GYPSY BLOOD -gratified!

You needn't be "raggle-taggle gypsies" to think of life being under open skies, beside a brook with the scent of mountain-pine all about. Better still pack off in your motor—have the summer of your life—traveling comfortably and enjoyably—with the needful "Red Crown" in your tank! And remember—for long, economical mileage, and for powerful work in the mountains and elsewhere—it's "Red Crown" for the experienced motorist.

Cooper Window Attracts.

Eugene Register: Many people have been admiring a specially decorated window of the Cooper Realty company which shows a miniature house designed by John S. Drew, building contractor. Credit for the window is due W. B. Cooper and G. E. Finerty, who carried out the effect, which shows an attractive bungalow with electric lights inside and out. A green lawn is made of velvet cloth, while a roadway bordered with smooth stones surrounds the place.

Local Cream Tested.

The latest bulletin from the dairy and food commissioner's office shows that three dairymen from here had had cream tested during the month of July, 1923, and tested 31 per cent, that of W. C. Irvin tested 27.5 per cent and that of L. D. Huff tested 32.5, 33.5 and 35 per cent.

It Always Pays to Attend the Eugene Business College

Because here you will receive a thorough, practical business training under the direction of qualified teachers.

Because our charges are reasonable and our equipment is up to date.

Because when you have completed one of our courses you will be qualified to accept a good position and to make good after you have accepted it.

Because with a business education the road to success will be an easier one to travel.

Because no investment you could make will pay you bigger dividends in the future.

And finally because you owe it to yourself and to the community to prepare so that you can take your place in the front rank and do your part in helping to solve the big problems of the day.

Will you do it? Then remember that September 4 is the date for the beginning of our regular fall term.
