prune crop for 1922 has been sold and 50 per cent of it has been shipped, according to fruit men of Salem.

William McKinley and Charles Pool of Tillamook were killed when an automobile in which they were driving went off the grade at the bridge at Beaver.

Snowfall on the Blue mountains in several sections of the Umatilla national forest is now over 12 inches deep, according to J. C. Kohns, forest supervisor.

The section of the old Oregon trail state highway between Baker and Huntington in Baker county has been materially improved during the last few weeks.

Taxpayers of Pendleton decided at the recent election that the council should not exceed the 11-mill levy, and the proposed budget of $114,311 must be cut to $97,185.

Figures prepared by U. G. Boyer, Marion county clerk, show that out of a total of 94 women selected for jury service during the last year, only 21 have consented to act.

Of the 12 precincts in Lane county that voted November 7 on the question of whether to allow stock to run at large, four voted in favor of it and eight to keep the stock up.

The Coast Power company in Tillamook has closed down for three months pending improvements entailing the expenditure of $150,000 in the building of a new and up-to-date plant.

Complete election returns from all counties, part of them unofficial, show that the so-called compulsory school bill carried in Oregon by 13,986. The exposition measure was defeated by 12,581.

The sum of $84,068.11 of market road funds was expended on 19 different projects in Lane county from January 1 to November 7, according to a report to the state highway department.

Increased needs of the Bend public schools, the result of the rapid growth of the population there, will be met by a 12-month $80,000 note issue, arrangements for which have already been made.

J. J. Handsaker, representing Oregon in the Near East relief campaign, states that the $2000 given by Riverside Community church in Hood River exceeded the contribution of any other church in the state.

Yoncalla, among the first municipalities to have a city government composed entirely of women, has elected men to serve in the various city offices for the coming two years, and only two women remain in power, these serving on the council.

Indorsement of the Umatilla Rapids power project as the first step in the open-river programme for the Columbia, indorsement of the Smith-McNary bill now pending in congress and request for the appointment of a board of engineers by the secretary of war to make a survey of the Columbia river from Vancouver, Wash., to Priest Rapids in Idaho, as directed was the outstanding action by the Open River conference in Pendleton

Things We Think

Things others think, and what we think of the things others think.

A pessimist is a man who sees the cloud around the silver lining.

The United States is leading the world in the manufacture of shoes. That is one way of putting our best foot foremost.

An English doctor says too many children are born. Be careful, Doc, or someone will be criticizing your parents because they were not race suicidists.

In her petition for divorce a Washington, D. C., woman demands, among other items of expense for her support, $30 a month for milk. The husband might inquire whom she is going to let skim the cream.

A member of an eastern legislature recently exhibited before his colleagues a cabbage head weighing 66 pounds. Even in that kind of competition it carried off the honors.

Silence in a woman may be contempt rather than consent.

Every dog has his day—and the cat has the night.

When you see a man looking for trouble keep your ears open for a call for help.

Those who set around the most seem to hatch out the fewest ideas that amount to anything.

An eastern professor claims that a person's soul is a part of the spinal column—which probably accounts for the limpness of the backbone of some people.

The man who courts a girl who has a small brother has no one but himself to blame if he marries without knowing all of his sweetheart's faults and foibles.

It is said that historic Adam was a democrat. That's once when the democrats had an overwhelming majority.

An honest man can get away with things that would bring vituperation and abuse upon the known hypocrite.

A well-known writer has said that the American press agent is an unmitigated liar. Another bid for the free services of the said press agent.

There is one nice thing about being poor. No one is likely to ask you where you got it.

The man who makes the loud noise seldom sands stories of his deeds thundering down the ages.

There are at least two sides to a thing—which gives you the opportunity to pick out the bright side if you wish to.

A country exchange says "Mr. Silas Jenkins is enjoying a visit from his mother-in-law." For Mr. Jenkins' sake we hope it's true.

There is such a thing as too much optimism, but it doesn't often happen that way. Any amount of pessimism is always too much.

It doesn't seem fair that old maids and old bachelors have to pay a share of the expense of keeping up the divorce courts.

A good resolution for New Years would be to resolve to live so that it will not be necessary to make any good resolutions next year.

A man's vocabulary is usually much more replete with endearing terms before marriage than afterwards.

If no one got any more than he earned, newspaper men would be the richest people on earth.

A newspaper is the only circulating medium that is always worth more than par.

Carrying a large insurance against fire seems strangely to relieve many people of their worry about what is to follow death.

When a man has put a stick of dynamite in his mouth and held a lighted candle under it because he couldn't get the girl he wanted, it might be called prima facie evidence that he had lost his head over her.

Every young mother has an ambition to show the world how children should be brought up, but it usually turns out that the children are such exceptional ones that the plan won't work.
