Thursday-Friday, April 19-20—"When Knighthood Was in Flower," with Marion Davies. Teeming with action, radiant with beauty, redolent with the warm flavor of romance—here's the most talked-about picture ever made. The enchanting story of a madcap princess and her daring lover, filmed at a cost of $1,500,000 and with a cast of 3000. A 12-reel feature. Admission 25c and 50c.

SOCIETY

Mrs. C. H. VanDenburg and Mrs. D. H. Hemenway have been appointed to lead the two sides in the Ladies' Aid society of the Presbyterian church for the experience social in September. New members of the society will be entertained soon with a program and refreshments.

A pretty Japanese garden effect was secured Tuesday night for the Tanglefoot club dance. Japanese quince and Japanese lanterns were used for the attractive decorations, while a half moon added to the quaint garden effect. Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. C. C. Cruson, Mrs. S. S. Lasswell, Mrs. W. A. Garoutte, Mrs. A. G. Williams, Mrs. G. W. McQueen and Mrs. N. J. Nelson Jr.

Mrs. N. J. Nelson Jr. was hostess this week for a pleasant afternoon of bridge for the Tuesday Afternoon Bridge club following a one o'clock luncheon. Japanese quince made the luncheon table and the reception rooms attractive. Mrs. C. J. Kem was a guest.

Hostesses for the regular meeting of the Presbyterian Ladies' Aid society Wednesday afternoon were Mrs. Mary Smith, Mrs. Carrie Hemenway, Mrs. Harry Grube and Mrs. Verne Garoutte. Mrs. F. J. Alstott gave a reading.

Marvin Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Smith, of Melrose, and Miss Mildred Hanna, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Hanna, were married Sunday in Eugene at the home of Rev. A. E. Spearow, who officiated. Mr. and Mrs. Smith spent several days in Portland and are now at home in the new apartment.

Mrs. Ivan Warner entertained at dinner Saturday night, having as her guests Miss Eloise McPherson and Miss Alice Baker, members of the University of Oregon women's glee club which appeared here that evening in concert, and Miss Dorris Sikes.

In the nature of a reunion was the theater party followed by a slumber party which operators of the local telephone exchange enjoyed Thursday night, the occasion having been especially planned because of the presence in the city of Miss Mildred Warner, of Portland, and Mrs. Dan Rentle, of Roseburg, both former operators in the local office. Following the theater party the girls spent the night at the home of Miss Jada Trummel and Miss Mildred Dugan. Others who enjoyed the occasion were Miss Louisa Hohl, Miss Myrtle Potts and Miss Lillian Lewis.

Instead of spending the afternoon in the usual manner with a meeting and program, the Social Twelve club this week carried joy to a number of shut-ins by spending yesterday afternoon calling on several women who have been unable to be out much during the past winter and spring. Among the women who were remembered in this delightful manner were Miss Jennie Wood, Mrs. Lou Stager, Mrs. George Lea, Mrs. Barrett, Mrs. E. A. Gleason, Mrs. Catharine Bader, Mrs. M. F. DesLarzes and others. Each was remembered with flowers by Mrs. Clara Burkholder, whose turn it was to entertain the club and who was the originator of the idea for this altogether novel and pleasurable occasion.

With Mrs. C. E. Frost, Mrs. A. S. Powell and Mrs. W. E. Lebow as hostesses, the Joker club members and their husbands were enjoyably entertained Friday night at the home of Mrs. Frost. A delightful two-course lunch added to the pleasure of the evening.

Mrs. Sarah Howe, whose seventy-fourth birthday anniversary was on Sunday, was the guest of honor at a surprise dinner for which Mrs. E. J. Howe was hostess Sunday. Those who enjoyed the occasion with the honor guest were Mrs. H. J. Jorgensen, Mrs. Fannie Maines, Mrs. Rosa Currin, Mrs. S. E. McKinney, Mrs. Fannie Witte, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Howe and Miss Bertha Howe.

In referring to the visit of the grand matron of the Eastern Star, reference to a banquet served by the officers of the Star in honor of the distinguished guest was inadvertently overlooked. The spread was served at Hotel Bartell and only the officers were present.

Wild orchids made unusually attractive decorations Wednesday afternoon when Mrs. Merville Veatch entertained the S. T. S. club at her home. Miss Edna Christy was an invited guest.

"My Aunt from California," the play which was to have been given Friday night at Eastern Star, has been postponed for two weeks.

Hostesses for the Constellation club Thursday afternoon of next week will be Mrs. W. J. White, Mrs. Albert Woodard and Mrs. N. E. Glass.

Five hundred was enjoyed when Mrs. W. A. Garoutte was hostess recently for an enjoyable evening. A vase was the prize for Mrs. Merville Veatch who won high score for the women and a silver ash tray for Harold Dugan, who won high score for the men. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Victor Chambers, Mr. and Mrs. Merville Veatch, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dugan, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Kem, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Sanders and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Garoutte.

Nine couples were guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Sanders Saturday night for five hundred, high honors going to Mrs. Peter Beaulieu and Fred Anderson. Mrs. Beaulieu received a basket of sweet peas and Mr. Anderson a cigarette holder.

Those who enjoyed the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Sanders were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dugan, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Witte, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Garoutte, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Beaulieu, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Kem, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Garoutte.

Silk Creek Society.
About twenty-five or thirty guests assembled at the P. E. Babcock home Monday evening in honor of the birthday anniversary of the oldest son, Merle. The evening was delightfully spent with games and music and ice cream and cake were served.

COMPULSORY SCHOOL LAW UPHELD BY "THE NEW AGE"

Oregon's so-called compulsory school law, enacted by the people at the last election, is the subject of much comment, both at home and in other states. During the campaign The Sentinel took the position that religion should not be interjected into the campaign and that there was no reason for making it a religious issue. In view of the fact that the law was initiated by Scottish Rite Masons, the following from "The New Age," the organ of the Supreme council of

Lewis Gains 21 Pounds on Tanlac

Declares It Ended Long-Standing Stomach Trouble, Restoring Health and Strength.

G. W. Lewis, well-known night watchman for the Willamette Iron & Steel Works, living at 387 N. 22nd St., Portland, is another of the hundreds of Oregon people who are praising Tanlac.

"Tanlac did such fine work in my case," said Mr. Lewis, "that I can recommend it in the highest terms. For several years I had been suffering from stomach trouble and a run-down condition. After meals I would bloat up with gas and be in terrible pain and misery. I lost weight so fast that I fell off from 180 to 150 pounds. I began to have rheumatism in my legs so bad that it was an effort for me to make my rounds.

"I wasn't able to get any relief until I finally hit upon Tanlac, but this treatment put me in fine shape. My weight has gone up to 180 pounds, I sleep like a log and, although I am rounding out my sixty-ninth year, I don't feel a day over thirty-five."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 37-million bottles sold. a13
