

OUR CIVIC CREED

Our Town is the place where our home is founded; where our business is situated; where our vote is cast; where our children are educated; where our neighbors dwell, and where life is chiefly lived. Our Town has a right to our civic loyalty. It supports us, and we must support it. Our Town wants our citizenship, not partisanship; friendliness, not offishness; co-operation, not dissension; sympathy, not criticism; our intelligent support, not indifference. Our Town supplies us with law and order, trade, friends, education, rights, recreation, and the rights of a free-born citizen. We should believe in our town and work for it, and we will, so help us God.

HAND AND GUSTAVO WILL WRESTLE HERE APRIL 26

Ralph Hand, of Cottage Grove, and Ad Gustavo, of Portland, both claimants of the state middleweight wrestling championship, will meet in this city on the night of April 26 for a finish match, the winner to take all of the gate receipts.

Hand and Gustavo have met twice. Hand defeated Gustavo at Gold Hill in their first tangle and Gustavo defeated Hand in this city in their second match. Hand gifted a broken rib in the final fall. Both matches were at catch weights, a circumstance somewhat to Gustavo's advantage, but he has agreed to make 165 pounds for this match, which will put these two burly bone busters on a more equal footing in the weight.

This match will undoubtedly be the most interesting sporting event of the year in mat circles, as it will practically decide the state middleweight championship, even though Gustavo is wrestling at slightly above the middleweight figure, and will therefore have some advantage over Hand, who is a natural middleweight. This match has long been anticipated by upper valley fans and friends of the local favorite are confident that after this match Hand will be the undisputed champion middleweight of Oregon and a more formidable contender for the middleweight championship of the world.

MANY VETERANS FAIL TO BENEFIT BY STATE BONUS

Records show that there are several hundred veterans or relatives of veterans who have not made application for benefits from the Oregon state bonus. The state aid commission is anxious to close up all claims for the cash bonus as promptly as possible, but is more anxious that no one be overlooked. Many parents and wives of deceased veterans have failed to send in their applications for the reason that they have had no one to take a person interest in them and to assist them in obtaining that to which they may be rightfully entitled. A recent ruling has been made extending the time limit for filing applications to December 31, 1923. Application blanks and information may be obtained on request at the Red Cross office in Eugene, where assistance in filling out the blanks will be given.

Upper Willamette Road Repaired.

The upper Willamette river road above Oakridge is now open for travel. The freshet in December washed out several parts, repairs on which have been completed. Fishing is unusually good on the upper Willamette during the fore part of the season and the opening of the road just now is welcome news to anglers.
