HOW ABOUT YOUR CHILDREN'S EYES?

The class room today is making greater demands upon children's eyes than ever before.

Are you sure that YOUR child is not suffering from the effects of improperly fitted glasses, or from the effects of no glasses at all? This matter is important and you can not afford to accept responsibility for neglect.

Bring your children here for a thorough examination of their eyes and for proper glasses, if required.

We Are Not Mind Readers

But we do know what the good housewife is likely to want in preparing the meal for any time of the day—and we have it for her. Often she doesn't know that she wants it until she sees it, but we know she will want it and we prepare to meet the want.

Whenever a housewife wishes to think of something different, often our display of table needs makes the suggestion that fits in with her plans.
