

SOCIETY

A surprise to their friends in this city was the marriage in Grants Pass on Thanksgiving day of Mrs. Frona Whitehouse and Ed W. Miller, both former residents of Cottage Grove. Mr. Miller was formerly secretary of the chamber of commerce here but is now proprietor of the Oxford hotel in Grants Pass. Mr. and Mrs. Miller stopped over here Thursday on their way to Portland to the hotel men's convention.

The fifth birthday anniversary of little Miss Margaret Short was celebrated Friday afternoon with a party at the Short home to which eighteen of the small friends of the honor guest were invited. Those who enjoyed the afternoon were Margaret and Dorothy Jackson, Evelyn and Eleanor Hays, Jean and Alice Allison, Alberta Williams, Louise Wynne, Alice Elizabeth DesLarzes, Marjorie Ellen Titus, Beth Bedy, Betty Jane Quigley, Adeline Adams, Vera Scott, Madeline Beidler, Mary Elizabeth Lasswell, Maryjane Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Brand were hosts Monday night for a card party, inviting in members of the Catholic society. Mrs. Carrie Hemeway was an invited guest.

The Constellation club will hold its annual Christmas tree upon December 14, with Mrs. Mills, Mrs. Mackin, Mrs. Metcalf, Mrs. Nichols, Mrs. Wynne and Mrs. Scholl as hostesses. Members unable to be present have been requested to notify the hostesses at an early date.

The Ladies' Aid of the Presbyterian church will be entertained at the church at 2:30 o'clock on the afternoon of December 13 by the following hostesses: Mrs. Charles Adams, Mrs. Rosa Curran, Mrs. James Robinson and Mrs. VanOsdel.

The Tillamook club met Wednesday night with Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Stevens at their beautiful new home on North Ninth and Gibbs avenue at an evening of five hundred. Delicious refreshments were served and an old-fashioned dance indulged in. Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Lundeen, Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Garoutte and Mrs. Carrie Hemeway were invited guests.

The benefit musicale and five hundred party given Wednesday night by the Tuesday Afternoon Bridge club for the benefit of the Mothers' club rest room was well attended. Christmas decorations, large bunches of mistletoe tied with bows of red ribbon, made Phillips hall attractive for the occasion. A vocal solo by Mrs. Leon DesLarzes, vocal duet by Mrs. Earl Arthur and Miss Elise Price and two numbers by the ladies' quartet, Mrs. Roy Short, Mrs. C. C. Curson, Mrs. George Matthews and Mrs. Earl Arthur, contributed much to the pleasure of the evening. Mrs. Byrne and George Matthews were winners at cards. Practically all of the money taken in will go to the rest room fund, members of the bridge club donating their time and material. The net receipts were $24.

Delight Valley Society.

Mrs. C. H. Haight was hostess to the Social Neighbors Wednesday afternoon. On account of the stormy weather the attendance was small. Delicious refreshments were served. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. W. E. Nixon on December 20, when the annual Christmas tree will be held.

Silk Creek Society.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Babcock entertained Thursday of last week with a dinner, music and a social evening following. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Babcock, Mr. and Mrs. James Rigby and son Orval, Mr. and Mrs. Grimes and daughter Itha, A. L. Chitwood and daughter Dora, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Wheeler and baby, of Lorene, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Darrell and Mrs. E. M. Wheeler.

A recent issue of the Paso Robles, Calif., Press contains the following account of the wedding of Miss Clita Pearl Anderson, former resident of Cottage Grove. "A wedding of much interest among the younger set in this city took place Tuesday afternoon in Judge Brewster's office when Miss Clita Pearl Anderson and Mr. Clarence Fernely Staggers were united in marriage with the judge officiating. The families of both young people were the only guests at the wedding. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Anderson, of Willow Creek. She has become very popular among the younger set in this city. Mr. Staggers is the stepson of H. D. Bayless, one of the well known ranchers living a few miles north of town. He was seriously injured when employed with the street car company of Los Angeles nearly a year ago and it was while here recuperating from his injuries that he met Miss Anderson. Tuesday evening numerous friends of the young couple gave them an old-fashioned charivari at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bayless. Mr. and Mrs. Staggers will make their home in Los Angeles."

Miss Lula Curran was hostess to members of the Joker club Friday night at her home on old Pacific highway. Because of the illness of a number of members the following men were invited in to enjoy the evening at cards: H. J. Shinn, Ken Sanford, H. H. Vetch and William Thom. Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Curran were also additional guests. Delicious refreshments were served.

Dinner guests at the J. Q. Willets home on Thanksgiving day were Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Hemeway, Miss Rita Kelly and Dale Hawkins.

The S. L. Godard children entertained a number of the young people from the city at their country home Friday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Godard being out of the city, the party was chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. V. T. Randall.

The Frank McFarlands were guests of the S. V. Allison family for Thanksgiving dinner.
