TRAITORS ARE FOUND OUT.

That your sins will find you out never was better illustrated than in the news story which told of the indicting of seven of those who held positions of trust during the war and used those positions of influence to feather their nests. No crime of the war was more reprehensible than that of stealing a profit while the boys in olive drab were making the supreme sacrifice over there. Those unpatriotic ones who used positions of trust as the means of betraying their country and of betraying those who were offering their lives to make safe the lives of those who were exacting unfair war profits never will be sufficiently punished upon this earth. The hua was a gentleman—a refined gentleman—compared with

Bring That Loose Lens in Here

and have it tightened before it results in injury to your eyesight—for in many cases a loose lens is an important matter.

This matter of loose lenses is given little attention. In many forms of defective eyesight it is most essential that the lenses shall always be in exactly correct adjustment, and in those cases a lens that has become loose is not only a nuisance but a source of actual danger.

Tightening a loose lens is usually a matter of a little adjustment, and we are glad to perform services of this kind without charge, whether you originally obtained your glasses here or not.

We will absolutely guarantee "satisfaction or your money back" within one year from date of purchase, of any pair of spectacles or eyeglasses purchased from us for cash. We will also repair or replace the broken frames or bows of same for the same length of time free of charge.

WAY TO SETTLE REPARATIONS POINTED OUT.

The Sentinel could easily settle the reparations problem that is keeping Europe in a turmoil and is having its effect even on this side of the pond. Germany, it seems to us, making almost no effort to meet its obligations. It is using every wile of the trickster to keep from paying the terrible debt which it owes humanity and which can never be paid in full with goods of this world. Germany started the slaughter. It owes huge sums to our allies. The German people, for whom we may have some slight sympathy, would be better off if they could get rid of those who are at the head of affairs and who are misgoverning them. Unquestionably England, France, Italy and the others of our allies would be willing to each take a slice of the German empire in settlement of their reparations claims. The German people would be better off, billions in debts would be settled, financial conditions would be stabilized and all would be better off than now. The Sentinel is ready, whenever called upon, to wield the carving knife, and will guarantee to each of those interested a liberal helping of the white meat.

Probably believing that it is impossible to get too much of a good thing, the Corvallis Gazette-Times issued a 36-page New Year edition. The Gazette-Times poses as something of a state and national institution, for which reason the New Year edition was not confined exclusively to extolling the city of Corvallis as the social, business and industrial hub of the universe, although 36 pages probably would have been few enough even for that. The Gazette-Times is at all times a credit to the city and county which it serves, but the New Year edition shows that it can spread itself when it so desires.

The Oregonian's annual New Year edition was an encyclopedia of information for those interested in any phase of life in Oregon. Only by a careful perusal of The Oregonian's New Year editions can the people of Oregon themselves keep up with their own state. The people of Oregon have reason to be proud of The Oregonian's annual New Year editions and a reading of them makes us more proud of our own state and more satisfied that there is no other place like it on earth or in heaven.

We wish our friends and enemies a happy and prosperous New Year. May our friends prosper more than our enemies. May our enemies get only part of what is coming to them and may they see the light during the year to come that ere another year rolls by we may be able to wish for them all the good things that should come to those who are fortunate enough to have their names upon our roll of honor.

THE OVERPAID (?) PREACHER.
A leading magazine has compiled figures to prove that the average preacher's salary is $663 the year. Those who find fault because preachers don't work with their hands don't say a word about their receiving the wage of a laboring man.

SAVED THE POCKETBOOK, MAYBE!
A Chicago dentist broke a patient's neck by reason of the force he put into pulling a tooth. It is presumed that he thought he had hold of the patient's leg.

A person doesn't get blamed for more than half the mean things he does—and gets less credit than that for the good ones.

Some people cuss the other fellow's good luck as much as they do their own bad luck.

NEGLECTED FATHER DIES IN COUNTY POOR HOUSE

A short time ago an old man, aged 80 years, died in the Olmstead county poor house, and a story of ingratitude is disclosed thereby which brings a blush of shame for our boasted civilization. He was at one time a prosperous and successful contractor and by hard work and frugal economy he accumulated a little property, in addition to bringing up a large family. In an evil day he divided his property among his children, and soon after receiving the cash these ungrateful offspring forgot the generous father—neglected even to provide the necessities of life for him. For a time he lived with friends, but the inevitable day came when the most charitably disposed could do no more and he was sent to the poor house. Some of the children lived in distant parts, but one of the sons resided in the county with his father. Notwithstanding that all of them were in prosperous circumstances and had been given a good start in life by him, they permitted the old man to die alone and forsaken, a public charge and a pauper. We do not recall just the particular part of hades in which the immortal Dante found the ungrateful, but if the punishment of the whole were rolled into one scourge it would not be too severe a punishment for such ingratitude. But, as likely as not, if the all-wise Ruler should give them their just dues and cast them into the bottomless pit, we are sure this old man would wear callosities on his knees pleading for their redemption. Such is human nature.—Albert Lea (Minn.) Tribune.

When He Smiled.
A young man who had just become engaged had an amazingly large mouth which, when he smiled, seemed to spread out over his whole face. At the urging of his newly betrothed sweetheart he went to speak to her father at once.
"I—I have come, Mr. Barrett," he said, beginning to smile at once with the utmost geniality in order to cover up his embarrassment, "to—to ask for your daughter's hand."
"Excuse me," the father mildly interrupted, "but will you kindly close your mouth for a moment until I can see who you are!"

Not According to Program.
Three-year-old Janie's mother was called away just as she had settled the baby on a bench.
"Stay here now and watch your little baby brother, Janie," she directed. "I'll be back in a few minutes. He'll fall asleep presently."
Before the few minutes were up a resounding roar startled the mother. As she hurried toward the bench Janie came running to meet her.
"Mamma," she called excitedly, "he failed all right, but he wasn't asleep."

ONLY ONE "BEST"

Cottage Grove People Give Credit Where Credit Is Due.

People of Cottage Grove who suffer with weak kidneys and bad backs want a kidney remedy that can be depended upon. Doan's Kidney Pills is a medicine for the kidneys only, and one that is backed by willing testimony of Cottage Grove people. Ask your neighbor.

C. A. Lambert, 231 Second St., Cottage Grove, says: "I don't know of anything better for kidney trouble than Doan's Kidney Pills. My work was a strain on my back and I had attacks of lumbago which hurt me to bend or stoop and it was just as hard to straighten again. My kidneys acted irregularly, until I used Doan's Kidney Pills but they were just what I needed for they made my back strong and well and put my kidneys in good order."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Lambert had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y. j5-12

THE QUALITY STORE—GOOD SERVICE

DOLLARS AND SENSE.

A Yale student spent $45,000 on a four-year course. The first two figures represent what his services are now worth on the open market and the latter four figures the sense exhibited by the parents who paid for the education.

WOMEN HAVE NO SECRETS.

The head of the woman's department of physical education at a university says that present styles make flat chests, crooked spines, round shoulders and flat feet. We don't think the trouble is so much that they make these things as that they expose them to view.
