> "KICKS" GO WITH MILK. Down in Florida a creamery in-spector recently found a baby's shoe in a can of milk. They may have to give a little boot with milk down there. . . .

It is a noticeable fact that the person who does the most to deserve friendships is usually the one who has them. . . .

THEY AREN'T "SEPTEMBER MORNS." Some of our very nice society women in Chicago and other places have kicked up quite a hullabaloo about the displaying of "September Morn" in public places. There is not as much suggestiveness in this artistic production in the altogether as there is in the spectacle of one of these plump society matrons wad-dling around town in a tight-fitting hobble.

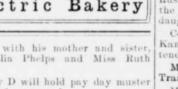

NO JOB FOR A HUSKY MAN. A man holding his first baby about four hours after it has seen the light of day, handles it about as gingerly as he would a basket of overripe eggs. . . .

NO NEED TO GO HUNGRY. Why cuss the tariff? Nitropicric acid, raw acorns, annato, asafetida, dragon's blood, divi-divi, stuffed birds, ipecae, joss sticks, junk spuak and several other popular breakfast foods are on the free list.

The man who does things has no time to waste telling of what he has done or is going to do.
