THE STORY IN THE FACE.

The face is the parchment upon which is written the story of our inner lives.

The record is not always what we would wish the world to read, but none the less it is the truthful record of our thoughts and ideals, our hopes and fears, our aspirations and ambitions. Our discouragements, our vicissitudes, our virtues are all faithfully chronicled there by a master sculptor, who never makes a wrong stroke. The face is the map of life, where character outlines itself so clearly that there is no getting away from the story it tells. No matter how we may try to cover it up, it is a never-failing signboard, showing the real man or woman has gone—which of life's crossroads has been taken.

The wrinkles which appear on the face are the outward marks of soul or mental wrinkle. The twist, or friction, in its first form, exists back of the face. Wrinkles are results and do not come by chance; nor can the years alone bring them. The face cannot betray the years until the mind has given its consent. The mind is the sculptor, and the lines on the face are the chisel marks of the mind. Thoughts are forces, might forces; and if the mind holds youthful pictures, retains the freshness of youth, the face will remain youthful.

Embarrassment sends a flush to the face; fear turns it white. Not less readable and far more permanent are the marks which petulance, irritability, hate, selfishness set there.

Skilled police detectives pick a crook out of a crowd by his face. Practical business men employ or reject an applicant for a position after a look at his face. The best letter of recommendation ever written, if it is deserved, is generally carried in the face.

Drug store shelves are loaded with cosmetics and beautifiers. Electricity, massage and many other means are employed to keep the face young and pretty. But real beauty is not to be rubbed in or shot in. It comes from within out, not at all.

To keep the evil, debasing, wearing, racking thoughts out of the mind is to keep their disfiguring marks from the face—and there is no other way.—Duluth Daily Star.

TRUNKS, BAGS SUIT CASES

Trunks, bags and suit cases are very necessary upon certain occasions. Usually when the need for one or the other comes the person needing it is busy with the details of getting ready to go somewhere. Often just what he wants is not in stock and something that is not exactly suitable is taken because of the need of being supplied at once.

The sensible thing to do is to make preparations some time in advance, for a trunk or a suit case is likely to be needed at any moment. A trunk is one of the handiest things to have around the house and one should be in every home for the storage of things that the owner wishes to leave undisturbed or not get at very frequently.

We have several items that should interest you.

- Trunks from $12.00 to $18.75
- Suit Cases $1.50 to $11.00
- Hand Bags $3.75 to $17.50

Nature has thrown off its somber hues and has painted its trees, foliage and flowers in beautiful colors. Man should imitate her and show pride in the appearance of his home or business property. We are headquarters for the best in paints, varnishes, stains and painters' supplies.

W. L. DARBY & CO. HARDWARE—FURNITURE

A PAIR OF BABY SHOES.

An exchange gives us this touching story of life, which shows that all the good in the breast of man has not yet been crowded out by Mammon:

A few days ago some men were overhauling some household goods that had been stored for a long time—so long in fact that the identity of the owner or owners had been lost. The men were tossing the things about in a careless manner until when throwing a small box aside it came open, and out rolled a pair of baby's shoes, followed by some tiny ribbons and wearing apparel. The men all stopped work and looked at the package in silence. One man quietly stooped down and picked them up and, one by one, restored the articles to the box and again fastened it. It called to his mind a little pair of baby shoes which were safely tucked away in a drawer at home, where he and his wife had placed them years before. While doing this, a silent tear trickled down his cheek as he thought of the missing one and what perhaps those little shoes and baby relics meant to the mother and father who packed them away so tenderly, and treasured them so highly. It might have been those worn by an absent daughter or son, who had perhaps gone away, done well or ill, and forgotten the old folks, and more especially the mother, while the mother or father had never for a moment banished them from their minds. It might have been the remembrance of an erring son or daughter. They were dear to their parents, and this father's heart turned to the absent ones, as he thought of his own, and packed them away again."

WHY FOOL EACH OTHER LONGER!

If the truth were known, there are very few girls who pass 25 from preference without being married, and very few men who pass 30 without a feeling that a wife would be kind of handy to have around, to say the least. So what the use of all this beating around the bush—better beat it around to the young woman's house.

Allbright Sees a Vast Change

Declares Tanlac Ended Stomach Trouble and Put Him in Fine Shape.

Lawrence G. Allbright, 1622 Fiske St., Portland, Oregon, is another who has found the Tanlac treatment a safe and sure road to health, strength and working efficiency. He says:

"For several years I never felt right, had no energy to speak of and felt played out all the time. My appetite was very poor, and even the little I did eat bothered me with indigestion so bad it seemed to do me very little good. I was underweight, too, and was bothered a great deal with my kidneys."

"But Tanlac certainly has put me in fine shape. It not only gave me a good appetite, but toned up my stomach and got me to feeling fine in every way. I am full of strength and energy, never feel run down and played out any more, and have gained considerable weight. After what Tanlac has done for me I couldn't say anything too good for it."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 37 million bottles sold. my25
