8000 ATTEND STAMPEDE HELD AT LONDON SPRINGS

A crowd which exceeded all expectations, estimated to have been at least 8000, attended the stampede performance put on Sunday at Lon-don springs by men who had per-formed in round-ups at Pendleton. There was hardly parking space for the motor cars, estimated at 2000. The performance included broncho busting, riding bucking steers, etc. While it was not in the class with the Pendleton performances, the crowd seemed well pleased. The same performance was put on the day before but the crowd was not nearly so large. The Sunday crowd was the largest that ever has gathered at London.

The big swimming tank at the hotel was filled with bathers most of the time of the two days.
