SOCIETY

A delightful picnic was held at the S. L. Godard home Sunday. Enjoying the affair were Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Spencer, Eugene; Mr. Spencer's father, W. Spencer, San Francisco; Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Spencer, Craig, Alaska; Mrs. Spencer's mother, Mrs. W. H. Ostrander, and her daughters Helen and Harriett; Mrs. Ostrander's father, J. A. Lang, and Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Godard.

Mrs. Cecil Phillips invited in a few friends of her daughter Kathryn for a few merry hours of play Thursday afternoon of last week, the occasion being the tenth birthday anniversary of the youthful honor guest. Dainty refreshments were served at 4:30. The guests were Dana and Charlotte Burkholder, Gertrude and Melba Cochran, Beth Bede and Joan Phillips.

Donald Walker and Miss Ruby Whaley, both well known young folks of this section, were married Monday in Eugene. They expect to make their home in Portland.

A number of friends of Mrs. John McCormick, newlywed, gave her a miscellaneous shower Tuesday afternoon. A large number of pretty and useful gifts were left by the visitors.

Grant Tower, clerk of the local M. W. A. lodge, was the guest of honor at a social affair given Tuesday night by that organization. Despite elaborate preparations and some publicity, Mr. Tower was taken by surprise. He was presented with a fine office chair as a token of the appreciation of those he has served so well for so many years.

At the banquet which closed the evening's festivities, rice was served Chinese style and no end of amusement resulted when the banqueters were compelled to get the oriental delicacy to their mouths the best they could with chopsticks.

Mrs. Elbert Smith invited in about a dozen little playmates of her daughter Evelyn yesterday afternoon in honor of the little maid's eighth birthday anniversary. Following an enjoyable afternoon of games, a prize being given to the winner of one of the games, delicious refreshments were served. The table was attractively decorated, being centered with a large yellow birthday cake set with yellow candles. Yellow flowers were placed at each end of the table, while at the place of each guest was a small flower favor. Many pretty gifts were brought by the little guests.

Miss Hazel Fuhrer was hostess at a delightful picnic supper held on the river bank near her home Wednesday evening for the members of a recently organized club of girls and young women of the city. An enjoyable evening was spent in swimming and in social conversation while sitting around a large bonfire, followed by a short business session. Members present were Mrs. Fred Bennett, Miss Hazel Swanson, Miss Evelyn Veatch, Miss Jessie Sanborn, Mrs. R. A. Trask, Mrs. K. L. Stewart, Miss Margaret Galloway, Miss Rita Kelley, Miss Kathryn McQuinn, Miss Dolly Piteher, Miss Beatrice Leonard, Miss Clara Milne, Miss Ruth Bede, Miss Florence McFarland.

Mount View Society. Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Schneider were hosts Saturday evening at a card party at their home. Refreshments were served. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Heath, Addison Heath, Miss Martha Jackson and Mr. and Mrs. George Proctor and children and Mr. and Mrs. Stewart, of Cottage Grove.

A delightful outdoor party was enjoyed Sunday at the J. A. Schneider home, where a picnic dinner was laid on tables in the big shady yard. Those participating were Mr. and Mrs. John Runk, Floyd, Ivan and Betha Bunk and Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Lockwood, Cottage Grove; Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Fisher, Thornton Corners; Miss Martha Jackson, Portland; and Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Heath, Addison Heath and Mr. and Mrs. Schneider and daughter Bernadine.

Mrs. Sears, of Cottage Grove, is visiting at the home of her son Ernest.

A picnic was held in the Horn place Sunday, families from Lynx Hollow, Walker and this neighborhood attending.

Mr. and Mrs. Turpening and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Hill and baby, of Eugene, were Sunday guests at the E. J. Sears home.

Mrs. M. A. Horn has been on the sick list for several days.

Conrad Keene is suffering with a large boil on one knee.

The Fred Witeher family spent Sunday at the Dayle home on Silk creek.

The C. C. Conner family and "Grandpa" Conner spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Conner, above Saginaw.

Mrs. George Andrews and daughter Mildred were guests over Sunday night at the W. A. Witeher home. Mr. and Mrs. Witeher took them to London Monday.

Mrs. Oscar Jackson, with Lois and Dean, spent Monday at the Fred Wright home in Cottage Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Witeher have rented their place for a year to Geo. R. Henderson, recently of Lewiston, Ida., and, after visiting among their children for a while, will spend the winter at Yakima, Wash. They expect to leave Sunday for Sutherlin.

Pistol Team Goes to Clackamas. Captain George A. Proctor, of Co. D, with a pistol team composed of Frank Snodgrass, Harvey Robinson and Weldon Cornutt left yesterday morning for Clackamas range to take part in the state shoot in which rifle and pistol teams of the state will participate. The contest will continue for six days.

Florence Fair Plans Indefinite. Plans for the annual Western Lane fair this year are rather indefinite. It has been suggested, according to those interested in the show, that the display be postponed this year and that next year a celebration be held at the time of the completion of the Rainrock road project.

County Raises Wages. Wages of common labor employed by Lane county will hereafter be at the rate of $4 a day, according to action of the county court. The new rate took effect at once. The former wage was $3.50 a day. According to members of the county court common labor at the former rate was lacking owing to the present demand in other lines.

Nearly every family has kin that they refer to with a kind of awe and others that they don't refer to at all if they can help it.

KEEP YOUNG

People with bad backs and weak kidneys are apt to feel old at sixty. Many old folks say Doan's Kidney Pills help them keep young. Here's a Cottage Grove case:

A. Rogers, retired farmer, 706 Chestnut Ave., Cottage Grove, says: "I have taken Doan's Kidney Pills off and on for several years and they have always done good work. I was subject to kidney troubles and at times I had difficulty in retaining the kidney secretions. A box or so of Doan's Kidney Pills always regulate my kidneys." (Statement given March 27, 1916.)

On March 27, 1920, Mr. Rogers said: "There is nothing better for kidney trouble than Doan's Kidney Pills as they have always helped me when I have had need to use them." Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Rogers had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y. a17-24
