The thirty-fifth birthday anniversary of N. J. Nelson Jr. was the occasion Thursday night of last week for a surprise by a number of friends, who came to the Nelson home with well-filled baskets of lunch and spent the evening.

Dr. and Mrs. H. W. Titus were pleasantly surprised Monday evening, when a party of friends dropped in without notice for a 6 o'clock dinner. Mrs. Titus was starting the evening meal for their family of three and was somewhat embarrassed for a few moments. The guests, however, relieved the situation by producing a turkey steaming hot from the oven, with all the trimmings. The social time which followed continued to midnight. The unexpected guests were Mr. and Mrs. Roy E. Short, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Helliwell, Mr. and Mrs. Karl K. Mills, Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Lasswell and little daughter and Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Proctor. Mrs. Titus was presented with a set of cut glass goblets.

Miss Margaret Galloway was hostess Monday evening to a congenial party of friends. Those who attended the enjoyable affair were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Witte, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan G. Warner, Miss Elise Price, Miss Mildred Hanna, Miss Ruth Phelps, Miss Bethel Gowdy, Miss Dorris Sikes, Ren Sanford, Dale Wynt, Charles Burkholder, Georg Bjorset and Van Beatty.

News of the marriage of Miss Vera Morgan and W. H. Melrose in Klamath Falls last month has reached here. The bride is a daughter of Mrs. M. M. Morgan, of this city, and attended high school here in 1918. She had been living since that time with her sister, Mrs. Lawrence Phelps, at whose home she was married. Mr. and Mrs. Melrose will make their home in Klamath Falls, where Mrs. Morgan will visit with them after Christmas.

The fortieth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Bennett was celebrated Sunday evening at the Bennett home on south Sixth street. A surprise dinner was served by their children, who presented each parent with a ruby. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Bennett and children, Mr. and Mrs. A. I. Pugh and children, Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Bennett, Mrs. Carrie Ferguson, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Allen and daughter Eleanor, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Whitlock, Carl, Ernest and Glen Bennett and Miss Myrtle Potts. All of the children were present except Mrs. William Mattox, who lives in California.

The Past Noble Grand club of the Rebekah lodge was entertained Thursday afternoon of last week by Mrs. James Hart. Members of the club will meet hereafter to piece quilts and sew to furnish a room in the L. O. O. F. home in Portland. Mrs. A. W. Kime will entertain the club at its next meeting in January.

Members of Miss Esther Sisby's class in music were entertained at Miss Sisby's home Saturday afternoon, an interesting contest being engaged in after the program of musical numbers. Miss Sisby served refreshments. A committee, composed of Mrs. Ivan G. Warner, Ray Godard, Hazel Fuhrer and Doris Holderman, was appointed to take charge of the January meeting of the European club. Following is the program given Saturday: Piano duet, "Chatter," Lois Godard and Miss Sisby; "Slumber Boat," Hazel Fuhrer; "Dreaming of Love and You," Ray Godard; piano solo, "In the Boat," and "Fairy Bells," Lois Godard; "Star," Doris Holderman; piano duet.

"Flying Dove," Ray and Harry Godard; vocal solos, "Elegy" and "Until," Mrs. Ivan G. Warner.

Each member of the M. P. G. club was presented with an attractive market bag made of burlap and decorated in gay colored yarns Tuesday afternoon, when the club was entertained by Mrs. Leon DesLarzes. The next meeting of the club will be the Christmas tree party at the home of Mrs. A. L. Wynne.

The annual Christmas tree party of the Constellation club was held yesterday afternoon, only members of the club being present. Individual lunches, packed in dainty boxes, were served. The hostesses were Mrs. Karl K. Mills, Mrs. D. J. Scholl, Mrs. S. L. Mackin, Mrs. O. L. Nichols and Mrs. H. K. Metcalf.

Our neighbor's troubles never appear large until we run up against the same thing ourselves.

It is irritating to the bossy man to have his wife suggest that he do just what he was planning to do whether she wanted him to or not.

It is more than likely that most of our cuss words originally came as an inspiration to someone in a dental chair.

An old maid may not have the happiest lot in the world, but she doesn't have to worry about clothes for a half dozen kids and their good-for-nothing dad.

What is the quality in human nature that makes us revel in the mistakes of others?

For a game that has been exposed so often it is peculiar that flattery serves its purpose nearly every time.

Women are learning to run elevators. Is this going up or down?

If you would be happy, anticipate more sunshine for the days not yet born, have confidence that what went wrong today will be righted on the morrow, have faith in your fellow man and confidence in yourself; brood not on your sorrows and think much on the pleasant things of life.

A person with red hair will go into a rage trying to convince someone that it doesn't give him a bad temper.

When a man is morally bankrupt, his creditors are of the kind who can do nothing for him.

As a Christmas Present

—there is nothing that would be more appreciated by any member of the family than one of the models of Ford enclosed cars—and the giving of the present would come at a time of year when it would be most appreciated. Think how pleasant it would be for your wife, if you are a married man, to have a cozy little parlor on wheels in which she could buzz down town to do her shopping, or which would take her to lodge in the evening or to the party in the afternoon. She could wear her party gowns and arrive at her destination just as she stepped from her boudoir.

She might let you use it when you wish to go somewhere in a hurry and haven't time to bundle up as you must if you go in an open car.

The Ford is always ready to go and always ready to bring you back. The enclosed models are always dry and comfy and are as easy riding as many of the heavy makes that cost several times the price of the Ford.
