

SOCIETY

Mrs. Harry Grube was a pleasant hostess Thursday of last week to members of the Social Twelve, three guests, Mrs. George Hall, of Los Angeles, Miss Nanne Henton, of Enterprise, and Mrs. Nina Loosley, of Portland, being invited in to share the afternoon's hospitality with the club members. Mrs. Grube was assisted by Mrs. Schofield Stewart and Mrs. Raymond Grube. The members present were Mrs. J.

H. Chambers, Mrs. S. R. Brand, Mrs. H. A. Miller, Mrs. Homer Galoway, Mrs. Herbert Eakin and Mrs. Clara Burkholder.

A delightful luncheon at 1:30 at the Gray Goose Tea Room followed by an afternoon at her home was the pleasant manner in which Mrs. Roy Short chose to entertain M. P. G. club on Tuesday. A delicious box of sweets, a gift to the club from one of their members, Mrs. George Proctor, who is visiting in California for the summer, was opened on this occasion.

The birthday anniversary of G. A. Sanders was the occasion for a birthday party in his honor Wednesday evening of last week when Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bennett invited in a few friends. In the party were Mr. and Mrs. Victor Kem, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Garoutte, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Garoutte, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Sanders and the Bennetts.

S. L. Godard was the guest of honor at a gathering of friends held at his home Thursday evening of last week, held for the purpose of reminding him that he had reached the forty-third milestone. A cafeteria luncheon was served. Those present were the Vinal Randall, A. A. Richmond and Elbert Bede families, Mrs. J. A. Powell and Norvel Powell.

The wedding of Miss Doris Harding, formerly of this city, to Ernest J. Freeman, of Jefferson, Wednesday of last week in Corvallis is interesting here. The Corvallis Gazette-Times says:

Very quietly solemnized, but one of the pretty nuptials of the week was the wedding of Miss Doris J. Harding, of Corvallis, and Ernest J. Freeman, of Jefferson, which took place Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. L. M. Harding. Rev. W. V. McGee, of Albany, performed the ceremony and only the immediate relatives of the couple were privileged to attend. A wedding luncheon followed the ceremony, and Mr. and Mrs. Freeman then left in their car for Portland and northern points where the honeymoon is to be spent. The couple will then go to Jefferson to make their home on Mr. Freeman's farm in that vicinity. The bride, charming daughter of Mrs. Harding, is a graduate of the Oregon State normal school, Monmouth, and during the past two years has taught in the Central School of Corvallis. Mr. Freeman is a prominent young farmer of Marion county.

Out of town guests here for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. William Freeman and Mr. and Mrs. Lavent Peas of Jefferson.

Hostesses at the meeting of the Methodist Ladies aid on Wednesday were Mrs. Albert Woodard, Mrs. Theo. Baker, Mrs. S. J. Leonard and Mrs. Roy Leonard.

For her daughter Alma's seventeenth birthday anniversary on Saturday Mrs. James Sears invited a few friends as a surprise. The guests were seated in a darkened room when they arrived and it was there that the honor guest found them when sent by her mother in to the room. In the group were Margaret and Kathryn Hemenway, Margaret and Martha Higgins, Emmett, Lillie and Daisy Burnside and Percy Nelson, the latter of Springfield.

Miss Stella Adams was the leader for the meeting of the Missionary societies of the Presbyterian church on Wednesday afternoon, the subject being Cuba, Porto Rica and the Philippines.

The sixty-fourth birthday anniversary of Mrs. L. B. Morris was the occasion Sunday for a birthday dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Motter, who invited Mr. and Mrs. Roy Morris, Smiley Morris and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Skilling of Eugene for the event.

The return of Mrs. George Hall, of Los Angeles, for a visit with her friends in this city, was the occasion for a pleasant afternoon on Tuesday when about 30 of the close friends of Mrs. Hall and several out of town visitors were invited by Mrs. H. A. Miller and Mrs. A. W. Kime to spend a few hours at the Miller home. The afternoon was spent with stunts which proved delightful. Bosses decorated the reception rooms. Out of town guests, who enjoyed the occasion were Mrs. Thomas Holleran, of Pennsylvania, Mrs. Will Hart, of Portland, Mrs. F. A. Richardson, of Creswell, Mrs. W. W. McFarland, of Roseburg, and Mrs. Roy Romaine, of Portland. Mrs. Hall has been a guest at a number of gatherings since her arrival a few weeks ago. She came north to be present for the graduation of her daughter Mildred from University of Oregon.

The Tanglefoot club picnic, which was to have been held Tuesday night at London, was postponed indefinitely because of the cold evenings.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. I. A. Randall, on south Sixth street, was the scene of a very pleasant family reunion when Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Benedict and daughter Grace, of Minneapolis, Minn., Mr. and Mrs. Leo Kohn and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Etue and daughter Ethyle, of Portland, and Mr. and Mrs. Douglas and daughter June, of Minneapolis, Minn., arrived to spend the week end. Mrs. Kohn and Mrs. Etue are nieces and Mr. Benedict a nephew of Mr. Randall.

The trip was made from Portland in cars Saturday night was celebrated with a huge bon fire and with singing songs, accompanied by Grace Benedict and June Douglas on the ukuleles. Those who spent Sunday at the Randall home were Mr. and Mrs. Benedict, Mr. and Mrs. Kohn, Mr. and Mrs. Etue, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas, Mr. and Mrs. Princehouse, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Randall and son Raymond, Mr. and Mrs. V. T. Randall and son Vinal Jr., June Douglas, Grace Benedict, Ethyle Etue, Ruth Kohn, Ellen Princehouse, Charlotte Cooper, Irma Randall, Lawrence Randall, Marcus Diggins, of Iowa, W. B. Cooper and Loren Kohn.

Members of Constellation club and their families enjoyed the annual club picnic at the Veatch camping grounds on Mosby creek last night.

The case of Boney Patton, arrested Monday evening for fighting on the streets and for using profane language, has been continued by Judge Galloway. Patton tried to provoke a fight with George Layne, it was reported. Fines assessed in police court this week were as follows: H. C. Mosby, passing car at intersection, $2.50; E. S. Olstad, speeding, $10.00; C. J. Harrison, Clyde Hastings and R. E. Duell, each fined $15 for being drunk.

Mrs. Nettie B. Little, mother of five children, ranging in years from 17 to 3, all of whom are at Cottage Grove, has filed suit for divorce from her husband, Louis T. Little.

LINOLEUM

As our stock is brand new you are assured of the latest and most fashionable patterns in linoleum, congoileum and texoleum. Congoileum rugs are quite fashionable and are the housewife's delight, as they gather no dirt and in a moment are made to look as if just brought home from the store.

Rag Rugs Are the Rage

In the east the rag rug is becoming the rage. We have a stock of these to which we invite your early inspection. The demand is so great in other sections where they are THE thing that it is wise for those wishing one of these to make a selection now, as we are not assured of another shipment.

Have You Money to Burn?

Houses burn quite frequently, through carelessness, accident, and many other causes. Suppose your house should burn, WOULD IT BURN YOUR MONEY? When there is such a place in the community as a bank, whose business it is to care for and protect your money, why not put it in the First National Bank? There it is safe from fire or from burglars, or from your own extravagance.

Red Rose Brand Ice Cream

The dairies which furnish the material for Red Rose Brand Ice Cream are among the very best in this neighborhood.

This material is pasteurized and homogenized on the day that it is delivered to us and then frozen.

This insures that Red Rose Brand Ice Cream shall be fresh and shall have that creamy taste.
